Collectively, these series of notes are referred to herein as the "AIG Life Holdings Notes."

(2) The current obligor for this series of notes is AIG (as successor to SunAmerica Inc.).

Additionally, the Consent Solicitations consist of solicitation of consents to certain proposed amendments to (i) the indenture under which the four series of notes were originally issued by SunAmerica Inc. (referred to as the "SunAmerica Notes") and (ii) the indenture under which each of the 7.57% Junior Subordinated Deferrable Interest Debentures, Series A (referred to as the "Series A Notes") and the 8 1/8% Junior Subordinated Deferrable Interest Debentures, Series B (referred to as the "Series B Notes"), each as set forth in the table above, were issued.

- Per $1,000 principal amount of notes tendered and accepted for purchase. With respect to the Series A Notes, the Series B Notes and the
- (1) SunAmerica Notes, the Early Tender Payment includes the payment of a consent fee to holders that delivered tenders and accompanying consents. The Early Tender Payment is included in Total Consideration.
 - (2) Per $1,000 principal amount of notes tendered and accepted for purchase, based upon a Reference Yield determined as of 2:00 p.m., New York City time, on May 24, 2021; excludes accrued and unpaid interest; assumes settlement on May 26, 2021.
 - (3) The press release issued by AIG on May 24, 2021 titled "AIG Announces Reference Yields for its Tender Offers for Certain Outstanding Notes" incorrectly listed the Total Consideration for the 7.00% Notes due 2026 as $1,262.03. The correct Total Consideration for this series of notes is $1,262.08.

Additionally, AIG announced the successful completion as of the Original Consent Expiration Time of its previously announced Consent Solicitation for the Series B Notes of AIG Life Holdings. AIG received the consent of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Series B Notes then outstanding, as required by the applicable indenture, through a combination of consents delivered by holders without tendering the related notes and by holders that delivered tenders and accompanying consents, and will enter into a supplemental indenture to effect the amendments to the Series B Notes promptly after the Expiration Time. Holders of Series B Notes who validly delivered and did not validly revoke consents without tendering the related notes at or prior to the Original Consent Expiration Time will receive a "Consent Payment" of $5 per each $1,000 principal amount of consenting notes accepted by AIG on the Early Settlement Date. Revocation rights for the Consent Solicitation for the Series B Notes have expired and have not been extended.

Extension of the Total Consideration for all Notes Tendered Prior to the Expiration Time

AIG is extending the payment of the Total Consideration to all notes that are validly tendered and not withdrawn on or before 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on June 8, 2021 (the "Expiration Time"). Prior to extending the payment of the Total Consideration to the Expiration Time, holders would have had to tender by the Early Tender Time to be eligible to receive the Total Consideration, which includes an Early Tender Payment.

Holders must validly tender their notes on or before the Expiration Time in order to be eligible to receive the Total Consideration.

Extension of Consent Solicitation for Extended Consent Notes

AIG is also extending the period for holders of the Extended Consent Notes to deliver consents, until the Expiration Time.

Holders of Extended Consent Notes may:

- tender their Extended Consent Notes and thereby deliver the related consents pursuant to the respective Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement on or before the Expiration Time; or
- deliver consents without tendering their Extended Consent Notes, pursuant to the respective Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement, on or before the Expiration Time.

Holders of Extended Consent Notes that deliver consents without tendering the related notes at or prior to the Expiration Time will be eligible to receive a "Consent Payment" of $5 per $1,000 principal amount of consenting notes accepted by AIG, if the proposed amendments are entered into for such series of notes. Holders of Extended Consent Notes that have previously delivered consents without tendering the related notes at or prior to the Early Tender Time will be eligible to receive the "Consent Payment", if the proposed amendments are entered into for such series of notes. As described in the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statements, AIG reserved the right, subject to applicable law, to extend the Consent Expiration Time at any time, with respect to any or all series of notes, for any reason. AIG further reserved the right to extend the Consent Expiration Time for one or more series of notes, while not extending for the remaining series of notes. As such, AIG has extended the Consent Expiration Time for the Extended Consent Notes, and has not extended the Consent Expiration Time for the Series B Notes of AIG Life Holdings.

AIG will also continue to pay a soliciting broker fee of $5.00 per $1,000 principal amount of the SunAmerica Notes that are validly tendered and accepted for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offers or for which Consents have been delivered pursuant to the Consent Solicitations to retail brokers that are appropriately designated by their tendering Holder clients to receive this fee; provided that such fee will only be paid with respect to tenders by Holders whose aggregate principal amount of SunAmerica Notes and/or Consents is $500,000 or less.

The Tender Offers and Consent Solicitations are subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions. With respect to the Consent Solicitation and Tender Offer for the Series B Notes and with respect to the Tender Offers for all of the Extended Consent Notes, AIG has waived the Documentation Condition and Series A-B Notes Documentation Condition, as applicable (as described in the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statements). AIG may terminate or alter any or all of the Tender Offers or Consent Solicitations and is not obligated to accept for payment, purchase or pay for, and may delay the acceptance for payment of, any tendered notes or delivered consents, in each event subject to applicable laws. The Tender Offers are not conditioned on the tender of a minimum principal amount of notes.

AIG has retained Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC to serve as dealer managers and consent solicitation agents for the Tender Offers and Consent Solicitations and has retained D.F. King, Inc. to serve as the tender and information agent for the Tender Offers and Consent Solicitations. Requests for documents may be directed to D.F.
