- the extension of the payment of the Total Consideration to all notes tendered and not withdrawn on or prior to the Original Expiration Time (as defined below); and
- the extension of the period for holders of Series A Notes and SunAmerica Notes to deliver consents until the Original Expiration Time.

AIG today announced that:

- it successfully completed the Consent Solicitation for the Series A Notes;
- it is further extending the period for holders of the SunAmerica Notes to deliver consents until 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on June 15, 2021; and
- it is extending the Original Expiration Time of the Tender Offers and extending the payment of the Total Consideration to any tenders of notes received on or before 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on June 15, 2021 (the “Extended Expiration Time”).

Results of the Series A Consent Solicitation

As previously announced, AIG extended the Consent Solicitations for the Series A Notes and the SunAmerica Notes to 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on June 8, 2021 (the “Original Expiration Time”). Today, AIG announced the successful completion as of the Original Expiration Time of its previously announced Consent Solicitation for the Series A Notes of AIG Life Holdings. AIG received the consent of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Series A Notes then outstanding, as required by the applicable indenture, through a combination of consents delivered by holders without tendering the related notes and by holders that delivered tenders and accompanying consents. AIG previously announced the successful completion of the Consent Solicitation for the Series B Notes. AIG will enter into a supplemental indenture to effect the amendments to the Series A Notes and Series B Notes promptly after the date hereof. Holders of Series A Notes who validly delivered and did not validly revoke consents without tendering the related notes at or prior to the Original Expiration Time will receive a “Consent Payment” of $5 per each $1,000 principal amount of consenting notes accepted by AIG on June 10, 2021. Revocation rights for the Consent Solicitation for the Series A Notes have expired and have not been extended.

Extension of the Total Consideration for all Notes Tendered Prior to Extended Expiration Time

AIG is extending the Original Expiration Time and extending the payment of the Total Consideration to all notes that are validly tendered and not withdrawn on or before 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on June 15, 2021. Prior to extending the payment of the Total Consideration to the Extended Expiration Time, holders would have had to tender by the Original Expiration Time to be eligible to receive the Total Consideration, which includes an Early Tender Payment.

Holders must validly tender their notes on or before the Extended Expiration Time in order to be eligible to receive the Total Consideration.

Extension of Consent Solicitation for SunAmerica Notes

AIG is also extending the period for holders of the SunAmerica Notes to deliver consents, until 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on June 15, 2021 (the “Extended SunAmerica Consent Expiration Time”).

Holders of SunAmerica Notes may:

- tender their SunAmerica Notes and thereby deliver the related consents pursuant to the respective Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement on or before the Extended Expiration Time and Extended SunAmerica Consent Expiration Time; or
- deliver consents without tendering their SunAmerica Notes, pursuant to the respective Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement, on or before the Extended SunAmerica Consent Expiration Time.

Holders of SunAmerica Notes that deliver consents without tendering the related notes at or prior to the Extended SunAmerica Consent Expiration Time will be eligible to receive the Consent Payment if the proposed amendments are entered into for such series of notes. Holders of SunAmerica Notes that have previously delivered consents without tendering the related notes at or prior to the Original Expiration Time will be eligible to receive the Consent Payment if the proposed amendments are entered into for such series of notes. As described in the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statements, AIG reserved the right, subject to applicable law, to extend the “Consent Expiration Time” (as defined in the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statements) at any time, with respect to any or all series of notes, for any reason. AIG further reserved the right to extend the Consent Expiration Time for one or more series of notes, while not extending for the remaining series of notes. As such, AIG has further extended the Consent Expiration Time for the SunAmerica Notes, and has not further extended the Consent Expiration Time for the Series A Notes or Series B Notes of AIG Life Holdings.

AIG will also continue to pay a soliciting broker fee of $5.00 per $1,000 principal amount of the SunAmerica Notes that are validly tendered and accepted for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offers or for which Consents have been delivered pursuant to the Consent Solicitations to retail brokers that are appropriately designated by their tendering holder clients to receive this fee; provided that such fee will only be paid with respect to tenders by holders whose aggregate principal amount of SunAmerica Notes and/or Consents is $500,000 or less.

The Tender Offers and Consent Solicitations are subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions. With respect to the Consent Solicitation and Tender Offer for the Series A Notes and Series B Notes and with respect to the Tender Offers for all of the SunAmerica Notes, AIG previously waived the Series A-B Notes Documentation Condition and the Documentation Condition, as applicable (as described in the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statements). AIG may terminate or alter any or all of the Tender Offers or SunAmerica Consent Solicitations and is not obligated to accept for payment, purchase or pay for, and may delay the acceptance for payment of, any tendered notes or delivered consents, in each event subject to applicable laws. The Tender Offers are not conditioned on the tender of a minimum principal amount of notes.
