

Sabra Purtill Named Permanent CFO of AIG

June 20, 2023

Shane Fitzsimons Steps Down Following a Medical Leave of Absence

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jun. 20, 2023-- American International Group (NYSE: AIG) today announced that Sabra Purtill, who has served as Interim Chief Financial Officer since January 2023, has been named to the role on a permanent basis, effective immediately. Shane Fitzsimons will step down from his position following a medical leave of absence.

Peter Zaffino, Chairman & Chief Executive Officer of AIG, stated: "Shane played a critical role in the successful execution of major strategic initiatives, including AIG 200, our company-wide transformation program, the operational separation of the Life and Retirement business from AIG, and the Corebridge IPO, to name a few. I am personally very grateful for his partnership and the lasting contributions he made across the organization. On behalf of the AIG Board of Directors and all our colleagues, I wish Shane the very best as he focuses on his health and his family."

Mr. Zaffino added: "We are fortunate to have Sabra as part of our leadership team. She has held several senior roles at the company since first joining AIG in 2019 and, coupled with her significant industry experience and strong financial background, will provide important continuity in the Chief Financial Officer position. I look forward to continuing to work with Sabra as we execute on AIG's strategic priorities and position the company for the future."
