Mr. Clifford is an accomplished executive with nearly 30 years of global insurance leadership experience. He joins AIG from

Everest Insurance, where he served as Senior Vice President, Head of International Retail Insurance overseeing the UK, Europe, and Asia Pacific retail insurance business. Prior to Everest, Mr. Clifford held senior leadership positions at Chubb, including Managing Director of Chubb European Group. Earlier in his career, he led underwriting teams in London and Singapore at AIG.

"Adam is a highly respected insurance executive, recognised for his leadership and deep underwriting and technical expertise," said Mr. Hancock. "With more than three decades of global operating experience with an exceptional track record, including seven years at AIG where he led underwriting teams, Adam brings deep insurance industry knowledge and global perspective to this role. I am looking forward to welcoming Adam back to AIG and working with him and the team to continue building on our strong momentum."

"I am delighted to rejoin AIG as it builds on its impressive momentum and the outstanding performance of its General Insurance businesses," said Mr. Clifford. "Partnering with Jon Hancock and AIG's best-in-class global teams, I look forward to driving growth across the international commercial insurance business, winning market share, deepening broker relationships, attracting top talent, and delivering the solutions our clients and brokers value."
