NOW, THEREFORE, the parties to this Agreement agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

Section 1.01. Certain Defined Terms. Capitalized terms used in this Agreement shall have the meanings specified in Exhibit A to, or elsewhere in, this Agreement.

ARTICLE II

PURCHASE AND SALE OF THE SHARES AND BRIDGE LOAN

Section 2.01. Purchase and Sale of the Shares and Bridge Loan. On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, at the Closing:

(a) the Parent shall, and shall cause the applicable Sellers to, sell, convey, assign, transfer and deliver to the Acquiror or to one or more Designated Acquirors designated by the Acquiror no more than thirty (30) Business Days after the date hereof, free and clear of all Liens, and the Acquiror (directly or through one or more Designated Acquirors) shall purchase, acquire and accept from the Parent and applicable Sellers, all of the Parent's and such applicable Sellers' right, title and interest in and to the Shares;

(b) the Parent shall cause AIG Funding to sell, convey, assign, transfer and deliver to the Acquiror or to one or more Designated Acquirors designated by the Acquiror no more than thirty (30) Business Days after the date hereof, free and clear of all Liens, and the Acquiror (directly or through one or more Designated Acquirors) shall purchase, acquire and accept from AIG Funding, all of AIG Funding's right, title and interest in and to the Bridge Loan.

Section 2.02. Closing. On the first Business Day of the first month immediately succeeding the month during which all the conditions set forth in Article VIII are satisfied or waived (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of those conditions at the Closing), or on such other date as the Parent and the Acquiror may mutually agree in writing, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall take place at a closing (the "Closing") that shall be held not later than 10:00 a.m. Tokyo time, at the offices of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, 12-32 Akasaka 1-chome, Minato-ku, Tokyo 107-6037, or such other place or time as the Parent and the Acquiror may agree in writing (the date on which the Closing takes place being the "Closing Date").

Section 2.03. Purchase Price. The total purchase price (the "Purchase Price") for the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be an amount in cash equal to $4,800,000,000, which amount consists of (a) an amount equal to the Bridge Loan Purchase Price for the Bridge Loan, plus (b) an amount equal to the Purchase Price minus the Bridge Loan Purchase Price for the Shares (the "Share Purchase Price"), which amount shall be adjusted pursuant to and in accordance with this Section 2.03 and Sections 2.04 and 2.05. The Purchase Price shall be reduced by an amount equal to the sum of (x) the Credit Saison Debt Amount plus (y) the Syndicated Loan Debt Amount plus (z) any Indebtedness for Borrowed Money of the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries outstanding immediately prior to the Closing other than the Credit Saison Debt, the Bridge Loan, the Syndicated Loan and the AIGFAJ Subordinated Debt. For the avoidance of doubt, any such reduction to the Purchase Price shall be treated as an adjustment to the Share Purchase Price. The Parent shall notify the Acquiror of the principal amount of Indebtedness for Borrowed Money outstanding as of the Closing Date and the amount of interest (or original issue discount, as applicable) that will be accrued and unpaid on the Bridge Loan, the Credit Saison Debt, the Syndicated Loan and any other Indebtedness for Borrowed Money to but excluding the Closing Date no later than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Closing Date. For purposes of this ARTICLE II, any accrued and unpaid interest (or original issue discount, as applicable) on the Bridge Loan, the Credit Saison Debt, and the Syndicated Loan and any principal or accrued and unpaid interest on any other Indebtedness for Borrowed Money shall be expressed in U.S. dollars based on the Applicable Exchange Rate as in effect as of the date hereof.

Section 2.04. Payment at Closing.

(a) At the Closing, the Acquiror shall, or shall cause one or more Designated Acquirors to, pay to the Parent (on behalf of itself and the Sellers) an aggregate amount equal to the Purchase Price (as adjusted pursuant to Section 2.03) minus the Closing Date Solvency Capital True-Up Amount. This payment shall be further subject to a post-closing adjustment pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.05. The Purchase Price, and any adjustment pursuant to this Section 2.04 and Sections 2.03 and 2.05, shall be allocated amongst the Parent and each of the Sellers and the assets purchased hereunder as set forth on Section 2.04(a) of the Seller Disclosure Letter. In the event that the Closing Date is after April 1, 2011 as a result of a failure by the Acquiror or one or more Designated Acquirors, to obtain any approval from the FSA necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, at the Closing, the Acquiror shall, or shall cause a Designated Acquiror to, pay to the Parent in cash interest on the Purchase Price for the period commencing on April 1, 2011 and ending on the Closing Date, at a rate of 5% per annum (such amount, if any, the "Purchase Price Interest Amount"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.04(a), neither the Acquiror nor any Designated Acquiror shall be required to pay such Purchase Price Interest Amount if the failure of the Parent or the Sellers to fulfill any obligations under this Agreement was the sole and direct cause of, or solely and directly resulted in, the failure of Closing to occur prior to April 1, 2011, provided, further that in the event the Acquiror has incurred the obligation to pay the Purchase Price Interest Amount, the Acquiror shall not be obligated to pay any interest for any period during which the failure of the Parent or the Sellers to fulfill any such obligation was the sole and direct cause of, or solely and directly resulted in, the failure of the Closing to occur.

(b) Not later than five (5) Business Days prior to the Closing Date, the Parent, at its own expense, shall prepare in good faith and deliver to the Acquiror a worksheet (the "Estimated Companies Solvency Capital Worksheet") in the form attached as Section 2.04(b) of the Seller Disclosure Letter, which sets forth the Parent's good faith estimate, together with explanatory notes and supporting calculations, of the Companies Solvency Capital (the "Estimated Companies Solvency Capital") and the Solvency Deficit (the "Estimated Solvency Deficit"), each as of the Closing Date, which Estimated Companies Solvency Capital and Estimated Solvency Deficit shall be calculated in accordance with the Solvency Capital Calculation Methodology. For the avoidance of doubt, the Estimated Companies Solvency Capital and the Estimated Solvency Deficit shall be calculated and expressed in Japanese yen.

Section 2.05. Adjustment to Payment at Closing.

(a) No later than ninety (90) days after the first statutory quarter end following the Closing Date, the Acquiror shall prepare and deliver to the Parent a worksheet (the “Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet”) in the form set forth in Section 2.04(b) of the Seller Disclosure Letter, which sets forth the Acquiror’s good faith calculation, together with explanatory notes and supporting calculations, of the Companies Solvency Capital (the “Actual Closing Solvency Capital”) and the Solvency Deficit (the “Actual Solvency Deficit”), each as of the Closing Date, which Actual Closing Solvency Capital and Actual Solvency Deficit shall (1) be prepared from the books and records of the Companies and (2) be prepared in accordance with the Solvency Capital Calculation Methodology. For the avoidance of doubt, the Actual Closing Solvency Capital and the Actual Solvency Deficit shall be calculated and expressed in Japanese yen.

Each party shall consult with the other party and their respective accountants with respect to the preparation of the Estimated Companies Solvency Capital Worksheet or the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet, as applicable, and the calculation of the Estimated Companies Solvency Capital and the Estimated Solvency Deficit or the Actual Closing Solvency Capital and the Actual Solvency Deficit, as applicable. Each party shall pay the fees and expenses of any advisors retained by them in connection with the preparation of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet; provided that the Acquiror may request that an independent certified public accounting firm of international recognition provide an opinion or attestation with respect to the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet; provided further that the Acquiror shall be responsible for paying the fees and expenses of such certified public accountant unless there is an Actual Solvency Deficit, in which case such fees and expenses shall be paid by Parent.

If the Acquiror does not provide the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet within the time period set forth in this Section 2.05(a), then, at the election of the Parent, the Parent may prepare and present the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet that has not been so provided within an additional thirty (30) days thereafter.

(b) For purposes of this Section 2.05, (i) the term “preparer” shall mean the party that prepares the Estimated Companies Solvency Capital Worksheet or the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet and calculates the Actual Closing Solvency Capital and the Actual Solvency Deficit or Estimated Companies Solvency Capital and the Estimated Solvency Deficit, as the case may be, and (ii) the term “recipient” shall mean the party that does not prepare the Estimated Companies Solvency Capital Worksheet or the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet or calculate the Actual Closing Solvency Capital and the Actual Solvency Deficit or Estimated Companies Solvency Capital and Estimated Solvency Deficit, as the case may be. Without limiting the generality of Section 5.03 and subject to Section 5.04, in connection with the preparer’s preparation of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet and the preparer’s calculation of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital and the Actual Solvency Deficit, to the extent the preparer does not have all reasonably necessary information in its possession, the recipient shall (i) permit the preparer to review the recipient’s working papers and other supporting data, as well as all of the books, records and other relevant information, in each case, relating to the operations and finances of the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries with respect to the period up to and including the Closing Date, (ii) make reasonably available the individuals in its employ responsible for and knowledgeable about the information necessary for the preparation of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet and the calculation of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital and the Actual Solvency Deficit, as the case may be, in order to respond to the reasonable inquiries of the preparer and (iii) otherwise cooperate in good faith with the preparer.

(c) During the thirty (30) days immediately following the later of (x) the recipient's receipt of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet and (y) if required, the date on which an Auditor's Letter is executed by the recipient and the preparer's independent accountants pursuant to Section 2.05(i) (the "Purchase Price Adjustment Review Period"), the preparer shall (i) permit the recipient and its Representatives to review the preparer's working papers and other supporting data, as well as all of the books, records and other relevant information, in each case, relating to the operations and finances of the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries with respect to the period up to and including the Closing Date, (ii) make reasonably available the individuals in its employ responsible for, and knowledgeable about the information used in, the preparation of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet and the calculation of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital and the Actual Solvency Deficit, as the case may be, in order to respond to the reasonable inquiries of the recipient and (iii) otherwise cooperate in good faith with the recipient and its Representatives.

(d) The preparer shall, through the date that the Final Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet becomes such in accordance with Section 2.05(g), take all actions necessary or desirable to maintain and preserve all accounting books, records, policies and procedures on which the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet was based or on which the Final Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet is to be based so as not to impede or delay the calculation of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital and the Actual Solvency Deficit or the preparation of the Notice of Purchase Price Adjustment Disagreement or any Final Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet in the manner and utilizing the methods permitted by this Agreement.

(e) The recipient shall notify the preparer in writing (the "Notice of Purchase Price Adjustment Disagreement") prior to the expiration of the Purchase Price Adjustment Review Period if the recipient disagrees with the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet, or the calculation of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital or the Actual Solvency Deficit. The Notice of Purchase Price Adjustment Disagreement shall set forth in reasonable detail the basis for such disagreement, the amounts involved and the recipient's determination of such Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet, Actual Closing Solvency Capital or Actual Solvency Deficit. If no Notice of Purchase Price Adjustment Disagreement is received by the preparer on or prior to the expiration date of the Purchase Price Adjustment Review Period, then the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet, the calculation of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital and the calculation of the Actual Solvency Deficit shall be deemed to have been accepted by the recipient and shall become final and binding upon the Parent and the Acquiror in accordance with Section 2.05(g).

(f) During the thirty (30) days immediately following the delivery of a Notice of Purchase Price Adjustment Disagreement (the "Purchase Price Adjustment Consultation Period"), the Parent and the Acquiror shall seek in good faith to resolve any disagreement that they may have with respect to the matters specified in the Notice of Purchase Price Adjustment Disagreement.

(g) If, at the end of the Purchase Price Adjustment Consultation Period, the Parent and the Acquiror have been unable to resolve all disagreements that they may have with respect to the matters specified in the Notice of Purchase Price Adjustment Disagreement, then the Parent and the Acquiror shall submit all matters that remain in dispute with respect to the Notice of Purchase Price Adjustment Disagreement, including information that relates to items which may not be in dispute but are relevant to the disputed matters (along with a copy of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet marked to indicate those line items that are in dispute) to KPMG LLP (the “Expert Accountant”). In the event that KPMG LLP refuses or is otherwise unable to act as the Expert Accountant, the parties hereto shall cooperate in good faith to appoint, within thirty (30) days after the Parent and the Acquiror receive notice from KPMG LLP of its refusal or inability to act as the Expert Accountant, an independent certified public accounting firm of international recognition mutually agreeable to the Parent and the Acquiror, in which event “Expert Accountant” shall mean such firm. Within thirty (30) days after the submission of such matters to the Expert Accountant, or as soon as practicable thereafter, the Expert Accountant, acting as an expert and not as an arbitrator, will make a final determination on the basis of the Solvency Capital Calculation Methodology, and in accordance with this Section 2.05(g), of the appropriate amount of each of the line items or the Actual Closing Solvency Capital and the Actual Solvency Deficit in the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet as to which the Parent and the Acquiror disagree as specified in the Notice of Purchase Price Adjustment Disagreement. The determination by the Expert Accountant shall be binding on the Acquiror and the Parent, and otherwise shall be final, non-appealable and conclusive. With respect to each disputed line item, the Actual Closing Solvency Capital or the Actual Solvency Deficit, as the case may be, such determination, if not in accordance with the position of either the Parent or the Acquiror, shall not be in excess of the higher, nor less than the lower, of the amounts advocated by the recipient in the Notice of Purchase Price Adjustment Disagreement or the preparer of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet with respect to such disputed line item, the Actual Closing Solvency Capital or the Actual Solvency Deficit. For the avoidance of doubt, the Expert Accountant shall not review any line items or make any determination with respect to any matter other than those matters in the Notice of Purchase Price Adjustment Disagreement that remain in dispute, unless the Expert Accountant’s review of such other line items is relevant to the disputed matters or such review or determination is reasonably necessary in order to resolve any disputes that arise from line items or matters that were not initially set forth in the Notice of Purchase Price Adjustment Disagreement but that subsequently arose as a result of the Expert Accountant’s review and determination of those matters in the Notice of Purchase Price Adjustment Disagreement that remain in dispute (in which case, such additional line items and matters shall be deemed to have been included in the Notice of Purchase Price Adjustment Disagreement). The Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet, the calculation of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital and the calculation of the Actual Solvency Deficit that are final and binding on the Parent and the Acquiror, as determined either through agreement of the Parent and the Acquiror (deemed or otherwise) pursuant to Sections 2.05(e) or 2.05(f) or through the determination of the Expert Accountant pursuant to this Section 2.05(g), are referred to herein as the “Final Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet,” the “Final Actual Closing Solvency Capital,” and the “Final Actual Solvency Deficit.” For the avoidance of doubt, the Final Actual Closing Solvency Capital and the Final Actual Solvency Deficit shall be calculated and expressed in Japanese yen. The 30-day period for delivering the written award may be extended by the mutual written consent of the Parent and the Acquiror or by the Expert Accountant for up to an additional thirty (30) days for good cause shown. Notwithstanding anything else contained herein, neither the Parent nor the Acquiror may assert that any award issued by the Expert Accountant is unenforceable because it has not been timely rendered.

(h) The cost of the Expert Accountant's review and determination shall be shared equally by the Parent and the Acquiror. During the review by the Expert Accountant, the Acquiror and the Parent shall each make available to the Expert Accountant such individuals and such information, books, records and work papers, as may be reasonably required by the Expert Accountant to fulfill its obligations under Section 2.05(g).

(i) In the event that any party to this Agreement (or the Expert Accountant) requests, pursuant to this Section 2.05, access to the work papers and other supporting data of the independent accountants of the other parties to this Agreement relating to the preparation of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet or the Estimated Companies Solvency Capital Worksheet and the calculation of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital and the Actual Solvency Deficit or the Estimated Companies Solvency Capital and Estimated Solvency Deficit, as the case may be, the providing party shall cause its independent accountants to make any such work papers and other supporting data available to the requesting party (including the Expert Accountant) and its independent accountants; provided, that the requesting party (including the Expert Accountant) has signed a customary confidentiality and hold harmless agreement relating to such access to working papers and other supporting data in form and substance reasonably acceptable to such independent accountants (an "Auditor's Letter"). The providing party shall promptly provide any consents requested by its independent accountants in connection with such access.

(j) The "Post-Closing Solvency Capital True-Up Amount" will be the amount (expressed in U.S. dollars based on the Applicable Exchange Rate as in effect as of the Business Day immediately preceding the payment date) equal to (whether positive or negative) (i) the Final Actual Solvency Deficit calculated based on the Final Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet (expressed in U.S. dollars based on the Applicable Exchange Rate as in effect as of the Business Day immediately preceding the payment date), if any, minus (ii) the Closing Date Solvency Capital True-Up Amount. If the Post-Closing Solvency Capital True-Up Amount is a negative amount, then the Acquiror shall, or shall cause a Designated Acquiror to, pay to the Parent pursuant to Section 2.07 an amount equal to the absolute value of the Post-Closing Solvency Capital True-Up Amount plus interest on such amount at the Interest Rate calculated in accordance with Section 2.08 from the Closing Date to but excluding the date of payment. If the Post-Closing Solvency Capital True-Up Amount is a positive amount, then the Parent shall pay to the Acquiror (or to a Designated Acquiror designated by the Acquiror) pursuant to Section 2.07 an amount equal to the Post-Closing Solvency Capital True-Up Amount plus interest on such amount at the Interest Rate calculated in accordance with Section 2.08 from the Closing Date to but excluding the date of payment. Such payment shall be (i) made within two (2) Business Days after the date on which the Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet, the calculation of the Actual Closing Solvency Capital and the calculation of the Actual Solvency Deficiency become final and binding on the Parent and the Acquiror, as determined either through agreement of the Parent and the Acquiror (deemed or otherwise) pursuant to Section 2.05(e) or 2.05(f) or through the determination of the Expert Accountant pursuant to Section 2.05(g), and (ii) treated as an adjustment to the Share Purchase Price.

(k) In the event that (1) Parent has contributed capital to Star or Edison after the date hereof as a result of a shortfall in the Solvency Margin Ratio of Star or Edison as contemplated in Section 5.01(z)(xxvii) and (2) there is no Final Actual Solvency Deficit, the Acquiror shall, or shall cause a Designated Acquiror to, pay to Parent on the date that would have been applicable for a payment pursuant to the final sentence of Section 2.05(i) an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the amount of such contributed capital or (y) the amount that could be distributed on the Closing Date by the Insurance Company that received such contributed capital that results in the Companies Solvency Capital to be equal to ¥554,000,000,000 as of the Closing Date (without giving effect to any restrictions on the payment of dividends or other distributions that may applicable to such Insurance Company).

Section 2.06. Transactions: Closing Deliveries.

(a) At the Closing:

(i) the Acquiror shall, or shall cause one or more Designated Acquirors to, pay to the Parent the amount specified in Section 2.04(a) by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account designated by the Parent at least two (2) Business Days prior to the Closing;

(ii) the Parent shall, and shall cause the Sellers to (x) deliver to the Acquiror or to the Designated Acquiror designated by the Acquiror in accordance with Section 2.01(a) (A) one or more stock certificates evidencing the Shares, duly endorsed in blank or accompanied by stock powers duly executed in proper form for transfer, and with any required stock transfer stamps affixed thereto, and (B) written resignations effective as of the Closing Date of each director and each statutory auditor of the Companies and each director and each statutory auditor of the Transferred Subsidiaries, in each case who is not an employee of a Company or Transferred Subsidiary, and (y) cause title to the Shares to be transferred to the Acquiror or to the Designated Acquiror designated by the Acquiror in accordance with Section 2.01(a) (including by delivering, or causing the Sellers to deliver, irrevocable documentation necessary to cause each Company to enter the name of the Acquiror or the Designated Acquiror designated by the Acquiror in accordance with Section 2.01(a) as the sole shareholder of the Shares in the shareholder registry of such Company, duly executed by the applicable Seller or the Parent, as applicable);

(iii) the Parent shall deliver, or cause its applicable Affiliates to deliver, to the Acquiror counterparts of each of the Ancillary Agreements duly executed by the Parent or its applicable Affiliates;

(iv) the Acquiror shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Parent counterparts of each of the Ancillary Agreements duly executed by the Acquiror or its applicable Affiliates; and

(v) each of the parties hereto will deliver to the other such other documents as may be reasonably necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) In addition to the deliverables set forth in Section 2.06(a), at or prior to the Closing, (i) the Parent shall deliver to the Acquiror the certificate referred to in Section 8.03(a)(iv), and (ii) the Acquiror shall deliver to the Parent the certificate referred to in Section 8.02(a)(iv).

(c) Promptly following the Closing, the Acquiror and the Parent shall, and the Parent shall cause the Sellers to, (i) cause the Companies to enter the name of the Acquiror or the Designated Acquiror designated by the Acquiror in accordance with Section 2.01(a) as the sole shareholder of the Shares in the shareholder registry of each Company, and (ii) cause new directors and statutory auditors of the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries to be appointed and registered in the commercial registry.

Section 2.07. Payments and Computations.

(a) Each of the parties hereto will make each payment due to the other party (or its Affiliate) pursuant to this Article II by no later than 10:00 a.m., Tokyo time, on the day when due (unless otherwise consented to by the party to whom such payment is due). All payments shall be paid by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account or accounts designated by the party (or its Affiliate) receiving such payment.

(b) The amounts specified in this ARTICLE II shall be paid free and clear of, and (except to the extent required by Law) without any deduction or withholding on account of, any Taxes; provided, however, that the Parent shall provide, or cause its Affiliates to provide, any statements, forms or other documents reasonably requested by the Acquiror to reduce or eliminate such deduction or withholding. If any amount is required by Law to be deducted or withheld on account of any Tax with respect to payments made under this ARTICLE II to the Parent, such Tax shall be deducted from the amounts required to be paid under this ARTICLE II and the Acquiror (or the applicable Designated Acquiror) shall promptly remit such deduction or withholding on account of any Tax (if any) to the relevant Tax Authority and shall promptly provide the Parent with the appropriate receipts for such payments. All Tax amounts deducted or withheld from payments pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be treated as having been actually paid to the Parent for purposes of this Agreement.

Section 2.08. Interest. All computations of interest with respect to any payment due to a Person under this Agreement will be based on the Interest Rate (except that the Purchase Price Interest Amount and any amount payable pursuant to Section 9.03(a) shall be calculated on the basis of an interest rate per annum of 5.0%) on the basis of a year of 365 days, in each case for the actual number of days (including the first day but excluding the last day) occurring in the period for which such interest is payable. Whenever any payment under this Agreement will be due on a day other than a Business Day, such payment will be made on the next succeeding Business Day, and such extension of time will be included in the computation of payment of interest.

The Parent shall indemnify and hold harmless the Acquiror and its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) from and against any Losses that may be incurred by any of them arising out of or related to the use, storage or handling by the Parent, and its Representatives of (1) any personally identifiable information relating to employees, Brokers, policyholders or customers of the Acquiror and its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) and (2) any other information that is protected by applicable Law (including privacy Laws) or Contract and to which the Parent, and its Representatives is afforded access pursuant to the terms of this Agreement solely to the extent any such Losses are the result of the actions or omissions of the Parent or its Representatives.

The Parent shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, promptly provide any consent requested by their respective independent accountants in connection with such access. If so reasonably requested by the Parent, the Acquiror shall enter into a customary joint defense agreement, in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Acquiror and the Parent, with any one or more of the Parent or any of its Affiliates with respect to any information to be provided to the Acquiror or its Affiliates pursuant to this Section 5.02\(c\). (d) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, the provisions of Section 5.02\(a\), Section 5.02\(b\) and Section 5.02\(c\) above shall not apply to any matter relating to Taxes or Tax Returns as all such matters are governed exclusively by the provisions set forth in Article VII.

Section 5.03. Books and Records.

(a) Subject to Section 5.03(b) and Article VII, the Parent and its Affiliates shall have the right to retain copies of all books, data, files, information and records in any media (including, for the avoidance of doubt, Tax Returns and other information and documents relating to Tax matters) of each of the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries and their respective businesses relating to periods ending on or prior to the Closing Date (i) relating to information (including employment and medical records) regarding the Employees, (ii) as required by any Governmental Authority pursuant to applicable Law or as may be requested thereby or (iii) as may be necessary for the Parent and its Affiliates to perform their respective obligations pursuant to the Transaction Agreements, in each case subject to compliance with all applicable privacy Laws, policies and obligations of the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries made to the past, present or prospective customers, claimants, beneficiaries, employees or agents and with the Parent's and its Affiliates' existing preservation and retention policies and obligations; provided that the applicable books, data, files, information and records retained pursuant to clause (iii) shall be delivered to the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries at the Parent's and its Affiliates' expense once they are no longer needed for the Parent and its Affiliates to perform their respective obligations under the Transaction Agreements. (b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Transaction Agreement, to the extent that the Parent or its Affiliates may possess books, records, files, tapes, software, documents or other materials (i) containing both data relating to the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries and data relating to the Parent and its Affiliates (other than the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries), (ii) that are not used in the operation of, or necessary to, the conduct of the Business as currently conducted, (iii) that have been or will be retained pursuant to applicable Law or for regulatory purposes, including pursuant to a Litigation Hold or otherwise, (iv) the possession of which by the Parent would not violate any privacy policies or legal or contractual obligations of the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries with respect to privacy, (v) with respect to which, to the Knowledge of the Parent, the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries have duplicate copies of any data relating to the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries, and (vi) with respect to which it would not be commercially reasonable for the Parent to separate such data, books, records, files, tapes, software, documents, or other materials relating to the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries from such data and materials relating to the Sellers, the Parent, or any of their respective Affiliates (other than the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries) ("Archived Files") the parties agree that the Archived Files are not the property of the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries and are not sold, transferred or conveyed pursuant to this Agreement or any other Transaction Agreement. The Parent shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, provide the Acquiror, at the Acquiror's expense, reasonable access to the Archived Files relating to the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries during normal business hours, to the extent that such Archived Files have not been disposed according to this Section 5.03.

Section 5.04. Confidentiality.

(a) The confidentiality provisions of the confidentiality agreement, dated November 25, 2008, between the Parent and Prudential Financial, Inc. (the "Confidentiality Agreement") are incorporated into this Agreement by reference and shall continue in full force and effect until the Closing (notwithstanding any prior expiration in accordance with their terms that would otherwise occur), at which time the Confidentiality Agreement shall terminate and become void with no liability on the part of any party thereto except for liabilities that arose prior to the Closing. If, for any reason, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are not consummated, the Confidentiality Agreement shall nonetheless continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

(b) From and after the Closing, the Parent and its Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Acquiror and its Affiliates, on the other hand, shall, and shall cause their respective Affiliates and Representatives to, maintain in confidence, and not use or exploit for any purpose other than in connection with fulfilling their respective obligations under the Transaction Agreements, any written, oral or other information relating to or obtained from the other party or its Affiliates, or in the case of the Parent and its Affiliates, all confidential documents and information concerning the Companies, the Transferred Subsidiaries and the Business (the "Other Party's Confidential Information"), except to the extent that (i) any such Other Party's Confidential Information is or becomes generally available to the public other than (A) in the case of information relating to the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries or relating to or obtained from the Acquiror, its Affiliates or any of their respective Representatives, as a result of disclosure by the Parent, its Affiliates or any of their respective Representatives of such information and (B) in the case of information relating to or obtained from the Parent, its Affiliates or any of their respective Representatives, as a result of disclosure by the Acquiror or any of its Affiliates or any of their respective Representatives of such information, (ii) the Parent or any of its Affiliates, on the one hand, or the Acquiror or any of its Affiliates, on the other hand, is, upon the advice of legal counsel, legally compelled to disclose any such Other Party's Confidential Information (including any report, statement, testimony or other submission to a Governmental Authority) pursuant to applicable Law or any Governmental Order, or by such Governmental Authority, after prior written notice has been given to the Parent, in the case of compelled disclosure by the Acquiror or any of its Affiliates, or to the Acquiror, in the case of compelled disclosure by the Parent or any of its Affiliates, provided that no such notice is required if prohibited by applicable Law, (iii) any such Other Party's Confidential Information is reasonably necessary to be disclosed in connection with any Action, or in any dispute, with respect to the Transaction Agreements (including in response to any summons, subpoena or other legal process or formal or informal investigative demand issued to the disclosing party in the course of any Action, investigation or administrative proceeding), (iv) any such Other Party's Confidential Information was or becomes available to such party on a non-confidential basis and from a source (other than a party hereto or any Affiliate or Representative of such party) that is not bound by a confidentiality agreement with respect to such Other Party's Confidential Information or (v) after the Closing any such Other Party's Confidential Information becomes known or available pursuant to or as a result of the carrying out of the provisions of any Ancillary Agreement (which information shall be governed by the confidentiality provisions set forth in such Ancillary Agreement). In the event that the Parent or any of its Affiliates, on the one hand, or the Acquiror or any of its Affiliates, on the other hand, becomes legally compelled to disclose any such Other Party's Confidential Information, the Acquiror, and the Parent, as the case may be, as the disclosing party, shall cooperate with the party whose information is being disclosed (at such disclosing party's expense) to obtain a protective order or similar remedy to cause such Other Party's Confidential Information not to be disclosed, including interposing all available objections thereto, such as objections based on settlement privilege. In the event that such protective order or other similar remedy is not obtained, the disclosing party shall furnish only that portion of such Other Party's Confidential Information that has been legally compelled, and shall exercise its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded such disclosed information. Each of the Acquiror and the Parent shall, and shall cause their respective Affiliates to, protect such Other Party's Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the unauthorized disclosure of such Other Party's Confidential Information as the Acquiror or the Parent, as the case may be, used to protect its own confidential information prior to the date hereof. For the avoidance of doubt, neither the Acquiror nor any of its Affiliates shall have any obligation to maintain the confidentiality of any information about the Companies or any of the Transferred Subsidiaries after the Closing. Each of the parties hereto shall instruct its Affiliates and Representatives having access to such information of such obligation of confidentiality. For the avoidance of doubt, the parties may disclose information about the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including any facts or materials relating thereto or reasonably necessary to understand such treatment or structure).

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the Parent, and its Representatives may, without notifying the Acquiror or any other Person, share any information relating to or obtained from any of the Acquiror or its Affiliates with (i) subject to the terms and conditions of the Nondisclosure Agreement, dated September 25, 2008, between the FRBNY and the Parent (the "FRBNY NDA") as in effect on the date hereof, the FRBNY and its Representatives, (ii) the U.S. Treasury and its Representatives and (iii) the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and its Representatives (the Persons identified in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) collectively, the “Government Recipients”), in each case as the Parent deems may be reasonably necessary or advisable in its good faith judgment; provided, that the Parent shall, to the extent permitted under applicable Law, request confidential treatment of any of the information included therein and shall exercise its reasonable best efforts to enforce the FRBNY NDA with respect to any such information that the Parent may disclose to the FRBNY; provided, further, that this provision shall not apply to any information regarding Taxes, or any matters relating to Taxes, other than with respect to the tax treatment or tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The Parent shall promptly notify the Acquiror in the event the Parent learns that any Government Recipient has been requested or required to disclose any such information or has taken any action that, if taken by the Parent, would be deemed a breach of this Section 5.04.

Section 5.05. Regulatory and Other Authorizations; Reasonable Best Efforts.

(a) Each of the Acquiror and the Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain as promptly as reasonably practicable any Governmental Approvals that are necessary, proper or advisable (whether so necessary, proper or advisable prior to, at or after the Closing) under the Transaction Agreements and applicable Law to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreements. Each of the Acquiror and the Parent shall cooperate with the reasonable requests of each other in seeking to obtain as promptly as reasonably practicable all such Governmental Approvals. Neither the Acquiror nor the Parent shall take or cause to be taken any action that would reasonably be expected to have the effect of materially delaying, impairing or impeding the receipt of any such required Governmental Approval.

(b) Without limiting the generality of Section 5.05(a), the Acquiror and the Parent shall each as promptly as reasonably practicable make all filings and notifications with all Governmental Authorities that are necessary, proper or advisable (whether so necessary, proper or advisable prior to, at or after the Closing) under the Transaction Agreements and applicable Law to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreements, including (i) filing change of control applications or disclaimers of control, as appropriate, with applicable Governmental Authorities in each jurisdiction where required by applicable Law with respect to the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreements (which may include, in the case of the Acquiror, a filing with the FSA to permit the Acquiror (or a Designated Acquiror) to become either (A) a “major shareholder” of each of the Insurance Companies, or (B) an “insurance holding company,” in each case as such term is defined in the Insurance Business Law), (ii) filing market share notifications in each jurisdiction where required by applicable Insurance Law, and (iii) making any filing that is necessary, proper or advisable (whether so necessary, proper or advisable prior to, at or after the Closing) under any antitrust, competition, privacy, data protection, insurance or other regulatory Law or by any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over enforcement of any applicable antitrust, competition, privacy, data protection, insurance or other regulatory Laws (including “prior consultation” with the Fair Trade Commission of Japan). Each such party shall supply promptly any additional information and documentary material that may be requested pursuant to any applicable Law in connection with the filings referred to in this Section 5.05, and to seek early termination of any applicable waiting periods thereunder. The Parent (or its Affiliates), on the one hand, and the Acquiror (or its Affiliates), on the other hand, shall share equally the filing fees associated with any required filings.

(c) Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, without limiting the generality of the other undertakings pursuant to this Section 5.05, each of the Parent, on the one hand, and the Acquiror, on the other hand, shall take or cause to be taken the following actions: (i) the prompt provision to a Governmental Authority of non-privileged information, documents or testimony requested by such Governmental Authority or that are necessary, proper or advisable to permit consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreements; (ii) the prompt use of its reasonable best efforts to oppose any Action relating to the Transaction Agreements or the transactions contemplated thereby in order to avoid the entry of or to effect the dissolution of any permanent, preliminary or temporary injunction or other order, decree, decision, determination or judgment that would delay, restrain, prevent, enjoin or otherwise prohibit consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreements, including (A) use of its reasonable best efforts to defend through litigation on the merits of any claim asserted in any court, agency or other proceeding by any Person, including any Governmental Authority, seeking to delay, restrain, prevent, enjoin or otherwise prohibit consummation of such transactions and (B) enter into an agreement with any Governmental Authority by the Acquiror to sell, lease, license or otherwise dispose of or hold separate pending such disposition, and promptly to effect the sale, lease, license, disposal and holding separate of, such assets, rights, product lines, licenses, categories of assets or businesses or other operations or interests therein of any of the Companies or the Acquiror or their respective Subsidiaries to the extent such agreement is required by any Governmental Authority in order to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreements in accordance with the terms of the Transaction Agreements; and (iii) the prompt use of its reasonable best efforts to take, in the event that any permanent, preliminary or temporary injunction, decision, order, judgment, determination or decree is entered or issued or becomes reasonably foreseeable to be entered or issued in any proceeding or inquiry of any kind that would make consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreements in accordance with the terms of the Transaction Agreements unlawful or that would delay, restrain, prevent, enjoin or otherwise prohibit consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreements, any and all steps (including the appeal thereof, the posting of a bond or the taking of the steps contemplated by clause (ii) of this Section 5.05(c)) reasonably necessary to resist, vacate, modify, reverse, suspend, prevent, eliminate or remove such actual, anticipated or threatened injunction, decision, order, judgment, determination or decree so as to permit such consummation on a schedule as close as possible to that contemplated by the Transaction Agreements; provided, however, in no event shall the Acquiror or any of its Affiliates be required under this Section 5.05 to commence, threaten or otherwise seek to commence any claim, action, suit, arbitration or proceeding against any Governmental Authority listed on Section 5.05(c) of the Acquiror Disclosure Letter. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, none of the Acquiror, any Designated Acquiror, any of the Sellers, the Parent, any of the Companies or any of the Transferred Subsidiaries shall be required to take any action under this Section 5.05(c) pursuant to, or otherwise agree to or accept, any condition or restriction (A) that would not customarily be imposed in transactions of the type contemplated by the Transaction Agreements, (B) that is not conditioned on the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreements in accordance with the terms of the Transaction

Agreements, (C) that requires the taking of any action, including an amendment of any Transaction Agreement or the sale, lease, license, disposal or holding separate by any of the Companies or any of the Transferred Subsidiaries of any assets, rights, product lines, licenses, categories of assets or business or other operations or interests therein that would materially adversely affect the economic benefits reasonably expected to be derived by the Acquiror, and the Parent, under the Transaction Agreements or in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereunder; provided that, in the event that a Governmental Authority requires that the terms of the Transaction Agreements be changed or altered in a manner that adversely affects any such benefits reasonably expected to be derived thereunder, each of the Acquiror and the Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts and cooperate and negotiate in good faith to agree to alternative terms to the Transaction Agreements that are acceptable to such Governmental Authority and provide benefits substantially similar to the benefits provided under the original terms thereof, (D) that materially adversely affect the ability of the Acquiror and its Subsidiaries (other than the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries), taken as a whole, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or the Parent and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as the case may be, to conduct its business in the same manner as such business is being conducted, including by requiring the sale, lease, license, disposal or holding separate of any assets, rights, product lines, licenses, categories of assets or business or other operations or interests therein, if such sale, lease, license, disposal or holding separate would materially adversely affect such ability to conduct such business in the manner as such business is currently being conducted or (E) that would otherwise have a Material Adverse Effect or would reasonably be expected to have, directly or indirectly, a material adverse effect on the business, operations (including results of operations), assets, liabilities, properties or condition (financial or otherwise) of Prudential Financial, Inc. and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, as applicable (the conditions or restrictions described in clauses (A), (B), (C), (D) and (E) above, the “Negative Conditions or Restrictions”).

(d) Subject to applicable Law relating to the sharing of information, each of the Parent, on the one hand, and the Acquiror, on the other hand, shall (i) promptly notify each other of any communication it or any of its Affiliates receives from any Governmental Authority, (ii) permit the other parties to review, in advance to the extent practicable, any material proposed communication by such party or any of its Affiliates to any Governmental Authority, (iii) consult with the other parties in connection with any such proposed communication to the extent practicable and (iv) provide each other with copies of all material correspondence, filings or communications between such party or any of its Affiliates or Representatives, on the one hand, and any Governmental Authority or members of the staff of any Governmental Authority, on the other hand, in each case to the extent relating to the matters that are the subject of this Agreement. None of the Acquiror, the Parent, any of the Sellers, any of the Companies, any of the Transferred Subsidiaries or any of their respective Affiliates or Representatives shall agree to participate in any meeting with any Governmental Authority relating to the matters that are the subject of this Agreement unless it consults with the other parties in advance and, to the extent permitted by such Governmental Authority or otherwise practicable, gives the other parties the opportunity to attend and participate at such meeting. Subject to the Confidentiality Agreement and to this Section 5.05(d), the Parent and the Acquiror shall coordinate and cooperate fully with each other in exchanging such information and providing such assistance as the other parties may reasonably request in connection with the foregoing; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not require the Acquiror, the Parent, any of the Sellers, any of the Companies, any of the Transferred Subsidiaries or any of their respective Affiliates or Representatives (i) to disclose any information that in the reasonable judgment of the Acquiror, the Parent, any of the Sellers, any of the Companies, any of the Transferred Subsidiaries or any of their respective Affiliates (as the case may be) would result in the disclosure of any Trade Secrets of third parties or violate any of its obligations with respect to confidentiality or privacy or (ii) to disclose any privileged information or confidential competitive information of the Acquiror, the Parent, any of the Sellers, any of the Companies, any of the Transferred Subsidiaries or any of their respective Affiliates (as the case may be); and provided, further, that the parties' obligations to notify the other parties with respect to communications received from a Tax Authority, as well as the rights and obligations of the parties hereto with respect to any matter related to Taxes, shall be governed solely by ARTICLE VII; and provided, further, that none of the parties shall be required to comply with any provision of this Section 5.05(d) to the extent that such compliance would be prohibited by applicable Law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, any materials or information may be withheld or redacted to the extent that they are protected by professional privilege rules (including attorney-client privilege) or as necessary to comply with contractual arrangements or applicable Law.

(e) The Acquiror and the Parent shall each use their reasonable best efforts to timely obtain any approval, consent, license, sublicense, permit, waiver, order, qualification or authorization with respect to (i) any Material Contracts, Reinsurance Contracts, Broker Contracts, Real Estate Venture Documents, Loan Interest Documents and the Contracts set forth on Section 5.05(e)(i) of the Seller Disclosure Letter (collectively, the "Specified Contracts") as a result of such Specified Contracts containing a "change in control" or other similar provision or (ii) any Contracts between the Parent or any of its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) and a third party, required for the provision, under the Transition Services Agreement, of Services or access to Facilities (each, a "Third Party Consent"), in each case, with the other party's participation and cooperation; provided, however, that the Parent may request the Acquiror's consent not to seek a required approval, consent, license, sublicense, permit, waiver, order, qualification or authorization with respect to any Specified Contract, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. The Parent, on the one hand, and the Acquiror, on the other hand, shall pay the costs of all Third Party Consents and any "kill fees" or other penalties (including penalties for unused minimum volume commitments) in connection with procuring any such Third Party Consent in equal proportions. In the event that the Parent cannot obtain any Third Party Consent prior to Closing, the Parent and the Acquiror (A) shall, with respect to Contracts contemplated by clauses (i) or (ii) above to which the Parent or any of its Affiliates (other than the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) is a party, use their reasonable best efforts to provide or cause to be provided to the other party or parties or its or their Affiliates, as the case may be, the benefits, and the costs and expenses, of any such Contract, for not longer than the remainder of the term of such Contract, to the extent permitted thereunder and (B) shall use reasonable best efforts to secure, and with respect to any Contracts for which a Third Party Consent is required to provide Services and access to Facilities under the Transition Services Agreement or to prevent termination of such Contract by a third party, shall secure, an alternative arrangement designed to reasonably provide, where necessary, the operational equivalents of the Intellectual Property, products, services or benefits provided pursuant to such Contract, for not longer than the remainder of the term of such Contract, for which the Third Party Consent was not obtained, provided, that the present value of the costs and expenses of such provision of benefits or alternative arrangement (other than attorney's fees or fees for consultants advising on such alternative arrangement) in excess of the costs and expenses that would have been incurred pursuant to such Contract had such Third Party Consent been obtained at no cost, shall be borne by the Acquiror, on the one hand, and the Parent, on the other hand, in equal proportion; provided, further, that if the alternative arrangement provides for the Contract to be provided for a longer period of time than would have been provided for if the Third Party Consent had been obtained, the Acquiror shall be solely responsible for the costs not reasonably attributable to the term of service under the original Contract had the Third Party Consent been obtained. In no event shall the Parent be required to commence, or threaten or otherwise seek to commence, any claim, action, suit, arbitration or proceeding to obtain any Third Party Consent. For the avoidance of doubt, (1) the terms "approval," "consent," "license," "sublicense," "permit," "waiver," "order," "qualification" or "authorization" when used in this Section 5.05(e) shall in no way be construed to mean an "approval," "consent," "license," "sublicense," "permit," "waiver," "order," "qualification" or "authorization" from a Governmental Authority except to the extent such Governmental Authority is a counterparty to any third party Contract with the Acquiror, the Parent or any of their respective Affiliates and (2) the provision of benefits or alternative arrangements may include assignment of a Contract or portion of a Contract if such Contract or portion of such Contract is solely related to the Business and such assignment would not prevent the Acquiror, the Parent or their respective Affiliates from performing their obligations under any Transaction Agreement.

Section 5.06. Insurance.

(a) From and after the Closing Date, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries shall cease to be insured by the Parent's, or its Affiliates' (other than the Companies' and the Transferred Subsidiaries') (as the case may be) blanket insurance policies or by any of their self-insured programs in place to the extent such insurance policies or programs cover any of the Companies or any of the Transferred Subsidiaries. From and after the Closing Date, if any of the Companies or any of the Transferred Subsidiaries reports a claim solely arising out of its operations covered by the Parent's, or its Affiliates' insurance policies, the Companies, the Transferred Subsidiaries or the Acquiror will fully satisfy the deductible or retention applicable to such claim.

(b) With respect to events or circumstances relating to the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries that occurred or existed prior to the Closing Date that are covered by occurrence-based third party liability insurance policies of the Parent or its Affiliates (other than the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) and any third party workers' compensation insurance policies or comparable workers' compensation self-insurance programs sponsored by the Parent or its Affiliates and that apply to the locations at which the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries operate their respective businesses, the Acquiror may, and may cause the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries to make claims under such policies and programs; provided, however, that by making any such claims, the Acquiror agrees to reimburse the Parent, in cash, for any increased costs incurred by the Parent, or its Affiliates as a result of such claims, including any retroactive or prospective premium adjustments associated with such coverage, as such amounts are determined in accordance with those policies and programs generally applicable from time to time to the Parent or its Affiliates; and provided, further, that neither the Acquiror nor any of its Affiliates shall make any such claims if, and to the extent that, such claims are covered by insurance policies issued or sponsored by the Acquiror or its Affiliates. As of the third anniversary of the date hereof, the Acquiror shall no longer be permitted to report claims with respect to such occurrence-based third party liability insurance policies of the Parent or its Affiliates or to any such workers' compensation insurance policies or comparable workers' compensation self-insurance programs that apply to the locations at which the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries operate their respective businesses, and the Acquiror shall assume full responsibility for, and release the Parent and its Affiliates from, all liability for such claims, known or unknown, resulting from occurrences prior to the Closing Date, other than any Losses with respect to which any Acquiror Indemnified Party is entitled to recovery under any Transaction Agreement.

Section 5.07. Intercompany Obligations and Arrangements.

(a) The Parent shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, take such actions and make such payments so that prior to the Closing Date, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries, on the one hand, and the Parent and its Affiliates (other than the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries), on the other hand, shall settle, discharge, offset, pay, repay in full, terminate, commute or extinguish all outstanding intercompany receivables and payables (other than any principal or interest owed under the Bridge Loan), including any accrued and unpaid interest to but excluding the date of payment; provided, however, that this Section 5.07(a) shall not apply to any intercompany receivables or payables (i) arising under any Intercompany Agreement set forth on Section 5.07(b) of the Seller Disclosure Letter, or (ii) arising under any Insurance Agreement. To the extent that the amount of any intercompany receivable or payable cannot be settled, discharged, offset, paid, repaid in full, terminated, commuted or extinguished concurrently with the Closing in accordance with the preceding sentence (whether as a result of contractual or legal restrictions or otherwise), such amount (plus any accrued and unpaid interest) shall be paid in full following the Closing by, as the case may be, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries, on the one hand, and the Parent and its Affiliates (other than the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries), on the other hand, within 10 days of receipt of an invoice detailing the amount due with respect to such outstanding intercompany receivable or payable (but in no event later than 30 days after the Closing Date); provided such intercompany receivables or payables are reflected in the Estimated Companies Solvency Capital Worksheet. The Parent shall notify the Acquiror, at least five (5) Business Days prior to Closing if the Parent becomes aware of any intercompany receivable or payable that cannot be settled, discharged, offset, paid, repaid in full, terminated, commuted or extinguished concurrently with the Closing.

(b) The Parent shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, take such actions as may be necessary to terminate or commute, effective on or prior to the Closing Date, all Intercompany Agreements; provided, however, that this Section 5.07(b) shall not apply to (i) any Intercompany Agreement set forth on Section 5.07(b) of the Seller Disclosure Letter or (ii) any Insurance Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 5.07(b) shall not apply to (1) any Contract between a third party, on the one hand, and the Parent or any of its Affiliates, on the other hand, to which a Company or Transferred Subsidiary is not a party, but under which a Company and/or a Transferred Subsidiary may otherwise derive benefits, such as enterprise-wide licenses or "master" agreements, or (2) any Contract among (x) a third party, (y) the Parent or any of its Affiliates, and (z) any Company or any Transferred Subsidiary. All of such Contracts are governed exclusively by Section 5.05(e). If any Intercompany Agreement provides that any term or condition survives its expiration or termination, this Agreement hereby modifies and amends such Intercompany Agreement to cancel and negate such survival; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to any term or condition that imposes confidentiality obligations. The parties agree to cooperate in good faith to execute additional documents and take further actions to accomplish the foregoing.

Section 5.08. Guarantees.

(a) Subject to Section 5.13, from and after the date of this Agreement, the parties shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to obtain, on or prior to the Closing, the termination of, and full release of the Parent, the Sellers and any of their respective Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) from any and all obligations arising under, any and all guarantees, keepwells, letters of credit, indemnity or contribution agreements, support agreements, insurance surety bonds or other similar agreements (excluding Insurance Contracts) made in respect of the obligations of, or for the benefit of any obligee of, (i) the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries by the Parent, the Sellers or any of their respective Affiliates (other than the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) or (ii) the Parent, the Sellers or any of their respective Affiliates (other than the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) by the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries (each, a "Guaranty," and each party obligated thereunder, a "Guarantor"), in each case, as set forth in Section 5.08 of the Seller Disclosure Letter.

(b) With respect to the general guarantee agreement, dated as of August 29, 2003, made by American Home Assurance Company on behalf of Edison, the general guarantee agreement dated as of August 20, 2003, made by Lexington Insurance Company on behalf of Edison and any other Guaranty for which the parties do not obtain termination and a full release of the Guarantor from any and all obligations arising under such Guaranty, the Acquiror, or an Affiliate of the Acquiror with the Parent's consent, or the Parent, as applicable shall, concurrently with the Closing, enter into a Hold Harmless Agreement with respect to such Guaranty.

Section 5.09. Non Competition; Non Solicitation; No Hire.

(a) For a period beginning on the day following the Closing Date and ending on the two year anniversary of the Closing Date (the "Restricted Period"), each Parent Entity shall not, without the prior written consent of the Acquiror, directly or indirectly, engage in the Restricted Business.

(b) Notwithstanding the restrictions set forth in Section 5.09(a), and without implication that the following activities (or activities not listed below) otherwise would be subject to the provisions of Section 5.09(a), nothing in Section 5.09(a) shall preclude, prohibit or restrict or otherwise limit any Parent Entity from engaging, or require the Parent to cause the Parent or any Parent Entity not to engage, in any manner in any of the following:

- (i) consummating the transactions or providing or receiving the services contemplated by the Transaction Agreements;

(ii) engaging in (A) the business of marketing, underwriting, issuing and administering accident and health insurance products, “third sector” insurance products, property and casualty insurance products, Simple Life Insurance Products and Takaful products (“Non-Restricted Products”) and (B) any business in any jurisdiction other than the Restricted Business in Japan;

(iii) engaging in any Restricted Business to the extent such Parent Entity does so as of the date of this Agreement;

(iv) acquiring, holding investments or owning, directly or indirectly, any voting stock, Capital Stock or any other equity interest (including convertible securities) of any Person engaged in any Restricted Business, which ownership interest represents at all times not more than 10% of the aggregate voting power or outstanding Capital Stock or other equity interests of such Person; provided, that such percentage shall be not more than 25% if such ownership interest is acquired by any Parent Entity as consideration for the disposition of any Parent Entity; and provided, further that such acquisition or ownership is and remains during the Non-Compete Period solely for investment purposes;

(v) engaging directly or indirectly in any Restricted Business by acquiring, holding investments or owning, directly or indirectly, Capital Stock or any other equity interest (including convertible securities) of FFM or TDH;

(vi) entering into alliances or joint ventures that engage in a Restricted Business so long as the GAAP pre-tax operating income derived by the activities, services or businesses contributed by a Parent Entity and the other party or parties to such alliance or joint venture attributable to the portion of the Restricted Business constituted less than 10% of the consolidated GAAP pre-tax operating income (excluding any effects attributable to short-term and extraordinary events) of such activities, services or businesses contributed by a Parent Entity and the other party or parties to such alliance or joint venture (or, in the event that such Acquired Entity is not a separate Person, the consolidated GAAP pre-tax operating income attributable to the assets and liabilities used in connection with the Restricted Business constituted less than 10% of the consolidated GAAP pre-tax operating income (excluding any effects attributable to short-term and extraordinary events) attributable to the assets and liabilities transferred as part of such Acquisition Transaction);

(vii) entering into alliances or joint ventures involving the distribution of Non-Restricted Products through the distribution platform of a Person that engages in Restricted Business or the distribution of products of such other Person through the distribution platform of a Parent Entity;

(viii) if it is a Covered Business that has completed a Spin-Off Transaction, engaging in any business in any jurisdiction;

(ix) managing, controlling, advising or providing administrative or similar services to general or separate accounts of insurance companies, investment funds or other investment vehicles or any employee benefit plan or trust of any Parent Entity that makes investments in Persons engaging in a Restricted Business, so long as such investments are in the Ordinary Course of Business of such fund, vehicle, plan or trust;

(x) providing investment management, investment advisory, administrative or similar services to any Person; and

(xi) selling, distributing, marketing, underwriting or otherwise providing any products or services in the Ordinary Course of Business to a Person engaged in a Restricted Business.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 5.09, the covenant set forth in Section 5.09(a) shall not be breached by reason of a Parent Entity entering into any agreement to acquire or acquiring, or after such acquisition, owning and operating, in whole or in part, any Person or any asset or business that, directly or indirectly, engages in any Restricted Business (any such Person or business, an “Acquired Entity” and such transaction and any related series of transactions, an “Acquisition Transaction”); provided, that (x) the Parent provides to the Acquiror prompt written notice of the entry into such agreement or the consummation of such Acquisition Transaction (whichever first occurs), which notice shall identify the Acquired Entity and the Restricted Business in which such Acquired Entity engages and (y) such Parent Entity satisfies any one of the Acquisition Conditions set forth below. For purposes of this Section 5.09(c), each of the following shall constitute an “Acquisition Condition”:

(i) within 12 months after the closing or effective date (the “Transaction Date”) of such Acquisition Transaction, the Restricted Business (or the assets used in connection therewith) of such Acquired Entity are disposed of to a Person that is not an Affiliate of any Parent Entity;

(ii) within 12 months after the Transaction Date of such Acquisition Transaction, such Acquired Entity ceases to engage in the Restricted Business; or

(iii) (A) a principal purpose of such Acquisition Transaction is not to circumvent the restrictions contained in this Section 5.09; (B) during the four most recently completed full quarters preceding the Transaction Date, the GAAP pre-tax operating income derived by such Acquired Entity from the Restricted Business constituted less than 20% of the consolidated GAAP pre-tax operating income (excluding any effects attributable to short-term and extraordinary events) of such Acquired Entity (or, in the event that such Acquired Entity is not a separate Person, the consolidated GAAP pre-tax operating income attributable to the assets and liabilities used in connection with the Restricted Business constituted less than 20% of the consolidated GAAP pre-tax operating income (excluding any effects attributable to short-term and extraordinary events) attributable to the assets and liabilities transferred as part of such Acquisition Transaction); and (C) from and after the Transaction Date of such Acquisition Transaction, the Parent Entities (other than the Acquired Entity to the extent set forth in this Section 5.09(c)(iii)) remain subject to this Section 5.09.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 5.09, the covenant set forth in Section 5.09(a) shall not be breached by reason of any of the following:

(i) any Person engaged in the Restricted Business agreeing to hold or holding, or agreeing to acquire or acquiring, directly or indirectly, voting securities of the Parent, whether by means of a stock purchase, merger, consolidation, tender offer or otherwise (such Person, an “Acquiring Entity” and such transaction, a “Change of Control Transaction”);

(ii) following a Spin-Off Transaction, any Person engaged in the Restricted Business agreeing to acquire or acquiring, directly or indirectly, voting securities of the Covered Business that is the subject of such Spin-Off Transaction, whether by means of a stock purchase, merger, consolidation, tender offer or otherwise (such Person, an “Acquiring Entity” and such transaction, a “Spin-Off Change of Control Transaction”); or

(iii) if a Spin-Off Transaction shall not have occurred, any Person engaged in the Restricted Business agreeing to acquire or acquiring, directly or indirectly, all or a material portion of any Covered Business from the Parent or one of its Affiliates, whether by means of a stock or asset purchase, merger, consolidation, reinsurance transaction, tender offer or otherwise (such Person, an “Acquiring Entity” and such transaction, which for the avoidance of doubt shall not include a Spin-Off Transaction, a “Covered Business Sale”); provided, that, in each case, the Parent or the Covered Business, as applicable, provides to the Acquiror prompt written notice of the entry into such agreement or the consummation of such Change of Control/Sale Transaction (whichever first occurs), which notice shall identify the Acquiring Entity and the Restricted Business in which such Acquiring Entity engages.

(e) During the Restricted Period, the Parent shall not, and shall cause the other Parent Entities not to, without the prior written consent of the Acquiror, directly or indirectly, solicit for employment, employ or retain the services of (i) any employee of the Company or any Transferred Subsidiary, (ii) any employee of the Acquiror or any of its Affiliates whose primary job duties consist of transition, migration, and integration of the Business, such employees to be designated in writing by the Acquiror prior to the Closing Date and consented to by the Parent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), (iii) any former employee of any Company or any Transferred Subsidiary who, from or after the Closing Date, voluntarily terminated his or her employment with such Company or Transferred Subsidiary or whose employment is terminated for material misconduct or failure to substantially perform his or her duties for a period of six months following such termination or (iv) any employee of the Parent or any of its Affiliates who is required to be transferred to one of the Companies or one of the Transferred Subsidiaries pursuant to this Agreement, whether or not such employee is so transferred; provided, however, that, except as otherwise provided in clause (iii), the Parent and its Affiliates may employ or hire any such Person who is terminated by any Company or any Transferred Subsidiary after the Closing Date, provided, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 5.09(e), for any person covered by clause (iii), any restrictions under this Section 5.09(e) shall lapse at the earlier of (A) the sixth month anniversary of the termination or (B) the expiration of the Non-Compete Period, and provided further, however, that the foregoing shall not prohibit (i) general solicitations (including by third party recruiter contacts) or advertisements of employment (or hiring as a result thereof) not specifically directed at such persons or (ii) solicitation of such Employees who initiate discussions with any Parent Entity regarding such employment with any Parent Entity without any direct or indirect solicitation by any Parent Entity.

(f) During the Restricted Period, the Parent shall not, and shall cause the other Parent Entities not to, without the prior written consent of the Acquiror, directly or indirectly, on a targeted and systematic basis, solicit for employment, employ or retain the services of any “tied agent” who is engaged by any of the Companies or any of the Transferred Subsidiaries in Japan, other than employment or retention for selling Non-Restricted Products.

(g) The parties hereto acknowledge that the covenants set forth in this Section 5.09 are an essential element of this Agreement and that, but for these covenants, the parties hereto would not have entered into this Agreement. The parties hereto acknowledge that this Section 5.09 constitutes an independent covenant and shall not be affected by performance or nonperformance of any other provision of this Agreement or any other document contemplated by this Agreement.

(h) It is the intention of the parties that the provisions of this Section 5.09 be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the Laws and policies of each jurisdiction in which enforcement may be sought, and that the unenforceability (or the modification to conform to such Laws or policies) of any provisions of this Section 5.09 shall not render unenforceable or impair the remainder of the provisions of this Section 5.09. Accordingly, if at the time of enforcement of any provision of this Section 5.09, a court of competent jurisdiction holds that the restrictions stated herein are unreasonable under circumstances then existing, the parties hereto agree that the maximum period, scope or geographic area reasonable under such circumstances will be substituted for the stated period, scope or geographical area and that such court shall be allowed to revise the restrictions contained herein to cover the maximum period, scope and geographical area permitted by Law.

(i) The Parent expressly acknowledges that the restrictive covenants set forth in this Section 5.09, including the geographic scope and duration of such covenants, are necessary in order to protect and maintain the proprietary interests and other legitimate business interests of the Acquiror and its Affiliates, and that any violation thereof could result in irreparable injury to the Acquiror and its Affiliates that would not be readily ascertainable or compensable in terms of money, and therefore the Acquiror and its Affiliates shall be entitled to seek from any court of competent jurisdiction temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief as well as damages, which rights shall be cumulative and in addition to any other rights or remedies to which it may be entitled.

Section 5.10. D&O Liabilities.

(a) Effective upon the Closing Date, the Acquiror shall, on its own behalf and on behalf of each of its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries), irrevocably waive, release and discharge forever each former director, statutory auditor and officer of the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries who resigned effective immediately after the Closing from any and all liabilities and obligations to, and agreements or understandings with, the Companies and Transferred Subsidiaries (or any of their respective Affiliates) of any kind or nature whatsoever, including in respect of rights of the Acquiror and its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) to receive contribution or indemnification from such former officers, statutory auditors and directors, in each case whether absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, and whether arising hereunder or under any other agreement or understanding or otherwise at Law or in equity, and the Acquiror hereby covenants and agrees on its own behalf and on behalf of each of its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) that it will not seek to recover any amounts in connection therewith or thereunder from any such former director, statutory auditor or officer; provided, however, that the Acquiror shall not, for itself or for any of its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries), waive, release or discharge any such director, statutory auditor or officer from, or covenant not to seek to recover any amounts for, any liabilities or obligations, or agreements or understandings, in each case, to the extent related to or arising from any willful misconduct by such director, auditor or officer.

(b) After the Closing Date, the Acquiror agrees that it shall not, and shall cause each of its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) not to, amend their organizational documents or other instruments in a manner that would affect adversely in any material respect the rights of any individual who served as a director, statutory auditor or officer of any Company or Transferred Subsidiary at any time prior to the Closing Date (each, a “D&O Indemnified Person”) to be indemnified, either under Japanese law or other applicable Law, as those rights existed immediately prior to the Closing Date, against any costs or expenses (including attorneys’ fees and expenses of investigation, defense and ongoing monitoring) judgments, penalties, fines, losses, charges, demands, actions, suits, proceedings, settlements, assessments, deficiencies, Taxes, interest, obligations, damages, liabilities or amounts paid in settlement incurred in connection with any claim, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Closing Date and relating to the fact that the D&O Indemnified Person was a director, statutory auditor or officer of any Company or Transferred Subsidiary, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Closing Date; provided, however, that the Acquiror may cause any of its Affiliates (including, following the Closing Date, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) to effect such amendments to its articles of incorporation and other organizational documents or instruments as are necessary to conform the provisions thereof in respect of director and officer indemnification, whether in their entirety or in part, to the Acquiror’s director and officer indemnification standard as attached hereto as Exhibit H.

Section 5.11. Mutual Release.

(a) Effective as of the Closing, the Parent, for itself and on behalf of its Affiliates, and its and their successors, heirs and executors (each, a “Parent Releasor”), hereby irrevocably, knowingly and voluntarily releases, discharges and forever waives and relinquishes all claims, demands, obligations, liabilities, defenses, affirmative defenses, setoffs, counterclaims, actions, and causes of action of whatever kind or nature, whether known or unknown, which any Parent Releasor has, may have, or might have or may assert now or in the future, against the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries and their respective successors, assigns, officers, directors, partners and employees or any of their heirs or executors (in each case in their capacity as such) (each, a “Company Releasee”), arising out of, based upon or resulting from any Contract, transaction, event, circumstance, action, failure to act, or occurrence of any sort or type, whether known or unknown, and which occurred, existed, was taken or permitted prior to the Closing; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section 5.11(a) shall release, waive, discharge, relinquish or otherwise affect the rights or obligations of any Person to the extent related to or arising out of (i) any intercompany receivable or payable as to which the Parent notifies the Acquiror pursuant to the last sentence of Section 5.07(a), (ii) any Intercompany Agreement set forth on Section 5.07(b) of the Seller Disclosure Letter, (iii) any Insurance Agreement, (iv) any Guaranty to the extent not terminated and fully released pursuant to Section 5.08, or (v) any other Contracts or any other claims, demands, obligations, liabilities, defenses, affirmative defenses, setoffs, counterclaims, actions and causes of action of whatever kind or nature as set forth on Section 5.11(a) of the Seller Disclosure Letter. The foregoing release shall not apply to any claim arising under the terms of any Transaction Agreement or any claim alleging fraud or intentional misconduct. The Parent shall, and shall cause each Parent Releasor to, refrain from, directly or indirectly, asserting any claim or demand, or commencing, instituting or causing to be commenced, any legal proceeding of any kind against any Company Releasee based upon any matter released pursuant to this Section 5.11(a). The parties hereby acknowledge and agree that (i) nothing in this Section 5.11(a) shall in any way limit any Indemnified Party’s right to indemnification under ARTICLE X and (ii) the execution of this Agreement shall not constitute an acknowledgment of or an admission by any Parent Releasor or Company Releasee of the existence of any such claims or of liability for any matter or precedent upon which any liability may be asserted.

(b) Effective as of the Closing, the Acquiror, on behalf of the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries, and their successors, heirs and executors (each, an “Acquiror Releasor”), hereby irrevocably, knowingly and voluntarily releases, discharges and forever waives and relinquishes all claims, demands, obligations, liabilities, defenses, affirmative defenses, setoffs, counterclaims, actions, and causes of action of whatever kind or nature, whether known or unknown, which any Acquiror Releasor has, may have, or might have or may assert now or in the future, against the Parent, the Sellers and their respective Affiliates and its and their respective successors, assigns, officers, directors, partners and employees or any of their heirs or executors (in each case in their capacity as such) (each, a “Parent Releasee”), arising out of, based upon or resulting from any Contract, transaction, event, circumstance, action, failure to act, or occurrence of any sort or type, whether known or unknown, and which occurred, existed, was taken or permitted prior to the Closing; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section 5.11(b) shall release, waive, discharge, relinquish or otherwise affect the rights or obligations of any party to the extent related to or arising out of (i) any intercompany receivable or payable as to which the Parent notifies the Acquiror pursuant to the last sentence of Section 5.07(a), (ii) any Intercompany Agreement set forth on Section 5.07(b) of the Seller Disclosure Letter, (iii) any Insurance Agreement, (iv) any Guaranty to the extent not terminated and fully released pursuant to Section 5.08, or (v) any other Contracts or any other claims, demands, obligations, liabilities, defenses, affirmative defenses, setoffs, counterclaims, actions and causes of action of whatever kind or nature as set forth on Section 5.11(b) of the Seller Disclosure Letter. The foregoing release shall not apply to any claim arising under the terms of any Transaction Agreement or any claim alleging fraud or intentional misconduct. The Acquiror shall, and shall cause each Acquiror Releasor to, refrain from, directly or indirectly, asserting any claim or demand, or commencing, instituting or causing to be commenced, any legal proceeding of any kind against any Parent Releasee based upon any matter released pursuant to this Section 5.11(b). The parties hereby acknowledge and agree that (i) nothing in this Section 5.11(b) shall in any way limit any Indemnified Party's rights to indemnification under ARTICLE X and (ii) the execution of this Agreement shall not constitute an acknowledgment of or an admission by any Acquiror Releasor or Parent Releasee of the existence of any such claims or of liability for any matter or precedent upon which any liability may be asserted.

Section 5.12. Certain Waivers. The parties agree that with respect to (a) each Intercompany Agreement set forth in Section 5.07(b) of the Seller Disclosure Letter and (b) each Insurance Agreement, each party, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries), hereby waives any breach or default under such Intercompany Agreements or Insurance Agreements, and any rights to terminate, accelerate or cancel under such Intercompany Agreements or Insurance Agreements, arising out of or in connection with any "change of control," "change in control" or similar phrase or concept as defined in such Intercompany Agreements or Insurance Agreements (A) of the Companies or any Transferred Subsidiary pursuant to or as a result of the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (B) of the Parent's Affiliates pursuant to or as a result of the transactions contemplated by the Credit Agreement, dated as of September 22, 2008, between the Parent and the FRBNY (as amended, modified or supplemented from time to time in accordance with its terms).

Section 5.13. SMBC Loan

(a) From and after the date of this Agreement, the parties shall use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to obtain, on or prior to the Closing, the consent of Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation ("SMBC") under the Syndicated Loan Agreement (the "Syndicated Loan Agreement"), dated as of March 26, 2008, among AIGFAJ and SMBC, to (i) amend the Syndicated Loan Agreement to substitute the Acquiror (or, with the SMBC's consent, an Affiliate of the Acquiror) for the Parent as Guarantor (as defined in the Syndicated Loan Agreement), (ii) obtain the termination of, and full release of the Parent from, the Parent's obligations under the Guarantee of American International Group, Inc., dated as of March 28, 2008 (the "SMBC Guarantee"), entered into in connection with the Syndicated Loan Agreement, and (iii) waive any Default or Event of Default (as defined under the Syndicated Loan Agreement) that has arisen or would be expected to arise in connection with the execution of this Agreement and/or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby. For the avoidance of doubt, such efforts shall include an offer by the Acquiror to execute a guarantee agreement to become effective as of the Closing on no less favorable terms to the Acquiror than the SMBC Guarantee, but the Acquiror shall not be obligated (A) to offer or to execute a guarantee agreement on terms less favorable to the Acquiror than the terms of the SMBC Guarantee or (B) to make any consent payment or other payment to SMBC or any of its Affiliates in connection therewith.

(b) If the parties fail to obtain the consent of SMBC as set forth in Section 5.13(a) on or before the date that is fifteen (15) Business Days prior to Closing, (i) the Parent shall promptly cause AIGFAJ to notify SMBC that 100% of the principal amount then outstanding under the Syndicated Loan Agreement will be prepaid on the Closing Date, (ii) the Acquiror shall, or shall cause one of its Affiliates to, prepay and discharge the Syndicated Loan Agreement concurrently with the Closing, and (iii) the Syndicated Loan Amount shall be increased by the amount of any break-funding fees or other fees or expenses required to be paid under the Syndicated Loan Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, AIGFAJ shall not, and the Parent shall not permit AIGFAJ to, repay the principal amount outstanding under the Syndicated Loan Agreement prior to Closing.

Section 5.14. Parent Cash Pool. Prior to the Closing Date, the Parent shall cause the transfer of all of the funds of the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries, including accrued and unpaid interest, out of the Parent Cash Pool and into accounts controlled by the Companies and/or Transferred Subsidiaries, as applicable.

Section 5.15. Further Action.

(a) As soon as practicable after the date hereof, the Parent shall (i) cause AIGFAJ to make all filings and notifications that are necessary, desirable, advisable or appropriate to amend its articles of incorporation in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit I, which amendment provides that the preferred shares A issued by AIGFAJ will not have voting rights and (ii) cause Edison to make all filings and notifications that are necessary, desirable, advisable or appropriate to (A) amend its articles of incorporation in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit J, which amendment (x) provides that the preferred shares H issued by Edison will have voting rights (including rights to cast votes for directors of Edison), and will be subordinated to the other preferred shares of Edison and (y) reflects a 4:1 share split of such preferred shares H and (B) redesignate the preferred shares G of Edison owned by the Parent as the preferred shares H and cause a 4:1 share split of the preferred shares H. For the avoidance of doubt, no such amendments to the Edison articles of incorporation shall apply to the preferred shares G of Edison owned by AIGFAJ. The Parent shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, use reasonable best efforts to cause the amendments to the articles of incorporation of AIGFAJ and Edison, the redesignation and the share split referred to in clauses (i) and (ii) above to become effective no later than thirty (30) Business Days after the date hereof. The Parent shall furnish copies of the amended articles of incorporation of AIGFAJ and Edison, certified copies of the commercial registry and copies of the shareholders registries of AIGFAJ and Edison, which reflect the amendments, redesignation and share split referred to in clauses (i) and (ii) to the Acquiror as promptly as practicable after the effective date thereof.

(b) If the amendments to the articles of incorporation of Edison referred to in clause (ii) of Section 5.15(a) above do not become effective within thirty (30) Business Days after the date hereof, the Parent shall, if requested by the Acquiror, prepare in good faith and deliver to the Acquiror, not later than the date that is approximately thirty (30) Business Days prior to the expected Closing Date, a worksheet in the form attached as Section 2.04(b) of the Seller Disclosure Letter, which sets forth the Parent's good faith estimate, together with explanatory notes and supporting calculations, of the Companies Solvency Capital as of the last day of the immediately preceding month, which estimated Companies Solvency Capital shall be calculated in accordance with the Solvency Capital Calculation Methodology. For the avoidance of doubt, the calculation of the Companies Solvency Capital pursuant this Section 5.15(b) shall not be binding on either party for purposes of the purchase price adjustments contemplated in Article II.

(c) If the amendments to the articles of incorporation of Edison, the redesignation and the share split referred to in clause (ii) of Section 5.15(a) above do not become effective within thirty (30) Business Days after the date hereof, during the five (5) Business Days immediately following the Parent's delivery of the calculation of the Companies Solvency Capital as contemplated above, the Parent shall (i) permit the Acquiror and its Representatives to review the preparer's working papers and other supporting data used in such calculation, (ii) make reasonably available the individuals in its employ responsible for, and knowledgeable about the information used in, the calculation of the Companies Solvency Capital in order to respond to the reasonable inquiries of the Acquiror and (iii) otherwise cooperate in good faith with the Acquiror and its Representatives.

(d) If the amendments to the articles of incorporation of Edison, the redesignation and the share split referred to in clause (ii) of Section 5.15(a) above do not become effective within thirty (30) Business Days after the date hereof, no later than the date that is approximately twenty-five (25) Business Days prior to the expected Closing Date, at the request of the Acquiror:

(i) the Parent shall cause its Affiliates to make all filings and notifications that are necessary, desirable, advisable or appropriate so that, effective no later than one (1) Business Day prior to the Closing Date, the Bridge Loan is converted into common shares of AIGFAJ. If requested by the Acquiror, the Parent shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, use reasonable best efforts to cause the Bridge Loan to be converted into common shares of AIGFAJ as described above no later than one (1) Business Day prior to the Closing Date. The Parent shall furnish a certified copy of the commercial registry and a copy of the shareholders registry, reflecting the conversion of the Bridge Loan to the Acquiror as promptly as practicable after the effective date thereof; and

(ii) the Parent and the Acquiror shall cooperate in good faith in order to cause a capital contribution to be made to AIGFAJ or Edison, as reasonably determined by the parties, in exchange for additional common shares of AIGFAJ or Edison, as applicable. In the event of a direct capital contribution to Edison, the shares of common stock of Edison issuable in connection therewith shall be issued to the Parent or AIRCO. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to constitute a commitment by the Parent to make, or cause to be made, any such capital contribution. In the event the Parent or one of its affiliates (other than any of the Companies or any of the Transferred Subsidiaries) makes a capital contribution pursuant to this Section 5.15(d)(ii), then the Acquiror shall pay to Parent on the Closing Date an amount equal to the amount of such contributed capital. For the avoidance of doubt, any capital contributed pursuant to this Section 5.15(d)(ii) shall be excluded from the calculation of the Companies Solvency Capital under Section 2.04(b) and Section 2.05.

(e) Any new preferred shares H of Edison issued in accordance with Section 5.15(a) and any other shares of Capital Stock of AIGFAJ or Edison issued pursuant to clauses (i) or (ii) of Section 5.15(d) shall be deemed to be “Shares” for purposes of this Agreement and shall be included in the sale and purchase contemplated in Article II hereof (without any increase to the Purchase Price other than the payment provided in Section 5.15(d)(ii)), except to the extent any such shares of Capital Stock are owned by one of the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries. Prior to Closing, the parties shall amend Section 2.04(b) of the Seller Disclosure Letter to reflect any changes resulting from any change in the capitalization of AIGFAJ or Edison pursuant to Sections 5.01(a) or (d). If the Bridge Loan is converted into common stock of AIGFAJ, the Bridge Loan Purchase Price shall be reduced to $0.

(f) The Parent and the Acquiror (i) shall execute and deliver, or shall cause to be executed and delivered, such documents and other papers and shall take, or shall cause to be taken, such further actions as may be reasonably required to carry out the provisions of the Transaction Agreements and give effect to the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreements, (ii) shall refrain from taking any actions that could reasonably be expected to impair, delay or impede the Closing, and (iii) except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, including in Section 5.05(c), shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to cause all the conditions to the obligations of the other party to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to be met as soon as reasonably practicable.

Section 5.16. Investment Assets.

(a) (i) From the date hereof through the Closing, the Parent shall deliver to the Acquiror, on a weekly basis, a true, correct and complete list of all purchases, acquisitions, commitments, derivatives, transactions, sales and dispositions during the previous week of Investment Assets of any of the Companies or any of the Transferred Subsidiaries and all investments and reinvestments of income and proceeds in respect thereof (such purchases, acquisitions, commitments, derivatives, transactions, sales, dispositions, investments and reinvestment, the “Investment Asset Transactions”), including the dates of each such Investment Asset Transaction and the book value or amortized cost and market value of the associated Investment Asset, (ii) no later than 30 days after the last day of each fiscal quarter prior to the Closing, the Parent shall deliver to the Acquiror a true, correct and complete list of the Investment Assets as of such quarter end date, and (iii) for the five Business Days prior to the anticipated Closing Date, as reasonably practicable, the Parent shall deliver to the Acquiror daily updates of the Investment Asset Transactions. The Parent shall provide to the Acquiror, on a periodic basis, the regular investment reports that are provided to the Chief Investment Officer of any of the Companies or any of the Transferred Subsidiaries.

(b) The Parent shall provide the Acquiror written notice of any Company’s or any Transferred Subsidiary’s intention to effect an Investment Asset Transaction the book value of which exceeds ¥3,010,000,000 per transaction or series of related transactions, excluding (i) transactions relating to Investment Assets belonging to one or more separate accounts of any Company or any Transferred Subsidiary or (ii) an Investment Asset Transaction in Japanese government bonds that does not exceed ¥5,000,000,000. The Parent shall, and shall cause the applicable Company or Transferred Subsidiary to, at least five Business Days prior to effecting such Investment Asset Transaction, (i) afford the Acquiror with a reasonable opportunity to review the principal terms and relevant financial data relating to such proposed transaction (or series of related Investment Asset Transactions) and (ii) consider in good faith the views and comments of the Acquiror in connection with the proposed transaction (or series of related transactions). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, including Section 5.01, but subject to the immediately following sentence, the Parent shall cause the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries not to purchase or otherwise acquire any of the Investment Assets listed on Section 5.16(b)(i) of the Seller Disclosure Letter or enter into any derivative transactions, swaps, caps, floors, options or other risk management arrangements with any of the counterparties listed on Section 5.16(b)(ii) of the Seller Disclosure Letter. For Investment Asset Transactions prohibited by the immediately preceding sentence, to the extent Parent or the applicable Company or Transferred Subsidiary provides written notice (by email with receipt confirmed) to the Representative of the Acquiror designated as an observer pursuant to Section 5.16(c), including the principal terms and relevant financial data relating to a proposed transaction (or series of related Investment Asset Transactions), Acquiror shall provide a written response within the time periods specified in Section 5.16(b)(ii) of the Seller Disclosure Letter following receipt of such written notice, either providing consent or withholding consent for such Investment Asset Transaction (or series of related Investment Asset Transactions), and failure by the Acquiror to respond in writing to such request within such applicable time period shall be deemed consent to the Investment Asset Transaction (or series of related Investment Asset Transactions) for purposes of the immediately preceding sentence.

(c) Prior to the Closing, the Acquiror shall have the right to designate a Representative as an observer. The observer shall have the right to (i) listen via telephone to, but not speak during, any substantive meetings of the investment committee of any of the Companies or any of the Transferred Subsidiaries or any other similar body responsible for the investment policies of any of the Companies or any of the Transferred Subsidiaries, (ii) have reasonable access, during normal business hours, to the chief investment officer (or other similar executive officer in charge of the investment activities of any of the Companies or any of the Transferred Subsidiaries) and to other employees of the Companies reporting to such chief investment or other similar officer, provided that any access to such employees shall be subject to the prior approval (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and supervision of such chief investment or other similar officer, (iii) listen via telephone to, but not speak during, any substantive meetings at which division heads discuss material decisions affecting the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries regarding Investment Assets with the president, chief executive officer, or other similar executive officer of any of the Companies or any of the Transferred Subsidiaries (other than meetings of the board of directors of the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries), and (iv) in addition to the reports provided under Section 5.16(a), receive reasonable access to lists of Investment Assets, Investment Asset Transactions, information concerning executed realized gains and losses and cash flows and other investment activity reports (including performance and risk analysis reports) generated by the Companies in the Ordinary Course of Business; provided that the applicable Company or Transferred Subsidiary may withhold any information and exclude such observer from any meeting or portion thereof if access to such information or attendance at such meeting could adversely affect the attorney-client privilege between any of the Companies or any of the Transferred Subsidiaries and its counsel, result in disclosure of Trade Secrets, or result in a violation of applicable Law. For the avoidance of doubt, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries shall have sole discretion with respect to all Investment Asset Transactions, subject to the limitations set forth on Section 5.16(b) of the Seller Disclosure Letter. For purposes of clarification and without prejudice to the Acquiror's rights under Section 5.16(b), the observer's rights under this Section 5.16(c) are limited to the right to listen, take notes and, except with respect to the observer's rights in clauses (i) and (iii) above, ask questions. Except as set forth in Section 5.16(b), the Acquiror's rights under this Section 5.16 shall not require the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries to wait for or to solicit any opinions of the observer or the Acquiror on any matter, action, non-action or decision whatsoever.

Section 5.17. Transitional Matters.

(a) The parties acknowledge and agree that between the date hereof and the Closing, the Parent shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, complete certain actions for the operational and physical separation of the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries from the Parent and its Affiliates (other than the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) set forth in Section 5.17(a) of the Seller Disclosure Letter. Any internal costs or expenses or third-party out-of-pocket costs or expenses incurred by the Parent or any of its Affiliates in connection with the separation actions contemplated in this Section 5.17(a) shall be borne by the Parent.

(b) Without limiting Section 5.02, promptly after the date of this Agreement, the Parent and the Acquiror shall, and shall cause their relevant Affiliates to, establish a team consisting of one senior manager from each of the Insurance Companies, the Parent and the Acquiror or one of the Acquiror's Affiliates (the "Transition Services Management Team"). The purpose of such Transition Services Management Team will be to coordinate transition activities (including the separation actions contemplated in Section 5.17(a) and the migration activities contemplated in Section 5.17(c)) between the date hereof and the Closing Date. The Parent and the Acquiror shall cause such Transition Services Management Team to be subject to confidentiality and other restrictions necessary or appropriate to ensure compliance with all applicable Laws.

(c) (i) Following the date hereof, in furtherance of the provisions of Section 5.02 and the transactions contemplated hereby, the Parent, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Acquiror, at the Acquiror's request and direction, in planning for the provision of Services and access to Facilities pursuant to the Transition Services Agreement and planning for the migration and integration of the Business (including the data, systems, operations and administration) and their personnel to and into the Acquiror, in accordance with mutually acceptable timetables, guidelines and procedures (which shall comply with applicable Law), with such cooperation to include appointing the Transition Services Management Team and each of the Parent, the Sellers and the service providers under the Transition Services Agreement (collectively), the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries (collectively) and the Acquiror: (A) establishing divestiture planning committees as mutually agreed; (B) setting regular meetings of the Transition Services Management Team and the divestiture planning committees; (C) making available appropriate knowledgeable business, operations, administration and technology personnel and any other personnel reasonably needed for the planning for the provision of Services and access to Facilities pursuant to the Transition Services Agreement and the planning for the migration and integration of the Business; (D) developing detailed project plans and budgets for the provision of Services and access to Facilities pursuant to the Transition Services Agreement and the migration and integration of the Business; and (E) dedicating commercially reasonable resources to accomplish the foregoing. With respect to the members of the Transition Services Management Team appointed by the Parent and the Insurance Companies, such members shall be Persons with sufficient knowledge and authority, inside and outside Japan, to ensure that the appropriate personnel from the Parent, the Sellers, the service providers under the Transition Services Agreement, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries, respectively, are assigned to the appropriate divestiture planning committees to be involved in the foregoing. All planning and cooperation contemplated by this Section 5.17(c) shall be conducted in compliance with applicable Law (including antitrust and competition Law) and with the intention to minimize disruption to the Business and the businesses of the Parent, the Sellers, the Acquiror and their respective Affiliates.

(ii) During the period commencing on the date hereof and extending until the Closing Date, the Parent shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, use commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Acquiror, at the Acquiror's request and direction, to (A) perform any migration services reasonably required in order to migrate such services or access to facilities as were provided by or on behalf of the Parent or any of its Affiliates to any of the Companies or any of the Transferred Subsidiaries prior to the Closing, but that are not contemplated to be so provided under the Transition Services Agreement from and after the Closing, and (B) perform any other migration services as are mutually agreed to by the Parent and the Acquiror. The applicable party shall provide, or cause to be provided, such migration services as if they were Migration Services pursuant to the Transition Services Agreement, as if such agreement were in effect as of the date hereof.

(iii) Each of the Parent and the Acquiror shall bear its own costs and expenses incurred in connection with the planning and cooperation contemplated by this Section 5.17(c), provided that the Acquiror shall reimburse the Parent for any reasonable, necessary and adequately documented third-party out-of-pocket expenses paid by the Parent or any of its affiliates to an unaffiliated Person in connection with the planning or cooperation contemplated by this Section 5.17(c) to the extent such expenses are incurred by the Parent or its Affiliates with the prior written approval of the Acquiror.

(iv) (A) Prior to the Closing, the Parent shall, reasonably and in good faith, propose to Acquiror an allocation of the existing Service Charges among the Service Names set forth under the "Information Technology Infrastructure" and "Information Service" Services provided by AIGKK, as set forth on Schedule 2.01 to the Transition Services Agreement (collectively, the "Sub-characterized Services"). Absent objection from Acquiror, each Sub-characterized Service shall be a separate Service under the Transition Services Agreement and Schedule 2.01 shall be amended accordingly. (B) If the Parent fails to submit such a proposal to the Acquiror prior to Closing, the Acquiror may, reasonably and in good faith, propose to the Parent an allocation of such Sub-characterized Service and the monthly services charges related thereto, for each Sub-characterized Service, and the Parent shall not unreasonably reject such proposal unless it is not reasonable in relation to the Fully Burdened Costs of the Provider of such Service (as those terms are defined in the Transition Services Agreement), provided that, in the case of any such rejection, the Parent and the Acquiror shall in good faith agree on a proposal that is reasonable in relation to such Fully Burdened Costs. In each case of a proposal presented pursuant to clauses (A) or (B), the Sub-characterized Service, and the allocated Service Charge associated therewith, shall be reasonable in relation to (i) the nature of such Sub-characterized Service and (ii) in the case of (A), the actual Fully Burdened Costs of each Provider associated with its provision and, in the case of (B), the definition of Fully Burdened Costs in the Transition Services Agreement. In no event shall a proposal presented pursuant to clauses (A) or (B) propose an aggregate amount of monthly service charges for the aggregate of the Sub-characterized Services more than, or less than, the amount of aggregate monthly Service Charges set forth in Schedule 2.01 to the Transition Services Agreement with respect to such Sub-characterized Services.

(d) During the period commencing on the date hereof and extending until the Closing Date, the Parent shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, use commercially reasonable efforts to cause all of the space identified in Section 5.17(d) of the Seller Disclosure Letter (the “Dedicated Space”) to be assigned to, or a new lease or sublease with respect to such Dedicated Space to be entered into with, one of the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries, subject to any applicable regulatory requirements and any consents that are necessary for purposes of such assignment. If, prior to the Closing, such Dedicated Space is assigned to one of the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries, or an Affiliate of the Acquiror, or if one of the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries or such Affiliate enters into a new lease or sublease in relation to such Dedicated Space, to the extent that the service charges under the Transition Services Agreement include any costs attributable to the lease or sublease of such Dedicated Space, such service charges shall be reduced accordingly.

(e) Prior to Closing, the Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause AIGFAJ, Edison, Edison Service and AIRCO to enter into an amendment to the agreement identified in Section 5.17(e)(i) of the Seller Disclosure Letter, which amendment shall be in substantially the form set forth in Section 5.17(e)(ii) of the Seller Disclosure Letter.

(f) During October 2010, the Parent and the Acquiror will cooperate in reconciling any potential discrepancies in Schedule 2.01 to the Transition Services Agreement, with respect to services provided by American International Group K.K. to each of Edison and Star, as such services relate to any assets and leases having an annual expenditure in excess of $5,000. If there are errors or omissions with regard to such assets or leases that, in the aggregate, exceed $50,000, the Parent and the Acquiror shall, in good faith, make appropriate corresponding changes to the Services Charges (as that term is used in the Transition Services Agreement) for such services.

(g) By no later than forty-five (45) days after the date hereof, the Acquiror shall notify the Parent whether it does not need any transition service for which the Initial Scheduled Term (as defined in the Transition Services Agreement) is three (3) months. If the Acquiror provides such notice, such service shall be deleted from Schedule 2.01 of the Transition Services Agreement and the Parent need not provide to the Acquiror Entities (as defined in the Transition Services Agreement) such service under the Transition Services Agreement.

Section 5.18. Notification of Certain Matters.

(a) Between the date hereof and the Closing Date, the Parent, on the one hand, and the Acquiror, on the other hand, shall promptly notify the other of: (i) the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event that is reasonably likely to result in the failure of any condition to the Closing or that indicates that any of the representations and warranties contained in the Transaction Agreements will not be, or are not, true and correct and (ii) the receipt of any material notice or other communication from any third Person alleging that the approval, consent, authorization, permission or act of, or the making by the Parent, the Acquiror or any of their respective Affiliates, as the case may be, of any notices to or declaration, filing or registration with, such third Person is or may be required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or that such transactions otherwise may violate the rights of or confer remedies upon such third Person; provided, however, that in each case, such disclosure shall not be deemed to cure any breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or agreement or any failure of a condition to the Closing, or to otherwise limit or affect in any way the remedies available hereunder to the party receiving such notice; and provided, further, that failure to deliver any notice pursuant to this Section 5.18(a) shall not result in a failure of any condition set forth in Article VIII or liability to any party hereto under ARTICLE X unless the underlying event or breach would independently result in the failure of such condition or such liability.

(b) Each of the Parent, on the one hand, and the Acquiror, on the other hand, shall promptly notify the other of any Action that shall be instituted or threatened against such party to restrain, prohibit or otherwise challenge the legality of any transaction contemplated by the Transaction Agreements. Each party hereto shall promptly notify the other of any Action that may be threatened, brought, asserted or commenced against the Parent, the Acquiror or any of their respective Affiliates, as the case may be, that would have been listed on Section 3.08 of the Seller Disclosure Letter or Section 4.04 of the Acquiror Disclosure Letter, as the case may be, if such Action had arisen prior to the date hereof; provided, however, that in each case, such disclosure shall not be deemed to cure any breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or agreement or to satisfy any condition or otherwise limit or affect the remedies available hereunder to the party receiving such notice; and provided, further, that failure to deliver any notice pursuant to this Section 5.18(b) shall not result in a failure of any condition set forth in Article VIII.

Section 5.19. Acquiror Financing Activities and Exchange Act Reporting. The Parent shall provide, and shall cause the Sellers, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries and its and their respective Representatives to provide, reasonable cooperation in connection with the arrangement of any financing the proceeds of which may be used to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreements or in connection with other financings (collectively, the "Financings") or in connection with satisfying any reporting obligation under the Exchange Act, in each case as may be reasonably requested by the Acquiror, including:

(a) providing to the Acquiror information (which the Acquiror may provide to its financing sources) regarding the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries and their respective industries reasonably requested by the Persons providing or arranging the Financings and identifying any portion of such information that constitutes material non-public information;

(b) assisting the Acquiror and its financing sources in the preparation of (i) one or more offering documents and/or confidential information memoranda for any Financing, including by (A) preparing and delivering to the Acquiror any audited or unaudited financial statements of the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries requested by the Acquiror, and (B) cooperating in the preparation of any pro forma financial statements, in each case of (A) and (B) to the extent the Acquiror reasonably determines that such financial statements are required by Regulation S-X (without regard to Rule 3-05(b)(4) thereof) and Regulation S-K under the Securities Act (treating each Financing as an offering registered under the Securities Act), and (ii) materials for rating agency presentations;

(c) assisting the Acquiror in the preparation of any audited or unaudited financial statements of the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries to the extent the Acquiror reasonably determines that such financial statements will be required in connection with its post-Closing reporting obligations under the Exchange Act;

(d) causing the appropriate members of management to participate, at the Acquiror's expense, in a reasonable number of meetings, presentations, road shows, due diligence sessions and sessions with rating agencies;

(e) providing and executing documents as may be reasonably requested by the Acquiror, including customary certificates (including solvency certificates), legal opinions, consents of accountants for use of their reports in any materials relating to any Financing and customary representations letters in connection with bank confidential information memoranda;

(f) using its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Independent Auditor to provide assistance to the Acquiror, at the Acquiror's expense, including providing consents to the Acquiror to use their audit reports relating to the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries and to provide any necessary "comfort letters";

The Parent will use commercially reasonable efforts to periodically update any financial statements, pro forma financial information, financial data, audit reports and other information required by Regulation S-X (without regard to Rule 3-05(b)(4) thereof) and Regulation S-K under the Securities Act (treating each Financing as an offering registered under the Securities Act) and the other accounting rules and regulations of the SEC provided in connection with the consummation of any Financing or in connection with any other financing obligation or reporting obligation under the Exchange Act. Subject to prior consultation with the Acquiror, any reasonable, and adequately documented, third party costs incurred by the Parent or its Affiliates in connection with the Parent's obligations under this Section 5.19 shall be reimbursed by the Acquiror as directed by the Parent.

Section 5.20. Release of Liens. Prior to the Closing, the Parent shall take all actions necessary or desirable to obtain and effect the full release and discharge, effective at or prior to the Closing, of (a) any and all Liens on the Shares, the Bridge Loan, the Capital Stock of any of the Transferred Subsidiaries and the assets and properties of any of the Companies or any of the Transferred Subsidiaries, other than any Permitted Liens that are not FRBNY Liens or Liens in favor of Permitted Parties and (b) any and all obligations of any Company or any Transferred Subsidiary, including guarantees or similar obligations, under (i) the Guarantee and Pledge Agreement, dated as of September 22, 2008 (as may be amended, modified or supplemented from time to time), between the Parent and the FRBNY, (ii) the Credit Agreement, dated as of September 22, 2008 (as may be amended, modified or supplemented from time to time), between the Parent and the FRBNY and (iii) Liens in favor of Permitted Parties.

Section 5.21. Troubled Asset Relief Program. The Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to release the Companies and the Target Subsidiaries from any obligations under any contracts with the U.S. Treasury, the FRBNY or the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Board arising from the affiliation of the Companies and the Target Subsidiaries with the Parent in the event that such companies have any obligations or remain subject to any limitations following the Closing.

ARTICLE VI

EMPLOYEE MATTERS

Section 6.01. Employee Matters.

(a) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Section 6.01, as of the Closing Date, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries shall terminate their participation in each Benefit Plan that is not a Company Benefit Plan, and in no event shall any Employee be entitled to accrue any benefits under such Benefit Plans with respect to services rendered or compensation paid on or after the Closing Date. The Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries shall retain all rights, liabilities and obligations under, and neither the Parent nor any of its Affiliates shall have any liability or obligation under, each Company Benefit Plan on and after the Closing Date.

(b) Prior to the Closing Date, the Parent and the Acquiror shall agree whether, and to what extent, (i) the employment of any employee of the Parent or any of its Affiliates whose duties relate primarily to the Business (other than an Employee who is on (A) long-term disability or other unpaid medical leave or (B) leave due to a workplace injury covered by a workers' compensation policy or program incurred more than six months prior to the Closing date; unless the failure to transfer any such employee violates applicable Law, as determined by the Parent in good faith and in consultation with the Acquiror) and who at such time is not already employed by a Company or Transferred Subsidiary shall be transferred to a Company or Transferred Subsidiary (each, a "Transferred Employee") with such transfer occurring on or prior to the Closing Date to the extent permitted by applicable Law, and (ii) the employment of each employee of a Company or Transferred Subsidiary whose duties do not relate primarily to the Business shall cease or otherwise be transferred to the Parent or an Affiliate other than the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries (each, a "Returned Employee"). The employees whom, as of the date hereof, the Parent and the Acquiror have agreed will be Transferred Employees or Returned Employees are so identified in Section 6.01(b) of the Seller Disclosure Letter, under the heading "Transferred Employees." The employees whom, as of the date hereof, the Parent and the Acquiror reasonably expect to be Returned Employees are so identified in Section 6.01(b) of the Seller Disclosure Letter under the heading "Returned Employees." The Parent and the Acquiror agree that the list of "Returned Employees" contained in Section 6.01(b) of the Seller Disclosure Letter shall be subject to update and amendment by the Parties during the period between the date hereof and the Closing Date; provided that such list shall be final and not subject to change as of the Closing Date. For a period of at least 12 months after the Closing Date, and subject to applicable Law, the Acquiror shall, and shall cause its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) to take all action necessary to provide that during each Employee's period of employment with the Acquiror or any of its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries), (i) such Employee shall receive base salary at a rate not less than such Employee's base salary in effect immediately prior to the Closing Date and (ii) such Employee shall be eligible for total incentive compensation opportunities that are no less favorable in the aggregate than the total incentive compensation opportunities provided to such Employee by the Parent and its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) immediately prior to the Closing Date. All other terms and conditions of employment and of employee benefits shall be determined in accordance with applicable Law. Notwithstanding the previous sentence, for a period of 12 months after the Closing Date, (i) all Employees (other than Transferred Employees) shall be provided with employee benefits that are substantially no less favorable in the aggregate than the employee benefits provided to such Employee by the Parent and its Affiliates immediately prior to the Closing Date and (ii) all Transferred Employees shall be provided with employee benefits that are substantially no less favorable in the aggregate than those generally made available to Acquiror's similarly situated employees in the jurisdiction. Nothing in this Section 6.01 shall limit in any way the right of the Acquiror or any of its Affiliates to terminate the employment of any Employee at any time, to change or modify the terms of any Benefit Plan at any time and in any manner, or to change or to change or modify the terms or conditions of employment of any Employee, subject in any such case to the express terms of any applicable Benefit Plan and applicable Law.

(c) For purposes of determining eligibility, benefit accrual and vesting (but not for purposes of benefit accruals under any defined benefit pension plan or benefit accruals that would result in duplication of benefits) under all benefit plans, programs and arrangements maintained by the Acquiror or its Affiliates (including, after the Closing, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries), the Acquiror shall, and shall cause its Affiliates (including, after the Closing, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) to, give each Employee, credit for such Employee's service with the Parent and its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) to the same extent recognized by the Parent and its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) under the Benefits Plans immediately prior to the Closing Date; notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 6.01(c) shall not apply to any equity based benefit plans, programs or arrangements.

(d) The Acquiror shall cause the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries to recognize and provide all accrued but unused vacation and sick pay of the Employees as of the Closing Date.

(e) From and after the Closing Date, the Acquiror shall assume any and all obligation for and shall pay, or cause the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries to assume any and all obligation for and pay, any retention bonuses, any cash incentive payments and any annual incentive bonuses, whether the obligation therefor arises before, after or as a result of the Closing, payable to any Employee pursuant to the terms of any Company Benefit Plans that are bonus plans or arrangements in effect immediately prior to the Closing Date and applicable to such Employees (in each case to the extent not paid by the Parent (or any of its Affiliates), the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries prior to the Closing). In furtherance of the foregoing, Acquiror shall pay, or shall cause the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries to pay, an aggregate amount in bonuses in respect of the foregoing plans and arrangements that is no less than the amount accrued therefor (as adjusted through the Closing Date). From and after the Closing Date, neither the Parent nor any of its Affiliates (other than the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries) shall retain any responsibility for such payment obligations, regardless of when such amounts were earned or accrued. For the avoidance of doubt, the liability for the ECAP Severance and Completion Plans of the Companies shall be accrued on the balance sheet included in the Final Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet of the Insurance Companies at Closing, and, the obligation of the Acquiror with respect thereto shall be limited to such accrued amount (including any liability arising from any amendments to the ECAP Severance and Completion Plans between the date hereof and Closing).

(f) With respect to the Employees, after the Closing Date, the Acquiror, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries shall have the liability and obligation for, in respect to any Company Benefit Plans, and neither the Parent nor any of its Affiliates shall have any liability or obligation for: (i) any short-term disability, sick pay or salary continuation benefits; or (ii) any medical, dental, life insurance, long-term disability or other welfare benefit claims. Any preexisting condition clause in any of the welfare plans (including medical, dental and disability coverage) included in the Acquiror's benefit programs shall be waived for the Employees. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 6.01\(f\), the Parent and its Affiliates (other than the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) shall retain all the liabilities and obligations referenced in this Section 6.01\(f\) to the extent arising prior to the Closing Date under Benefit Plans that are not Company Benefit Plans.

(g) The Acquiror, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries shall, and hereby do, assume all liability and obligation for, and neither the Parent nor any of its Affiliates shall retain any liability or obligation for, (i) severance pay and obligations payable to any former employee of any of the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries who, as of the Closing Date, is receiving or due to receive severance payments and benefits from the Parent or any of its Affiliates or the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries from and after the Closing Date and (ii) severance pay and obligations payable to any Employee who is terminated by the Acquiror, the Companies or any Transferred Subsidiary on or after the Closing Date. With respect to any Employee whose employment is terminated by the Acquiror or any of its Affiliates during the 6 month period immediately following the Closing Date, the Acquiror shall provide, or cause its Affiliates to provide, severance benefits to such Employee, which shall be determined and payable in accordance with the severance benefit plan or agreement maintained by the Parent, the Companies, the Transferred Subsidiaries or any of their Affiliates for the benefit of such Employee immediately prior to the Closing Date.

(h) The Parent and the Acquiror shall, or shall ensure that their Affiliates shall, comply with their respective consultation and other obligations arising out of any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement with respect to the Employees (including those individuals who will become Employees on or prior to the Closing Date) of any of the Companies, any of the Transferred Subsidiaries, or their respective union or elected representatives, or other employee representative body, as required by Law, collective bargaining agreements or any other applicable regulations and shall cooperate in connection therewith, with such cooperation to include, if applicable, obtaining from all Employees, directors, independent contractors, agents and brokers of the Companies and Transferred Subsidiaries express written consents to the cross border transfer of their personal data to the Acquiror following the signing of this Agreement. Each of the parties hereto will use good faith efforts to comply with their obligations under this Section 6.01(h) as promptly as reasonably practicable.

(i) The Parent or its Affiliates shall be responsible for providing workers' compensation or similar workers' protection benefits with respect to any Employee prior to the Closing Date. The Acquiror, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries shall be responsible for providing any workers' compensation or similar workers' protection benefits to any Employee on or after the Closing Date; provided, however, the Parent or its Affiliates (other than the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries) shall retain the obligation and liability for any workers' compensation or similar workers' protection claims of any Employee or former employee that arose, or relate to, an incident that occurred and with respect to which a claim was filed on or prior to the Closing Date (unless such obligations were accrued as liabilities of the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries prior to the Closing Date). Any workers' compensation insurance arrangements maintained by the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries shall inure to the benefit of the Acquiror. For purposes of this Section 6.01(i), a workers' compensation or similar workers' protection claim shall be deemed to have been incurred upon the injury or condition giving rise to the benefits thereunder.

(j) The provisions of this Section 6.01 are solely for the benefit of the parties hereto, and no current or former employee or any other individual associated therewith shall be regarded for any purpose as a third party beneficiary of the Agreement, whether in respect of continued employment or service, or resumed employment or service, compensation, benefits, incentives, or otherwise. Nothing herein, whether express or implied, shall be construed as a modification of or amendment to any Benefit Plan for any purpose.

(k) Notwithstanding anything in this ARTICLE VI, with respect to any expatriate Employee of the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries who is a citizen or resident alien of the United States principally employed or rendering substantial services in Japan (each, a "U.S. Expatriate Employee"), none of the rules regarding compensation programs or benefits set forth in Section 6.01(b) through Section 6.01(i) of this ARTICLE VI shall apply. Following the Closing Date, each U.S. Expatriate Employee shall be provided with compensation programs and employee benefits that are substantially similar in all respects (including with respect to terms and conditions of the applicable governing plans, programs and policies) to the compensation programs and employee benefits that are made available by the Acquiror to other similarly situated citizens or resident aliens of the United States principally employed by or rendering substantial services for the Acquiror in Japan. For a period of at least 12 months after the Closing Date, and subject to applicable Law, the Acquiror shall, and shall cause its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) to take all action necessary to provide that during each U.S. Expatriate Employee's period of employment with the Acquiror or any of its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries), (i) such U.S. Expatriate Employee shall receive base salary at a rate not less than such U.S. Expatriate Employee's base salary in effect immediately prior to the Closing Date and (ii) such U.S. Expatriate Employee shall be eligible for total incentive compensation opportunities that are no less favorable in the aggregate than the total incentive compensation opportunities provided to such U.S. Expatriate Employee by the Parent and its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) immediately prior to the Closing Date. All other terms and conditions of employment and of employee benefits shall be determined in accordance with applicable Law but otherwise in accordance with the principles of this Section 6.01(k). Notwithstanding the previous sentence, (i) for a period of 12 months after the Closing Date, each U.S. Expatriate Employee shall be provided with employee benefits that are substantially no less favorable in the aggregate than those generally made available to Acquiror's similarly situated employees in the jurisdiction and (ii) in the event that the employment of a U.S. Expatriate Employee is terminated by the Acquiror within 6 months after the Closing Date, such U.S. Expatriate Employee shall be provided with severance benefits that are substantially no less favorable in the aggregate than those severance benefits generally made available to Acquiror's similarly situated employees in the jurisdiction (after giving effect to such U.S. Expatriate Employee's years of service with the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries for purposes of severance benefit calculations); provided, however, that, if the U.S. Expatriate Employee is eligible for Star's Employee Continuity Assurance Plan and is terminated by the Acquiror within 12 months of the Closing Date, Acquiror (or, as applicable, the Companies or one of the Transferred Subsidiaries) shall provide such U.S. Expatriate Employee the severance benefits determined in accordance with the terms of the individual agreement entered into by such U.S. Expatriate Employee pursuant to such plan and none of Acquiror, the Companies nor the Transferred Subsidiaries shall have any other obligation to provide severance or other termination benefits to such U.S. Expatriate Employee.

In applying the provisions of this Article to any Employee, the Acquiror, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries shall not take into account any Compensation Restrictions, if so permitted under applicable Law.

ARTICLE VII TAX MATTERS

Section 7.01. Liability for Taxes.

(a) The Parent shall be liable for and pay, or shall cause the applicable Seller to pay, and shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Acquiror Indemnified Parties (as defined in Section 10.02(a)) from and against, all Taxes and Losses imposed on or incurred by any Acquiror Indemnified Party, or for which any Acquiror Indemnified Party may otherwise be liable, relating to (i) any Taxes imposed upon any Company or any Transferred Subsidiary with respect to any Pre-Closing Taxable Period and, with respect to any Straddle Period, the portion of such Straddle Period ending on and including the Closing Date, (ii) any Taxes imposed upon any Company or any Transferred Subsidiary or any Successor Entity with respect to any Post-Closing Taxable Period or, with respect to any Straddle Period, the portion of such Straddle Period ending after the Closing Date, that would not be payable by, or imposed upon, such Company or such Transferred Subsidiary or such Successor Entity if any amount of net operating losses or credits generated during the Parent or its Affiliates' period of ownership of the applicable Company or Transferred Subsidiary as of the Closing Date had not been decreased as a result of any Tax audits or proceedings by any Tax Authority, except to the extent any such decrease in net operating losses or credits (A) is expected to give rise to a Tax benefit to any Company or any Transferred Subsidiary or any Successor Entity in a Post-Closing Taxable Period or, with respect to any Straddle Period, the portion of such Straddle Period ending after the Closing Date, (B) is caused by an action taken by or transaction entered into by the Acquiror or its Affiliates other than those contemplated by the Transaction Agreements (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any reorganization or other transfer of the interests or assets of the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries by the Acquiror or any of its Affiliates following the Closing) or (C) is a result of the carryback of any item from a Post-Closing Taxable Period or with respect to the portion of any Straddle Period relating to after the Closing Date, (iii) any breach or inaccuracy in any representation contained in Section 3.20 or (iv) any breach or failure by the Parent to perform (or cause to be performed) any of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Article VII; provided, however, that the Parent shall not be liable for or pay, and shall not indemnify the Acquiror Indemnified Parties from and against (A) any Taxes shown as an accrued tax payable on the Final Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet, and (B) any Taxes imposed on any Company or Transferred Subsidiary, or for which any Company or Transferred Subsidiary may otherwise be liable, as a result of transactions occurring or deemed to occur on the Closing Date but after the Closing (other than those contemplated by the Transaction Agreements (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any reorganization or other transfer of the interests or assets of the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries by the Acquiror or any of its Affiliates following the Closing) or occurring in the Ordinary Course of Business) (Taxes described in clauses (A) and (B) above, hereinafter "Excluded Taxes").

(b) The Acquiror shall be liable for and pay, and shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Parent Indemnified Parties from and against, (i) all liabilities for Taxes imposed on any Company or Transferred Subsidiary, or for which any Company or Transferred Subsidiary may otherwise be liable, for any Post-Closing Taxable Periods and, with respect to any Straddle Period, the portion of such Straddle Period beginning after the Closing Date, (ii) Excluded Taxes and (iii) any breach or failure by the Acquiror to perform (or cause to be performed) any of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Article VII.

(c) For purposes of clauses (a) and (b) of this Section 7.01, whenever it is necessary to determine the liability for Taxes for a Straddle Period, the determination of the Taxes of any Company or Transferred Subsidiary for the portion of the Straddle Period ending on and including, and the portion of the Straddle Period beginning after, the Closing Date shall be determined by assuming that the Straddle Period consisted of two taxable years or periods, one which ended at the close of the Closing Date and the other which began at the beginning of the day following the Closing Date, and items of income, gain, deduction, loss or credit of such Company or Transferred Subsidiary for the Straddle Period shall be allocated between such two taxable years or periods on a "closing of the books basis" by assuming that the books of such Company or Transferred Subsidiary were closed at the close of the Closing Date, provided, however, that Taxes imposed on a periodic basis (e.g., property taxes), and exemptions, allowances or deductions that are calculated on an annual basis, such as the deduction for depreciation, shall be apportioned between such two taxable years or periods on a daily basis.

(d) (i) To the extent any indemnity pursuant to Section 7.01(a)(i), Section 7.01(a)(iii) or Section 7.01(a)(iv) is includible in income, the Parent shall increase such indemnity payment to the applicable Acquiror Indemnified Party to compensate for the Japanese

Tax detriment resulting from such inclusion (the aggregate of such indemnity payment and such increase, a “Tax Indemnity Payment”); provided, however, that Parent and Acquiror shall cooperate to direct payment to the Parent or a Seller on one hand, and the Acquiror or a Designated Acquiror on the other hand, as the case may be, if doing so would result in the Tax Indemnity Payment’s being treated as an adjustment to the Share Purchase Price.

(ii) To the extent the adjustment that gave rise to a Tax Indemnity Payment results in a Tax benefit for Japanese Tax purposes to any of the Companies, the Transferred Subsidiaries or any Successor Entity that is actually realized by any of them prior to the end of the close of the taxable year in which the fourth anniversary of such Tax Indemnity Payment occurs, the Acquiror or any Designated Acquiror shall remit to the Parent such Tax benefit (determined on a with and without basis) (a “Tax Benefit Payment”); provided that in no event shall the cumulative Tax benefit remitted by the Acquiror or any Designated Acquiror to the Parent exceed the amount of the applicable Tax Indemnity Payment. If any such Tax benefit is subsequently disallowed prior to the end of the close of the taxable year in which the fourth anniversary of such Tax Benefit Payment occurs, the Parent shall make an appropriate reconciliation payment to the Acquiror.

(iii) In the event there has been a Tax Indemnity Payment, the Acquiror shall provide on an annual basis a certification by a responsible tax officer of the Acquiror with the knowledge of the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries of the amount (if any) of any increase to a tax indemnity payment pursuant to Section 7.01(d)(i) and the amount (if any) of the Tax benefit to be remitted to Parent pursuant to Section 7.01(d)(ii).

Section 7.02. Tax Returns.

(a) The Parent shall timely file or cause to be timely filed when due (taking into account all extensions properly obtained) all Tax Returns that are required to be filed by or with respect to the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries for Pre-Closing Taxable Periods that are due on or before the Closing Date, and in each case the Parent shall remit or cause to be remitted any Taxes due in respect of such Tax Returns, and the Acquiror shall timely file or cause to be timely filed when due (taking into account all extensions properly obtained) all other Tax Returns that are required to be filed by or with respect to each Company and Transferred Subsidiary and the Acquiror shall remit or cause to be remitted any Taxes due in respect of such Tax Returns. With respect to Tax Returns to be filed or caused to be filed by the Parent or the Acquiror pursuant to the preceding sentence that relate to Pre-Closing Taxable Periods or Straddle Periods (x) to the extent permitted by Law, such Tax Returns shall be filed in a manner consistent with the last previous Tax Return relating to the same Taxes filed as of the date hereof, except to the extent failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to result, directly or indirectly, in a material cost to the other party and (y) such Tax Returns shall be submitted to the Parent or the Acquiror, as the case may be, not later than 30 days prior to the due date for filing such Tax Returns (or, if such due date is within 30 days following the Closing Date, as promptly as practicable following the Closing Date) for review and approval by the Parent or the Acquiror, as the case may be, which approval may not be unreasonably withheld. The Parent or the Acquiror, as the case may be, shall pay the other or cause to be paid to the other the Taxes for which the Parent or the Acquiror, respectively, is liable pursuant to Section 7.01 but which are payable with any Tax Return to be filed or caused to be filed by the Parent, on the one hand, and Acquiror, on the other hand, pursuant to this Section 7.02(a) upon the written request of the Party entitled to payment, setting forth in reasonable detail the computation of the amount owed by the Parent, on the one hand, and the Acquiror, on the other hand, as the case may be, but in no event earlier than 10 days prior to the due date for paying such Taxes.

(b) Except in accordance with Section 7.03, none of the Parent, the Acquiror or any Affiliate of either shall (or shall cause or permit any Company or Transferred Subsidiary to) amend, re-file or otherwise modify (or grant an extension of any statute of limitation with respect to) any Tax Return relating in whole or in part to any Company or Transferred Subsidiary with respect to any Pre-Closing Taxable Periods (or with respect to any Straddle Period) without the prior written consent of the Parent or the Acquiror, as the case may be, except to the extent such amendment, refiling, modification or grant is required by Law or would not reasonably be expected to result, directly or indirectly, in a material cost to the other party.

(c) In order to assist the Parent and its Affiliates in filing their Tax Returns, the Parent will deliver to the Acquiror a questionnaire in a form substantially similar to the form set forth on Section 7.02(c) of the Seller Disclosure Letter, and consistent with past practice, the Company and the Transferred Subsidiaries will use their reasonable efforts promptly to complete such questionnaire (which for the avoidance of doubt will not include any information relating to periods after the Closing Date or any information related to the Section 338 elections described in Section 7.06(b)).

(d) The Parent hereby agrees and covenants to furnish to the Acquiror, prior to Closing, complete and accurate copies of all Internal Revenue Service Forms 5471, 8621, 8865 and 8858 filed within the last three years in respect of the Companies, the Transferred Subsidiaries and any investments held by any of such entities, which Forms have not been otherwise previously furnished.

Section 7.03. Contest Provisions.

(a) After the Closing Date, the Acquiror (or a Designated Acquiror) and the Parent shall promptly notify the other in writing upon receipt by any Acquiror Indemnified Party or Parent Indemnified Party, as the case may be, of written notice of any pending or threatened tax audits, examinations or assessments (a "Tax Claim") which would reasonably be expected to affect the Tax liabilities for which the Parent or the Acquiror may be liable under Section 7.01; provided, that the failure by the Acquiror or the Parent, as the case may be, to notify the other of any Tax Claim shall not relieve the Parent or the Acquiror (or a Designated Acquiror), as the case may be, of its obligations under this Article VII in whole or in part except to the extent the Parent or the Acquiror, as the case may be, is materially prejudiced as a consequence of such failure.

(i) The Parent shall have the right to control the contest of any Tax Claim for which the Parent is solely liable under this Agreement; provided, that (A) the Acquiror shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate in (but not control) all proceedings related to such Tax Claim, (B) the Parent shall promptly furnish to the Acquiror copies of all relevant correspondence and documentation in connection with any such Tax Claim and shall provide the Acquiror with the opportunity to comment on all proposed correspondence and submissions to the relevant tax authority, which comments the Parent shall consider in good faith, (C) the Parent shall consult in good faith with the Acquiror regarding the conduct of the contest of any such Tax Claim and (D) the Parent shall use good faith reasonable efforts to take positions in any contest that are consistent with the positions taken in prior settlements with respect to substantially similar issues if the failure to take a consistent position would give rise to a material adverse effect to any of the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries. The Parent shall not, and shall not permit any relevant party to, enter into any settlement or otherwise compromise any such Tax Claim without the prior written consent of the Acquiror, provided, that if the Acquiror shall refuse to consent to any settlement or compromise that the relevant tax authorities and the Parent propose to accept (a “Proposed Settlement”) and such Proposed Settlement would not reasonably be expected to result in a material Tax cost to the Acquiror Indemnified Parties that is not indemnified by the Parent, then (X) the liability of the Parent with respect to the subject matter of the Proposed Settlement shall be limited to the amount that such liability would have been to the Parent were the Proposed Settlement accepted, and (Y) the Acquiror shall thereafter be entitled to assume control of the contest, settlement and compromise of such Tax Claim and shall bear its own costs and expenses in connection with such Tax Claim.

(ii) With respect to any Straddle Period, the Parent and the Acquiror shall jointly control the contest, settlement and compromise of any relevant Tax Claim and each party shall cooperate with the other party at its own expense and no settlement or compromise with respect thereto shall be entered into without the consent of the other party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(iii) Within 20 days of receiving notice from the Acquiror of a Tax Claim pursuant to Section 7.03(a), the Parent shall notify the Acquiror in writing of its intention to control the contest of any Tax Claim that is the subject of such notice and that the Parent is otherwise entitled to control (or jointly control) pursuant to Section 7.03(b)(i) or Section 7.03(b)(ii). If the Acquiror does not receive such notice from the Parent within such period, or if the Parent shall notify the Acquiror that it does not wish to control (or jointly control) the contest of such Tax Claim (or any other Tax Claim), the Acquiror thereupon shall be entitled to control the contest, settlement and compromise of such Tax Claim in its sole discretion; provided, however, that the failure of the Parent to provide notice shall not result in the Parent waiving any of its rights under this Agreement (including its right to control the contest of the Tax Claim) in whole or in part except to the extent the Acquiror is materially prejudiced as a consequence of such failure.

(iv) Except as otherwise expressly provided, nothing contained in this Section 7.03(b) shall be construed as limiting the Acquiror Indemnified Parties’ right to indemnification under Section 7.01, provided, that the Acquiror may elect (by written notice to the Parent) to forgo indemnification under Section 7.01 for a Tax Claim or portion thereof, in which case the Acquiror shall be entitled to control the contest, settlement and compromise of such Tax Claim or applicable portion thereof in its sole discretion and at its own expense.

(v) The foregoing provisions of this Section 7.03(b) shall apply to the Parent and its Affiliates, on the one hand, and to the Acquiror and its Affiliates, on the other hand, mutatis mutandis.

Section 7.04. Tax Refunds. The Parent shall be entitled to retain, or receive payment from the relevant Company or Transferred Subsidiary of, any refund or credit of Taxes of any such entity (net of any Tax cost arising out of such receipt) from the applicable taxing authorities that are described as being the responsibility of the Parent in Section 7.01(a), except to the extent such refunds relate to Excluded Taxes or result from the carryback of any item from a Post-Closing Taxable Period. Each Company and any Transferred Subsidiary shall be entitled to retain all other refunds or credits with respect to Taxes of such entities. The Person that is to enjoy the economic benefit of a refund or credit under this Section 7.04 shall bear the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in seeking such refund.

Section 7.05. Assistance and Cooperation. After the Closing Date, each of the Parent and the Acquiror shall (and cause their respective Affiliates to):

(a) assist the other party, as may reasonably be requested, in preparing any Tax Returns which such other party is responsible for preparing and filing in accordance with Section 7.02;

(b) cooperate in preparing for any audits of, or disputes with Tax Authorities regarding, any Tax Returns of any Company or Transferred Subsidiary;

(c) make available to the other and to any Tax Authority as reasonably requested all information, records, and documents relating to Taxes of each Company and Transferred Subsidiary;

(d) furnish the other with copies of all correspondence regarding a Tax Claim received from any Tax Authority in connection with any Tax audit or information request with respect to any taxable period;

(e) timely sign and deliver such certificates or forms as may be necessary or appropriate to establish an exemption from (or otherwise reduce), or file Tax Returns or other reports with respect to, Transfer Taxes described in Section 7.06(c); and

(f) timely provide to the other powers of attorney or similar authorizations necessary to carry out the purposes of this Article VII;

(g) assist the other, as may reasonably be requested, in connection with tax matters of the Parent or the Acquiror, as the case may be, or their Affiliates, in relation to the transactions contemplated hereby, including tax matters relating to U.S. federal income tax compliance (which shall, for the avoidance of doubt, include providing reasonable assistance to the Acquiror in connection with the Acquiror's filing of any applicable Internal Revenue Service forms); and

(h) otherwise cooperate with the other as may reasonably be requested with respect to legitimate matters related to Taxes.

If the Parent or the Acquiror makes a request to the other (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the request under Section 7.02(c)) that, in the reasonable judgment of the party receiving the request, requires the engagement of third party consultants to fulfill, the requesting party shall engage such consultants (provided they are reasonably acceptable to the other party) and shall be solely responsible for the remuneration of such consultants.

Section 7.06. Other Tax Matters.

(a) In the event of any inconsistency between this Article VII and Article X, this Article VII shall control with respect to any Tax matters. The obligations of the parties hereto set forth in this Article VII shall: (i) be unconditional and absolute, (ii) remain in full force and effect until 60 days following the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations (taking into account all extensions thereof) and (iii) not be subject to the limitations on indemnification set forth in Article X.

(b) The Acquiror shall have the right to make, or cause to be made, an election under Section 338(g) of the Code with respect to the sale or deemed sale of the stock of the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries (other than CLIS K.K.). Should the Acquiror make, or cause to be made, an election under Section 338(g) of the Code with respect to the sale or deemed sale of the stock of any of the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries, the Acquiror shall send a notice, or cause a notice to be sent, to the Parent or its Affiliates as required pursuant to applicable U.S. Treasury Regulations under Section 338 of the Code.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, all Japanese sales, transfer, securities transaction, documentary, stamp, duties, recording and similar Taxes and fees imposed in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (collectively, the "Transfer Taxes") shall be borne equally by the Parent and the Acquiror. The Parent and the Acquiror shall cooperate in accurately filing or causing to be filed all necessary Tax Returns and other documentation with respect to any Transfer Tax, and any reasonable expenses incurred in connection with such filings shall be borne equally by the Parent and the Acquiror.

(d) The Parent hereby agrees and covenants that any and all existing Tax Sharing Agreements binding on any Company or Transferred Subsidiary shall be terminated on or before the Closing Date such that no Company or Transferred Subsidiary shall have any obligation thereunder after the Closing.

(e) The parties agree for purposes of this Article VII, an item shall be considered "material" if the aggregate Tax liability associated with all items or matters addressed by the relevant provision is equal to or greater than $500,000.

ARTICLE VIII

CONDITIONS TO CLOSING AND RELATED MATTERS

Section 8.01. Conditions to Obligations of Each Party. The respective obligations of each party hereto to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the fulfillment or waiver, at or prior to the Closing, of each of the following conditions:

(a) No Governmental Order. Subject to Section 8.01(b), there shall be no Law or Governmental Order enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered that, in each case, enjoins or prohibits the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or makes illegal the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement unless such Law or Governmental Order is vacated, terminated or withdrawn.

(b) Approvals of Governmental Authorities. The Governmental Approvals listed on Section 8.01(b) of the Seller Disclosure Letter shall have been obtained (or any waiting period shall have been terminated or shall have expired) and shall be in full force and effect without the imposition of any Negative Conditions or Restrictions.

Section 8.02. Conditions to Obligations of the Parent. The obligations of the Parent to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the fulfillment or waiver in writing, at or prior to the Closing, of each of the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties; Covenants. (i) The representations and warranties of the Acquiror contained in this Agreement (other than Section 4.01) shall have been true and correct as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (other than the representations and warranties made as of another stated date, which representations and warranties shall have been true and correct as of such date) except where the failure to be so true and correct (without giving effect to any limitations as to materiality or "Acquiror Material Adverse Effect" set forth therein), individually or in the aggregate, has not had, or would not reasonably be expected to have, an Acquiror Material Adverse Effect; (ii) Section 4.01 shall have been true and correct as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (other than the representations and warranties made as of another stated date, which representations and warranties shall have been true and correct as of such date) in all respects; (iii) all of the obligations of the Acquiror to be performed or complied with on or prior to the Closing pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall have been duly and fully performed and complied with in all material respects; and (iv) the Parent shall have received a certificate dated the Closing Date of the Acquiror signed by a duly authorized executive officer of the Acquiror certifying that the conditions specified in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of this Section 8.02(a) have been waived or satisfied.

(b) Ancillary Agreements. The Acquiror shall have executed and delivered each of the Ancillary Agreements to which it is a party and shall have caused each applicable Affiliate of the Acquiror to execute and deliver each of the Ancillary Agreements to which such Affiliate of the Acquiror is a party.

Section 8.03. Conditions to Obligations of the Acquiror. The obligations of the Acquiror to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the fulfillment or waiver in writing, at or prior to the Closing, of each of the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties; Covenants. (i) The representations and warranties of the Parent contained in this Agreement (other than Section 3.01, Section 3.02, Section 3.03(a) and (b), and Section 3.04) (in each case, only to the extent applicable to the Parent, the Sellers and the Companies) shall have been true and correct as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (other than the representations and warranties made as of another stated date, which representations and warranties shall have been true and correct as of such date) except where the failure to be so true and correct (without giving effect to any limitations as to materiality or “Material Adverse Effect” set forth therein), individually or in the aggregate, has not had, or would not reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect; (ii) Section 3.01, Section 3.02, Section 3.03(a) and (b), and Section 3.04 (in each case, only to the extent applicable to the Parent, the Sellers and the Companies) shall have been true and correct as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (other than the representations and warranties made as of another stated date, which representations and warranties shall have been true and correct as of such date) in all respects; (iii) all of the obligations of the Parent or any of its Affiliates to be performed or complied with on or prior to the Closing pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall have been duly and fully performed and complied with in all material respects; and (iv) the Acquiror shall have received a certificate dated the Closing Date of the Parent signed by a duly authorized officer or representative of the Parent certifying that the conditions specified in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of this Section 8.03(a) have been waived or satisfied; provided, that in the event that all of the other conditions to Closing have been satisfied but the Parent requires additional time to prepare and deliver any financial statements requested by the Acquiror to be delivered by the Parent to the Acquiror pursuant to Section 5.19(b) only, the references to “Closing Date” in clause (i) of this Section 8.03(a) shall be deemed to refer, for purposes of all of the representations and warranties of the Parent contained in this Agreement other than Section 3.01, Section 3.02, Section 3.03(a) and (b), and Section 3.04, to the date prior to the Closing Date on which the last of such conditions shall have been satisfied (the “Representation and Warranty Date Limitation”).

(b) Ancillary Agreements. The Parent shall have executed and delivered each of the Ancillary Agreements to which it is a party and shall have caused each applicable Affiliate of the Parent to execute and deliver each of the Ancillary Agreements to which such Affiliate is a party.

(c) No Material Adverse Effect. Since the date hereof, there shall have been no Material Adverse Effect.

ARTICLE IX

TERMINATION AND WAIVER

Section 9.01. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated prior to the Closing:

(a) by the mutual written consent of the Parent and the Acquiror;

(b) by either the Parent or the Acquiror if the Closing has not occurred on or before April 1, 2011; provided, however, that if the sole reason that the Closing has not occurred is either (i) that one or more of the approvals required pursuant to Section 8.01(b) have not been obtained on or prior to such date or (ii) that the Parent requires additional time to prepare and deliver any financial statements requested by the Acquiror to be delivered by the Parent to the Acquiror pursuant to Section 5.19(b), such date may be extended by either party to a date not beyond October 1, 2011; and provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 9.01(b) shall not be available to any party hereto whose failure to take any action required to fulfill any of such party's obligations under this Agreement or other breach of any provision of this Agreement has caused or resulted in the failure of the Closing to occur prior to such date;

(c) by either the Parent or the Acquiror in the event of the issuance of a final, non-appealable Governmental Order restraining or prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreements;

(d) by the Acquiror (but only so long as the Acquiror is not in material breach of its obligations under this Agreement) if there has been a material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement of the Parent such that one or more of the conditions to Closing set forth in Sections 8.01 and 8.03 are not capable of being fulfilled as of April 1, 2011 (subject to extension pursuant to the first proviso in Section 9.01(b)); or

(e) by the Parent (but only so long as the Parent is not in material breach of its obligations under this Agreement) if there has been a material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement of the Acquiror such that one or more of the conditions to Closing set forth in Sections 8.01 and 8.02 are not capable of being fulfilled as of April 1, 2011 (subject to extension pursuant to the first proviso in Section 9.01(b)).

Section 9.02. Notice of Termination. Any party hereto desiring to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.01 shall give written notice of such termination to the other party or parties, as the case may be, to this Agreement.

Section 9.03. Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 9.01, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and there shall be no liability on the part of any party to this Agreement (or any of its Affiliates or Representatives), except that Section 5.04(a), this Article IX, and Article XI shall survive any such termination; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 9.03 shall relieve any party from liability for an intentional breach of this Agreement. If this Agreement is terminated after April 1, 2011 pursuant to Section 9.01(b), Section 9.01(c) or Section 9.01(e) as a result of a failure by the Acquiror to obtain any approval from the FSA necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, the Acquiror shall be obligated to pay to the Parent in cash interest on the Purchase Price, at a rate of 5% per annum, for the period commencing on April 1, 2011 and ending on the date the Parent terminates this agreement pursuant to Section 9.01(b), Section 9.01(c) or Section 9.01(e). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 9.03, neither the Acquiror nor any Designated Acquiror shall be required to pay such Purchase Price Interest Amount if the failure of the Parent or the Sellers to fulfill any obligations under this Agreement was the sole and direct cause of, or solely and directly resulted in, the failure of Closing to occur prior to April 1, 2011, provided, further that in the event the Acquiror has incurred the obligation to pay the Purchase Price Interest Amount, the Acquiror shall not be obligated to pay any interest for any period during which the failure of the Parent or the Sellers to fulfill any such obligation was the sole and direct cause of, or solely and directly resulted in, the failure of the Closing to occur.

ARTICLE X INDEMNIFICATION

Section 10.01. Survival.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in ARTICLE VII, the representations and warranties of the parties hereto contained in or made pursuant to this Agreement or any certificate contemplated to be delivered pursuant hereto shall survive in full force and effect until the date that is 21 months after the Closing Date, at which time they shall terminate (and no claims shall be made for indemnification under Section 10.02 or Section 10.03 thereafter), except: (i) the Parent Fundamental Representations and the Acquiror Fundamental Representations shall survive the Closing indefinitely; (ii) the representations and warranties in Section 3.20 shall survive as provided in Article VII; and (iii) the covenants and agreements of the parties hereto contained in or made pursuant to this Agreement or any certificate contemplated to be delivered pursuant hereto shall survive the Closing indefinitely.

(b) Neither the applicable survival period nor the right to indemnification or other remedy based upon the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of the parties in this Agreement will be affected by any investigation conducted, or any knowledge acquired (or capable of being acquired) at any time, whether before or after the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the Closing Date, with respect to the accuracy or inaccuracy of or compliance with any such representation, warranty, covenant or agreement. The waiver of any condition based on the accuracy of any representation or warranty, or on the performance of or compliance with any covenant or agreement, will not affect the right to indemnification or other remedy based on such representations, warranties, covenants or agreements.

Section 10.02. Indemnification by the Parent.

(a) From and after the Closing and subject to this ARTICLE X, the Parent shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Acquiror, its Affiliates (including the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries) and its and their respective Representatives (collectively, the “Acquiror Indemnified Parties”) from and against, and reimburse any Acquiror Indemnified Party for, all Losses that such Acquiror Indemnified Party may at any time suffer or incur as a result of, arising out of, relating to or in connection with:

(i) any inaccuracy or breach of any representation or warranty made by the Parent in this Agreement or the certificates required to be delivered pursuant to Section 8.03(a) (other than any representation or warranty made in Section 3.20 which, for the avoidance of doubt shall be governed by ARTICLE VII) after giving effect, if applicable, to the Representation and Warranty Date Limitation;

(ii) any breach or failure by the Parent or any of its Affiliates to perform any of their respective covenants, obligations or agreements contained in this Agreement;

(iii) costs or expenses (including any termination fees, “kill fees” or other penalties) incurred by any of the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries in connection with the matter described in Section 10.02(a)(iii) of the Seller Disclosure Letter, but only up to an amount equal to 50% of such costs and expenses; and

(iv) the matters identified in Section 10.02(a)(iv) of the Seller Disclosure Letter.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Parent shall not be required to indemnify, defend or hold harmless any Acquiror Indemnified Party against, or reimburse any Acquiror Indemnified Party for, any Losses pursuant to Section 10.02(a)(i) (other than Losses arising out of the inaccuracy or breach of any Parent Fundamental Representations and the representations and warranties in Section 3.20) (such Losses pursuant to Section 10.02(a)(i), other than Losses arising out of the inaccuracy or breach of any Parent Fundamental Representations and the representations and warranties in Section 3.20, being referred to as the “Capped Losses”): (i) with respect to any claim (or series of related claims arising from substantially the same underlying facts, events or circumstances) unless such claim (or series of related claims arising from substantially the same underlying facts, events or circumstances) involves Losses in excess of ¥5,000,000 (nor shall any such claim or series of related claims that do not meet the ¥5,000,000 threshold be applied to or considered for purposes of calculating the aggregate amount of the Acquiror Indemnified Parties’ Losses for which the Parent has responsibility under clause (ii) of this Section 10.02(b) below); and (ii) until the aggregate amount of the Capped Losses for which the Acquiror Indemnified Parties are entitled to indemnification exceeds ¥4,100,000,000, after which the Parent shall be obligated to indemnify and reimburse the Acquiror Indemnified Parties for the aggregate amount of all Capped Losses for which the Acquiror Indemnified Parties are entitled to indemnification under Section 10.02(a)(i) that are in excess of ¥4,100,000,000; but only if such Losses arise with respect to any claim (or series of related claims arising from substantially the same underlying facts, events or circumstances) that involves Losses in excess of ¥5,000,000. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in no event shall the Parent be required to indemnify, defend or hold harmless any Acquiror Indemnified Party against, or reimburse any Acquiror Indemnified Party for, with respect to Capped Losses, any amount in excess of ¥102,000,000,000; provided, that for purposes of determining whether the amount of Losses has exceeded ¥102,000,000,000, such Losses shall be diminished by any reduction in indemnification occurring by reason of clauses (i) or (ii) of Section 10.07.

Section 10.03. Indemnification by the Acquiror.

(a) From and after the Closing and subject to this ARTICLE X, the Acquiror shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Parent, its Affiliates and its and their respective Representatives (collectively, the “Parent Indemnified Parties”) from and against, and reimburse any Parent Indemnified Party for, all Losses that such Parent Indemnified Party may at any time suffer or incur, as a result of, arising out of, relating to or in connection with:

(i) any inaccuracy or breach of any representation or warranty made by the Acquiror in this Agreement or the certificate required to be delivered pursuant to Section 8.02(a); and

(ii) any breach or failure by the Acquiror or any of its Affiliates to perform any of its covenants, obligations or agreements contained in this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Acquiror shall not be required to indemnify, defend or hold harmless any Parent Indemnified Party against, or reimburse any Parent Indemnified Party for, any Losses pursuant to Section 10.03(a)(i) (other than Losses arising out of the inaccuracy or breach of any Acquiror Fundamental Representations) (such Losses pursuant to Section 10.03(a)(i), other than Losses arising out of the inaccuracy or breach of any Acquiror Fundamental Representations, being referred to as the “Section 10.03(a)(i) Losses”): (i) with respect to any claim (or series of related claims arising from substantially the same underlying facts, events or circumstances) unless such claim (or series of related claims arising from substantially the same underlying facts, events or circumstances) involves Losses in excess of ¥5,000,000 (nor shall any such claim or series of related claims that do not meet the ¥5,000,000 threshold be applied to or considered for purposes of calculating the aggregate amount of the Parent Indemnified Parties’ Losses for which the Acquiror has responsibility under clause (ii) of this Section 10.03(b) below); (ii) until the aggregate amount of the Section 10.03(a)(i) Losses for which the Parent Indemnified Parties are entitled to indemnification exceeds ¥4,100,000,000, after which the Acquiror shall be obligated to indemnify and reimburse the Parent Indemnified Parties for the aggregate of all Section 10.03(a)(i) Losses for which the Parent Indemnified Parties are entitled to indemnification under Section 10.03(a)(i) that are in excess of ¥4,100,000,000, but only if such Losses arise with respect to any claim (or series of related claims arising from substantially the same underlying facts, events or circumstances) that involves Losses in excess of ¥5,000,000; and (iii) any amount in excess of ¥102,000,000,000; provided, that for purposes of determining whether the amount of Losses has exceeded ¥102,000,000,000, such Losses shall be diminished by any reduction in indemnification occurring by reason of clauses (i) or (ii) of Section 10.07.

Section 10.04. Notification of Claims.

(a) A Person that may be entitled to be indemnified under this ARTICLE X (the “Indemnified Party”) shall promptly notify the party or parties liable for such indemnification (the “Indemnifying Party”) in writing of any claim in respect of which indemnity may be sought under this ARTICLE X, including any pending or threatened claim or demand by a third party that the Indemnified Party has determined has given or could reasonably give rise to a right of indemnification under this ARTICLE X (including a pending or threatened claim or demand asserted by a third party against the Indemnified Party whether by litigation, arbitration or otherwise) (each, a “Third Party Claim”), describing in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances with respect to the subject matter of such claim or demand; provided, however, that the failure to provide such notice shall not release the Indemnifying Party from any of its obligations under this ARTICLE X except to the extent that such failure materially prejudices the defense of such claim by the Indemnifying Party. Any indemnifiable claim that is not a Third Party Claim shall be asserted by written notice to the Indemnifying Party. The parties agree that (i) in this ARTICLE X they intend to shorten (in the case of the limited survival periods specified in Section 10.01) and lengthen (in the case of the indefinite survival periods specified in Section 10.01) (as the case may be) the applicable statute of limitations period with respect to certain claims; (ii) notices for claims in respect of a breach of a representation or warranty must be delivered prior to the expiration of any applicable survival period specified in Section 10.01 for such representation or warranty; and (iii) any claims for indemnification under this ARTICLE X for which notice is not timely delivered in accordance with this Section 10.04(a) shall be expressly barred and are hereby waived; provided, further, that if, prior to such applicable date, a party hereto shall have notified the other party hereto in accordance with the requirements of this Section 10.04(a) of a claim for indemnification under this ARTICLE X (whether or not formal legal action shall have been commenced based upon such claim), such claim shall continue to be subject to indemnification in accordance with this ARTICLE X notwithstanding the passing of such applicable date until such time as such claim is fully and finally resolved.

(b) Upon receipt of a notice of a claim for indemnity from an Indemnified Party pursuant to Section 10.04(a) in respect of a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party may, by notice to the Indemnified Party delivered within 20 Business Days after the receipt of notice of such Third Party Claim, elect to compromise, settle, defend or appeal such Third Party Claim with its own counsel, contractors and consultants (who shall be reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party) and at its own expense, and the Indemnified Party shall, and the Parent, on the one hand, or the Acquiror, on the other hand (as the case may be), shall cause each of their respective Affiliates and Representatives to, cooperate fully with the Indemnifying Party in the compromise, settlement or appeal of, or defense against, such Third Party Claim; provided that if the Indemnifying Party assumes the compromise, defense, appeal or settlement of such Third Party Claim, (i) the Indemnifying Party shall promptly reimburse the Indemnified Party for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Indemnified Party (such as reasonable travel costs, but not internal time charges) in providing its cooperation, (ii) the Indemnified Party shall be entitled to employ one counsel to represent itself if an actual conflict of interest exists in the reasonable opinion of counsel to the Indemnified Party between the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party in respect of such Third Party Claim, and in that event the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel shall promptly be paid by the Indemnifying Party (it being understood that all Indemnified Parties may employ not more than one counsel to represent them at the expense of the Indemnifying Party) and (iii) with respect to any Third Party Claim that is asserted, initiated or brought by a Governmental Authority or involves or alleges any violations of Laws, the Indemnifying Party shall not agree to participate in any meeting with any Governmental Authority relating to any such Third Party Claim unless it consults with the Indemnified Party in advance and, to the extent permitted by such Governmental Authority or otherwise practicable, gives the Indemnified Party the opportunity to attend and participate at such meeting. The Indemnified Party may take any actions reasonably necessary to defend such Third Party Claim prior to the time that it receives a notice from the Indemnifying Party as contemplated by the immediately preceding sentence. In the event that the Indemnifying Party fails to assume the compromise, settlement or appeal of, or defense against, such Third Party Claim within 20 Business Days after receipt of notice thereof from the Indemnified Party, such Indemnified Party shall have the right to undertake the compromise, settlement or appeal of, or defense against such Third Party Claim on behalf of and for the account and risk of the Indemnifying Party; provided, however, that the Indemnified Party shall keep the Indemnifying Party reasonably apprised of any significant developments relating to such Third Party Claim and the compromise, settlement, appeal or defense thereof. If the Indemnifying Party elects to assume the compromise, settlement or appeal of, or defense against a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall not, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party (which shall not be unreasonably withheld), consent to a settlement, compromise or discharge of, or the entry of any judgment arising from, any Third Party Claim, unless such settlement, compromise, or discharge or entry or any judgment does not involve any finding or admission of any violation of Law or admission of any wrongdoing or liability by the Indemnified Party and such settlement, compromise, discharge or judgment involves only the payment of money damages, and the Indemnifying Party shall (i) pay or cause to be paid all amounts arising out of such settlement, compromise, discharge or judgment concurrently with the effectiveness of such settlement, compromise, discharge or judgment (unless otherwise provided therein) and (ii) obtain, as a condition of any settlement, compromise, discharge, entry of judgment (if applicable), or other resolution, a complete and unconditional general release of each Indemnified Party from any and all liabilities in respect of such Third Party Claim. The Indemnified Party shall not settle, compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect to any claim or demand for which it is seeking indemnification from the Indemnifying Party, or admit to any liability with respect to such claim or demand without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld).

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this ARTICLE X (including Section 10.02 and Section 10.03), no Indemnifying Party shall have any liability under this ARTICLE X for any Losses arising out of or in connection with any Third Party Claim that is settled or compromised by an Indemnified Party without the consent of such Indemnifying Party, except as permitted under Section 10.04(b) in cases where the Indemnifying Party has failed to assume the compromise, settlement, defense or appeal of a Third Party Claim.

(d) In the event any Indemnifying Party receives a notice of a claim for indemnity from an Indemnified Party pursuant to Section 10.04(a) that does not involve a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall notify the Indemnified Party within 20 Business Days following its receipt of such notice whether the Indemnifying Party disputes its liability to the Indemnified Party under this ARTICLE X. The Indemnified Party shall reasonably cooperate with and assist the Indemnifying Party in determining the validity of any such claim for indemnity by the Indemnified Party.

Section 10.05. Payment. In the event a claim or any Action for indemnification under this ARTICLE X has been finally determined, the amount of such final determination shall be paid (i) if the Indemnified Party is an Acquiror Indemnified Party, by the Parent to the Indemnified Party, and (ii) if the Indemnified Party is a Parent Indemnified Party, by the Acquiror to the Indemnified Party, in each case on demand in immediately available funds; provided, however, that Parent and Acquiror shall cooperate to direct payment to the Parent or the Sellers on one hand, and the Acquiror or any Designated Acquiror on the other hand, as the case may be, if doing so would result in the indemnification payment made under this Agreement to be treated as an adjustment to the Share Purchase Price. A claim or an Action, and the liability for and amount of damages therefor, shall be deemed to be “finally determined” for purposes of this ARTICLE X when the Parties to this Agreement have so determined by mutual agreement or, if disputed, when a final non-appealable Governmental Order has been issued or entered into with respect to such claim or Action.

Section 10.06. Exclusive Remedies. Each party acknowledges and agrees that, following the Closing, except in cases of fraud and except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the indemnification provisions of this ARTICLE X and, with respect to taxes, Article VII, shall be the sole and exclusive monetary remedies (including equitable remedies that involve monetary payment, such as restitution or disgorgement, other than specific performance to enforce any payment or performance due hereunder) of the parties in connection with any breach of a representation and warranty, or non-performance, partial or total, of any covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall any claims based upon fraud be subject to the limitations on indemnification set forth in this ARTICLE X.

Section 10.07. Additional Indemnification Provisions.

(a) The Parent and the Acquiror agree, for themselves and on behalf of their respective Affiliates and Representatives, that with respect to each indemnification obligation set forth in ARTICLE X of this Agreement or any other certificate executed or delivered in connection with the Closing: (i) Deductible Losses shall be calculated on an After-Tax Basis; (ii) all Losses shall be net of any Eligible Insurance Proceeds; (iii) in no event shall the Parent have any liability or obligation to any Acquiror Indemnified Party pursuant to this ARTICLE X with respect to the inaccuracy or breach of a representation or warranty made by the Parent pursuant to this Agreement to the extent that Losses resulting from or in connection with such inaccuracy or breach have been recovered by the Acquiror in connection with the calculation of the Final Actual Closing Solvency Capital; (iv) the Indemnifying Party shall be liable to the Indemnified Party for any Losses to the extent incurred in connection with the Indemnified Party’s successful assertion, enforcement, dispute or resolution of its indemnification or other rights under this Agreement or the collection of any amounts payable to a Party under this Agreement; (v) solely with respect to claims that are not Third Party Claims, the Indemnified Party shall be liable to the Indemnifying Party for any Losses to the extent incurred in connection with the Indemnifying Party’s successful defense of any claim by the Indemnified Party for indemnification or other rights under this Agreement; (vi) in no event shall the Parent have any liability or obligation to any Acquiror Indemnified Party to the extent that any Loss, or any portion thereof, for which indemnification is sought hereunder is specifically reflected or reserved for in the Final Actual Closing Solvency Capital Worksheet and taken into account in the calculation of the Final Actual Closing Solvency Capital; and (vii) notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, for purposes of ARTICLE VII and this ARTICLE X, (A) a breach of a representation or warranty shall be deemed to exist either if such representation or warranty is actually inaccurate or breached or would have been inaccurate or breached if such representation or warranty had not contained any qualification as to materiality, or Acquiror Material Adverse Effect or Material Adverse Effect (which, in each case, instead will be read as any adverse effect or change) or similar language, and (B) the amount of Losses in respect of any breach of a representation or warranty, including any deemed breach resulting from the application of clause (A), shall be determined without regard to any limitation or qualification as to materiality, or Acquiror Material Adverse Effect or Material Adverse Effect (which, in each case, instead will be read as any adverse effect or change) or similar language set forth in such representation or warranty.

(b) Any amount payable by an Indemnifying Party pursuant to this ARTICLE X shall be paid promptly and without reduction, and payment shall not be delayed pending any determination of Eligible Insurance Proceeds. In any case where an Indemnified Party recovers from a third Person any Eligible Insurance Proceeds or any other amount in respect of any Loss for which an Indemnifying Party has actually reimbursed it pursuant to this ARTICLE X, such Indemnified Party shall promptly pay over to the Indemnifying Party the amount of such Eligible Insurance Proceeds, but not in excess of the amount actually reimbursed by the Indemnifying Party to or on behalf of the Indemnified Party in respect of such claim.

(c) To the extent permitted by applicable Law, the parties hereto shall treat any indemnification payment made under this Agreement as an adjustment to the Share Purchase Price.

(d) If any portion of Losses to be reimbursed by the Indemnifying Party may be covered, in whole or in part, by third party insurance coverage, the Indemnified Party shall promptly give notice thereof to the Indemnifying Party (a "Notice of Insurance"). If the Indemnifying Party so requests within 180 days after receipt of a Notice of Insurance, the Indemnified Party shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to seek to collect insurance proceeds under such third party insurance coverage; provided, however, that the Indemnified Party has no obligation to commence, or threaten or otherwise seek to commence, any Action against any Person, including any Governmental Authority, to collect insurance proceeds under such third party insurance coverage.

Section 10.08. Mitigation. Except as otherwise specified herein, each of the parties hereto agrees to take commercially reasonable steps to mitigate their respective Losses upon and after becoming aware of any event or condition which would reasonably be expected to give rise to any Losses that are indemnifiable hereunder.

Section 11.03. Public Announcements. No party to this Agreement or any Affiliate or Representative of such party shall issue or cause the publication of any press release or public announcement or otherwise communicate with any news media in respect of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), except as may be required by Law or applicable securities exchange rules, in which case to the extent practicable, the party required to publish such press release or public announcement shall allow the other party a reasonable opportunity to comment on such press release or public announcement in advance of such publication. Prior to the Closing, neither of the parties to this Agreement, nor any of their respective Affiliates or Representatives, shall make any disclosure concerning plans or intentions relating to the customers, agents or employees of, or other Persons with significant business relationships with, the Companies or the Transferred Subsidiaries (including any of agents or Brokers) without first obtaining the prior written approval of the other party, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

Section 11.04. Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced under any Law or as a matter of public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties to this Agreement shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

Section 11.05. Entire Agreement. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Transaction Agreements, the Transaction Agreements constitute the entire agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of the Transaction Agreements and supersede all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, other than the Confidentiality Agreement to the extent not in conflict with this Agreement, between or on behalf of the Parent and/or its Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Acquiror and/or its Affiliates, on the other hand, with respect to the subject matter of the Transaction Agreements.

Section 11.06. Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assigned, in whole or in part, by operation of Law or otherwise without the prior written consent of the parties hereto. Any attempted assignment in violation of this Section 11.06 shall be void. This Agreement shall be binding upon, shall inure to the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by the parties hereto and their successors and permitted assigns. Notwithstanding the foregoing, without the consent of the Parent, the Acquiror may transfer or assign (including by way of a pledge), in whole or in part, to one or more of its Affiliates, any or all of its rights hereunder (including its rights to seek indemnification hereunder); provided that no such transfer or assignment will relieve the Acquiror of its obligations hereunder and such transfer shall cease to be effective if such transferee ceases to be an Affiliate of the Acquiror. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, without the consent of the Acquiror, the Parent may assign the right to receive the Purchase Price and other payments to be made to Parent pursuant to the terms of this Agreement (when and if such payments are made) to any of the Permitted Parties; provided that no such assignment will relieve the Parent of its obligations hereunder and that no such assignee shall be deemed to be a third-party beneficiary under this Agreement or have any legal or equitable rights to enforce any provision of this Agreement and such assignee's rights shall be limited to the right to receive the Purchase Price and other payments to be made to Parent pursuant to the terms of this Agreement (when and if such payments are made). For the avoidance of doubt, the payment of the Purchase Price to such assignee shall constitute full satisfaction of the Acquiror's obligations hereunder to pay the Purchase Price to the Parent and the Sellers as contemplated in ARTICLE II.

Section 11.07. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Except as provided in Section 5.10 with respect to directors, statutory auditors and officers of the Companies and Transferred Subsidiaries, in Section 5.11 with respect to Company Releasees and Parent Releasees, in Section 7.01 with respect to Acquiror Indemnified Parties, and in Article X with respect to Parent Indemnified Parties and Acquiror Indemnified Parties, this Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties to this Agreement and their permitted successors and assigns and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person (including any policyholder of any Company or Insurance Company except as explicitly provided in a Hold Harmless Agreement) any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement. The Sellers shall be express third-party beneficiaries under this Agreement and, as such, this Agreement may be enforced by each of the Sellers as if it were a party hereto.

Section 11.08. Amendment; Waiver. No provision of this Agreement or any other Transaction Agreement may be amended, supplemented or modified except by a written instrument signed by all the parties to such agreement. No provision of this Agreement or any other Transaction Agreement may be waived except by a written instrument signed by the party to such agreement against whom the waiver is to be effective. No failure or delay by any party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. The rights and remedies herein provided shall be cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by Law.

Section 11.09. Disclosure Schedules. Matters reflected in any Section of this Agreement, including any section or subsection of the Seller Disclosure Letter or the Acquiror Disclosure Letter, are not necessarily limited to matters required by this Agreement to be so reflected. Such additional matters are set forth for informational purposes and do not necessarily include other matters of a similar nature. No reference to or disclosure of any item or other matter in any Section or Schedule of this Agreement shall be construed as an admission or indication that such item or other matter is material or that such item or other matter is required to be referred to or disclosed in this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, no such reference to or disclosure of a possible breach or violation of any contract, Law or Governmental Order shall be construed as an admission or indication that breach or violation exists or has actually occurred.

Section 11.10. Governing Law; Submission to Jurisdiction; Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) This Agreement shall in all respects be governed by, and construed and interpreted in accordance with, the Laws of the State of New York without giving effect to any conflicts of law principles of such state that might refer the governance, construction or interpretation of this Agreement to the Laws of another jurisdiction.

(b) Each of the Parent and the Acquiror irrevocably and unconditionally:

(i) submits itself and its property in any Action arising out of or relating to the interpretation and enforcement of the provisions of this Agreement and of the documents referred to herein and in respect of the transactions contemplated hereby, to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Chancery of the State of Delaware or, if under applicable Law, jurisdiction is vested in the United States federal courts, the federal courts of the United States located in the State of Delaware;

(ii) consents that any such Action may and shall be brought in such courts and waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue or jurisdiction of any such Action in any such court or that such Action was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to assert, plead or claim the same;

(iii) agrees that service of process in any such Action may be effected by mailing a copy of such process by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to such Party at its address as provided in Section 11.02; and

(iv) agrees that nothing in this Agreement shall affect the right to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by the Laws of the State of New York.

(c) EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT.

Section 11.11. Rules of Construction. Interpretation of this Agreement and the other Transaction Agreements (except as specifically provided in any such agreement, in which case such specified rules of construction shall govern with respect to such agreement) shall be governed by the following rules of construction: (a) words in the singular shall be held to include the plural and vice versa, and words of one gender shall be held to include the other gender as the context requires; (b) references to the terms Article, Section, paragraph, Exhibit and Schedule are references to the Articles, Sections, paragraphs, Exhibits and Schedules to this Agreement unless otherwise specified; (c) references to "$" shall mean U.S. dollars and "¥" shall mean Japanese yen; (d) the word "including" and words of similar import when used in the Transaction Agreements shall mean "including without limitation," unless otherwise specified; (e) the word "or" shall not be exclusive; (f) the words "herein," "hereof" or "hereunder," and similar terms are to be deemed to refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any specific section; (g) the headings contained in the Transaction Agreements are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of the Transaction Agreements; (h) the Transaction Agreements shall be construed without regard to any presumption or rule requiring construction or interpretation against the Party drafting or causing any instrument to be drafted; (i) if a word or phrase is defined, the other grammatical forms of such word or phrase have a corresponding meaning; (j) references to any statute, listing rule, rule, standard, regulation or other Law include a reference to (1) the corresponding rules and regulations and (2) each of them as amended, modified, supplemented, consolidated, replaced or rewritten from time to time; and (k) references to any section of any statute, listing rule, rule, standard, regulation or other Law include any successor to such section.

Section 11.12. Specific Performance. The parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that, without the necessity of posting bond or other undertaking, the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in accordance with this Agreement, in addition to any other remedy to which such party is entitled at law or in equity. In the event that any Action is brought in equity to enforce the provisions of this Agreement, no party will allege, and each party hereby waives the defense or counterclaim, that there is an adequate remedy at law.

Section 11.13. Counterparts. This Agreement and each of the other Transaction Agreements may be executed in one or more counterparts, and by the different parties to each such agreement in separate counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to any Transaction Agreement by facsimile or other means of electronic transmission shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of any such Transaction Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Agreement to be executed on the date first written above by their respective duly authorized officers.

ARTICLE II

SERVICES AND ACCESS TO FACILITIES

Section 2.01 Services. On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, from and after the Closing and for the periods set forth in Schedule 2.01, subject to Section 6.01, the Parent shall provide or cause to be provided to the Acquiror Entities the services set forth in Schedule 2.01, as they may be amended prior to Closing (collectively with any Additional Services, the “Scheduled Services”).

Section 2.02 Access to Facilities. On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, from and after the Closing and for the periods set forth in Schedule 2.02, subject to Section 6.01, the Parent shall provide or cause to be provided to the Acquiror Entities access to the facilities, equipment and software set forth in Schedule 2.02 (collectively with any Additional Facilities, the “Facilities”).

Section 2.03 Additional Services and Access to Additional Facilities.

(a) Services or access to facilities, equipment or software not agreed upon in a Schedule attached hereto but provided prior to the Closing by a Parent Entity to an Acquiror Entity can be requested in writing within one hundred twenty (120) days of the Closing by the Acquiror upon reasonable notice to the Parent’s service manager and Contract Manager in accordance with Section 7.03(a). Upon receipt of such notice, within a commercially reasonable period of time under the circumstances, the Parent shall provide or cause to be provided to the Acquiror Entities such additional services (the “Additional Services”) and such access to such additional facilities, equipment and software (the “Additional Facilities”) in each case on the terms and conditions (other than price) as were applicable to such services or access to such facilities, software and equipment prior to Closing, at the Agreed Price, for a term determined pursuant to Section 6.01 and with any applicable reasonable Set-Up Costs and any termination charges, determined pursuant to Section 6.02, which price, terms and charges shall be (x) proposed in writing by the applicable Provider within ten (10) Business Days of the request from the applicable Recipient for such Additional Services or Additional Facilities and (y) agreed by the Parties on or about the time the Provider begins to provide such Additional Services or access to such Additional Facility; if the Parties fail to reach agreement on the amount of the Agreed Price, Initial Additional Service Term, or extension of such term or any applicable termination charges or Set-Up Costs, such issues shall be resolved in accordance with Section 7.09(a), but any such failure to reach agreement on the foregoing shall not delay the provision of the Additional Service or access to Additional Facilities. The applicable Schedule 2.01 or Schedule 2.02 shall be deemed amended to include the Additional Services and access to Additional Facilities (along with the Agreed Price, Initial Additional Service Term, extension of such term and termination charges, if any), which shall be provided in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Additional Services shall be deemed to be Scheduled Services hereunder and the Additional Facilities shall be deemed to be Facilities hereunder.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, the Parent shall have no obligation to provide the services or access to the facilities set forth on Schedule 2.03(b) hereto.

Section 2.04 Knowledge Transfer. The Parent will provide, upon the reasonable request of the Acquiror (a) the knowledge transfer with respect to the Scheduled Services and the Facilities, (b) knowledge transfer to assist the Acquiror in the migration and integration of the Scheduled Services and use of the Facilities and (c) knowledge transfer to assist the Acquiror in the migration and integration of the Business (collectively, "Knowledge Transfer Services"). Knowledge Transfer Services will be provided for no longer than the thirty (30) days following termination of the particular associated Service or associated Facility for which such Knowledge Transfer Services are being used (or, with respect to any Service or access to Facilities provided by the Parent or its Affiliates during the Pre-Closing Period but that will not be provided by the Parent or its Affiliates following the Closing, for thirty (30) days following the Closing). Knowledge Transfer Services will be charged to the Acquiror or the applicable Affiliate of the Acquiror receiving Knowledge Transfer Services at the Agreed Price plus any related Pass-Through Charges incurred by the Parent or the applicable Affiliate of the Parent providing such Knowledge Transfer Service; provided, that there will be no charge for (i) de minimis Knowledge Transfer Services (which, by way of example, includes meetings (without travel by Provider) or phone calls, in each case of one hour or less in duration), (ii) transfer of written documentation regarding data systems or the data environment, or (iii) Provider Costs other than incremental Provider Costs incurred as a result of the use of additional labor employed by a Provider, or additional materials, assets or other resources acquired by a Provider, in order to provide such Knowledge Transfer Services, if and to the extent Acquiror has approved Provider incurring such incremental Provider Costs.

Section 2.05 Third-Party Vendor Services. Upon the Acquiror's reasonable written request, the Parent shall cooperate or cause its Affiliates to cooperate in the Acquiror's negotiation for a direct agreement with any Third-Party Vendor (collectively, "Third-Party Vendor Services"); provided, however, that neither the Parent nor its Affiliates will be required to amend any contract, pay any amount of consideration or otherwise enter into any accommodation or undertaking with any such Third-Party Vendor in connection with these Third-Party Vendor Services. Third-Party Vendor Services shall be provided for no longer than the duration of the particular associated Service or associated Facility for which such Third-Party Vendor Services are being used. Third-Party Vendor Services will be charged to Acquiror at the Agreed Price plus any related Pass-Through Charges incurred by the Parent and its Affiliates in providing such Third-Party Vendor Services; provided, however, that for Third-Party Vendor Services provided in connection with the provision of Additional Services or access to Additional Facilities, the Provider may charge any Overhead Costs incurred in connection with providing such Additional Services or access to Additional Facilities, if and to the extent Acquiror has approved Provider using such Third-Party Vendor Services.

Section 2.06 [Reserved].

Section 2.07 Resumed Services. If, within sixty (60) days following termination by a Recipient of a Service or access to a Facility in accordance with Section 6.01(c)(i), such Recipient concludes that such Service or access to a Facility is still needed, the Recipient will so notify the applicable Provider in writing, and such Provider will promptly resume providing such Service or access to such Facility, if commercially reasonable and technologically feasible. The Recipient shall be responsible for the Agreed Price and related Pass-Through Charges of Provider associated with resuming such Service or access to such Facility, and to the extent practicable, such Provider shall provide such Recipient with an estimate (with reasonably supportive detail) of such Agreed Price in advance of resuming such Service or access to such Facility. Nothing in this Section 2.07 shall require a Provider to retain any personnel, to maintain any facilities or systems or to take, or refrain from taking, any other action, following a termination by a Recipient of a Service in anticipation of or preparation for the possibility of a Service or Facility being resumed pursuant to this Section 2.07. For the avoidance of doubt, no Service or Facility resumed pursuant to this Section 2.07 will extend the term of such Service or Facility beyond the Scheduled Term of such Service or Facility.

Section 2.08 Exception to Obligation to Provide Services or Access to Facilities. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, including Section 2.01 and Section 2.02, no Provider shall be obligated to (and no Party shall be obligated to cause any Provider to) provide any Service or access to any Facility, if the provision of such Service or access to such Facility would (a) violate any applicable Law, (b) violate any agreement, license or promise to customers; provided, however, that the foregoing limitation with respect to agreements, licenses and promises shall only apply to any such agreement, license or promise entered into with an unaffiliated third party prior to the date of the Purchase Agreement (each, a "Pre-Signing Agreement"); provided, further, that Provider shall promptly notify Recipient of any such Pre-Signing Agreement and any Service or access to Facility affected thereby; or (c) result in the disclosure of information subject to any applicable privileges (including the attorney-client or similar privilege); provided, however, that the Parent and the Acquiror shall use commercially reasonable efforts to (w) subject to Section 5.05(e) and Section 5.17 of the Purchase Agreement, obtain or cause to be obtained Third Party Consents such that the Services or access to the Facilities might be provided without violation of Law or any Pre-Signing Agreements, (x) make any commercially reasonable changes with respect to the Services or access to the Facilities such that they might be provided without violation of Law or any Pre-Signing Agreements or disclosure of information subject to applicable privileges, (y) if no such changes are reasonably possible, provide commercially reasonable alternative sources of such Services or Facilities and disclose or cause to be disclosed such information or its substantial equivalent in such a way as to not constitute disclosure of privileged information; and provided, further, the Provider shall continue to be obligated to provide the Service or access to Facility to the extent that doing so would not result in a violation of applicable Law, or any Pre-Signing Agreements, or disclosure of privileged information. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Section 2.08 is intended to relieve a Party of its obligations, or to modify the obligations, under Section 5.05(e) or Section 5.17 of the Purchase Agreement or Section 2.14 hereof.

Section 2.09 Standard of the Provision of Services or Access to Facilities. Each Provider shall provide the Services, the access to Facilities and other services and rights hereunder: (a) in accordance with applicable Law and with Provider's written policies and procedures, to the extent applicable, (b) at substantially the same standards of performance consistent with such Provider's practices for providing such Services or access to Facilities during the Pre-Closing Period, to the extent applicable, (c) in a competent and workmanlike manner, (d) as if Provider were performing such services for itself or its Affiliates and (e) with the same priority it accords its own operations and those of its Affiliates. In instances where such Services or access to Facilities were provided in accordance with service level agreements or targets in effect during the Pre-Closing Period, Provider shall promptly provide Recipient with copies of the applicable service level agreements or targets in the event of a written notice by Recipient to the applicable service manager and Contract Manager of a purported Service Shortfall or a dispute as to whether a Service or access to a Facility is provided in accordance with this Section 2.09.

Section 2.10 Reports. Each Provider shall provide to its corresponding Recipient the same reports that it provided during the Pre-Closing Period with respect to the Scheduled Services and the access to Facilities in the same form and at the same times as provided during the Pre-Closing Period or otherwise agreed to in writing by the Parties (the "Reports").

Section 2.11 Failure to Meet Standards for Services; Inability to Perform.

(a) If a Recipient provides its corresponding Provider with a written notice to the applicable service manager and Contract Manager of any purported failure to meet any standard of the Services or access to Facilities required by this Agreement (a "Service Shortfall"), as determined by such Recipient in good faith, and if such Provider agrees that a Service Shortfall exists, such Provider shall promptly rectify such failure at its own expense, using commercially reasonable efforts, and reimburse Service Charges related to such agreed Service Shortfall previously paid, or reduce such Service Charges not yet paid, in an amount reasonably determined to compensate such Recipient for the Service Shortfall; provided, however, that, in accordance with Section 3.02, the Acquiror may withhold payment of an amount that it reasonably determines in good faith would compensate such Recipient for the Service Shortfall. Any disagreement as to whether a Service Shortfall has occurred or as to any purported Service Shortfall (resulting in timing or quality of performance of any Service falling materially below the standard set forth in Section 2.09) that is not promptly rectified to such Recipient's reasonable satisfaction shall be rapidly and timely escalated and resolved in accordance with Section 7.09(a)(i) on an expedited basis.

(b) To the extent that any Provider fails to provide, or fails to timely provide, any Service or access to any Facility as required under this Agreement or fails to meet the applicable standards for any Service or access to any Facility as set forth herein, unless such failure resulted primarily from the act or omission of Recipient (even if such failure to provide Service or access to a Facility is excused by Force Majeure pursuant to Section 6.04 hereof), then Recipient and Recipient's Affiliates shall have no obligations or liability hereunder or under any other Transaction Agreement for failure to meet their obligations hereunder or under any other Transaction Agreement to the extent such failure by Recipient or its Affiliates is attributable to Provider's failure to provide, to timely provide, or to meet the applicable standards with respect to such Service or access to a Facility until such time as such Provider cures such failure to the extent required to enable Recipient or its Affiliates to resume fulfilling such obligations hereunder or under the other applicable Transaction Agreements.

Section 2.12 Change in Services or Access to Facilities.

(a) Subject to Section 2.09, a Provider may, from time to time, reasonably supplement, modify, substitute or otherwise alter (“Change”) the Services and access to the Facilities provided by it in a manner that does not adversely affect in any material respect the quality or availability of such Services or access to such Facilities or increase the cost to Recipient of receiving or using such Services or accessing such Facilities; provided, that to the extent that any such Change is reasonably likely to modify, substitute or otherwise alter the receipt or use of such Services or access to such Facilities, Provider shall provide Recipient with reasonable advance written notice to the applicable service manager and Contract Manager of the implementation of the Change to the extent practicable under the circumstances.

(b) Each Recipient may request in writing any Change to a Service or access to a Facility, which request shall include a description of the proposed Change requested and the associated business specifications (a “Change Request”); provided, however, that any proposed Change requested pursuant to such Change Request shall not result in any material change to the manner of provision or the contents of the Services or access to the Facilities that are the subject of such Change Request; provided further, however, that (i) any upgrades or changes to a Service or access to a Facility that are made in the ordinary course of business, including but not limited to, system upgrades, configuration changes, changes to the environment and installation of new releases, shall in no event be regarded as “material changes” and (ii) any disputes as to whether a Change Request results in any “material change” shall be resolved in accordance with Section 7.09(a)(i). Provider shall have ten (10) Business Days from the date of receipt of the Change Request (unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing by the Parties) to provide Recipient with a written proposal (a “Change Request Proposal”), prepared at the Agreed Price at Recipient’s expense. Provider and Recipient shall then engage in good faith negotiations regarding such Change Request, including with regard to the estimated time and price of implementing the Change Request (including any Third-Party Consents necessary to implement the Change Request) and any potential impact of the Change Request on then-existing Services or access to Facilities. For the avoidance of doubt, the estimated price for any Change Request shall be determined using the Agreed Price. If the Parties agree in writing upon a Change Request Proposal or a written variation thereof, the Schedules hereto (if applicable) shall be deemed amended to include the terms and conditions of such agreed-upon Change Request.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Change is required by applicable Law or is in response to a New Security Threat, a Provider shall make, at its own initiative or upon the request of a Recipient, any and all changes to the Services or the access to the Facilities necessary to comply with applicable Law and any changes thereto or to respond to such New Security Threat (any such changes to the Services or access to the Facilities, a “Required Change”); provided, that (i) such Provider shall provide Recipient with reasonable advance written notice to the applicable service manager and Contract Manager of the implementation of any Required Changes, and (ii) any disputes arising in connection therewith shall be rapidly and timely escalated and resolved in accordance with Section 7.09(a)(i) on an expedited basis. The Recipient shall pay to the Provider the Agreed Price for such Required Change and any related Pass-Through Charges incurred by the Provider in making any Required Changes and will pay any incremental Agreed Price and related Pass-Through Charges incurred by the Provider in providing the Services or providing access to the Facilities after implementation of the Required Change. The Recipient will receive the benefits of any incremental reduction in the Agreed Price enjoyed by the Provider in providing the Services or providing access to the Facility after implementation of the Required Change; provided, that with respect to a change in Law or New Security Threat that is applicable to the businesses of both Provider and the Recipient, the Parties will share on a pro rata basis in the Agreed Price and related Pass-Through Charges incurred by the Provider in making any Required Change, the incremental Agreed Price and related Pass-Through Charges incurred by the Provider in providing the Services after implementation of the Required Change and the benefits of any incremental reduction in the Agreed Price enjoyed by the Provider in providing the Services after implementation of the Required Change. Each Party shall promptly notify the other Party in writing of any changes in applicable Law or New Security Threat that may relate to the provision or receipt of the Services or access to the Facilities.

Section 2.13 Services and Access to Facilities Provided by Other Persons. The Parent may engage or cause any Person, including any Affiliate of the Parent to provide any Service or access to any Facility or any portion thereof; provided, however, that such Person and all Services or access to Facilities provided by such Person shall be subject to confidentiality and security provisions at least as stringent as those herein and to the terms and conditions set forth herein, including service standards, and that the Parent shall remain responsible for the performance by such Person of all of its obligations hereunder with respect to the Services or access to the Facilities provided by such Person so that such performance is in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof; provided, further, that Provider shall provide Recipient with reasonable advance written notice to the applicable service manager and Contract Manager of its intention to engage such Person to provide such Services or access to such Facilities, or any portion thereof; provided, further, that the engagement of any Person that is not either (i) an Affiliate of the Parent either as of the date hereof or as of the date such engagement occurs, (ii) providing the same or similar Services or access to Facilities to the Acquiror during the Pre-Closing Period, or (iii) a Person providing Services or access to Facilities after the Closing to a Recipient and concurrently providing similar Services or access to Facilities to the Acquiror shall be subject to the Acquiror's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. The Parent shall cause any such Person that is an Affiliate of the Parent to waive any existing restriction or constraint on its Work Product, any requirement for consent, and any other term of service or performance (and, if applicable, shall not impose such other new terms) that would prevent or impede such Person from providing the Services or the access to Facilities in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Section 2.14 Consents. The Parent shall obtain or cause its Affiliates and Persons providing Services or providing access to Facilities on its behalf to obtain any Third Party Consents necessary for the Services to be provided to and received by the applicable Recipient and for the access to Facilities to be provided to and received by the applicable Recipient and to use any deliverables (including Work Product) provided in connection therewith and shall either (a) use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain any such necessary Third Party Consent from any Person that is not an Affiliate of the Parent or (b) in the event such Third Party Consents are not obtained, immediately notify the applicable Recipient and provide commercially reasonable alternative arrangements reasonably acceptable to the applicable Recipient for the provision of such Services or access to Facilities consistent with existing service levels and the standards set forth in Section 2.09. All out-of-pocket costs of Third Party Consents or providing such acceptable alternative arrangements with respect to the Scheduled Services, access to the Scheduled Facilities and Additional Services and access to Additional Facilities shall be equally split between the Parent and the Acquiror. The applicable Recipient shall bear the costs of any Third Party Consents for Knowledge Transfer Services, Third-Party Vendor Services, Resumed Services, Migration Services and Changes made pursuant to a Change Request; and the cost of any Third Party Consents for a Required Change shall be allocated in accordance with the second and third sentences of Section 2.12(c).

Section 2.15 Dedicated Assets and Dedicated Third-Party Agreements. Schedule 2.15 sets forth certain equipment and other assets owned by the Parent Entities ("Dedicated Assets") and certain agreements between one or more Parent Entities and Persons that are not Affiliates of the Parent ("Dedicated Third-Party Agreements"), which in each case will be used exclusively to provide Scheduled Services. If, within sixty (60) days prior to the scheduled date of termination of a Service (whether such date appears on a Schedule or is set forth in a notice of termination given pursuant to Section 6.01), the Acquiror delivers written notice to the Parent that the Acquiror elects to acquire any Dedicated Asset used to provide such Service, the Parent shall sell such Dedicated Asset to the Acquiror on the date of such scheduled termination at a price equal to the net book value of such Dedicated Asset as of the last day of the quarterly fiscal period completed immediately prior to such notice date. Upon the Acquiror's reasonable written request delivered to the Parent within sixty (60) days prior to the scheduled date of termination of a Service (whether such date appears on a Schedule or is set forth in a notice of termination given pursuant to Section 6.01), the Parent shall cooperate or cause its Affiliates to cooperate in the Acquiror's negotiation of an assignment to an Acquiror Entity of any Dedicated Third-Party Agreement used to provide such Service or in Acquiror's paying off any obligations owed under any Dedicated Third-Party Agreement, including by way of Parent or its Affiliates providing a letter of agency to allow the Acquiror to be assigned, or to assume obligations under, any Dedicated Third-Party Agreement, in either case effective on the date of such scheduled termination; provided, however, that neither the Parent nor its Affiliates will be required to pay any consideration or otherwise enter into any accommodation or undertaking with any counterparty to such Dedicated Third-Party Agreement in connection with such assignment. For the avoidance of doubt, whether or not an agreement is a Dedicated Third-Party Agreement listed on Schedule 2.15, the Parent and its Affiliates will not assign any agreements to an Acquiror Entity that do not exclusively relate to the provision of the Scheduled Services.

Section 2.16 Personnel.

(a) The Parent shall, and shall cause the Provider of any Service or access to any Facility to make available to the Recipient of such Service or access to such Facility such personnel as may be necessary to provide such Service or access to such Facility; provided, however, that, subject to Section 2.09, the Provider shall have the right, in its reasonable discretion, to (i) designate which personnel it will assign to perform such Service or provide access to such Facility and (ii) remove and replace such personnel at any time. Subject to Section 2.09, nothing in this Agreement shall obligate a Provider (or the Parent to cause any Provider) to hire any additional employees or provide any incentives to employees in addition to those in effect immediately prior to the Closing or to retain the employment of any particular employee or retain the services of any particular consultant, contractor or agent.

(b) The Provider of any Service or access to any Facility shall be solely responsible for all (i) salary, employment and other benefits and liabilities; (ii) payroll, employment, social security, workers compensation, unemployment, disability and similar taxes (including all withholding taxes on such payments or benefits) and (iii) compliance with all employment, immigration and any other applicable Laws, in the case of (i) through (iii) relating to the personnel of such Provider assigned to perform such Service or provide access to such Facility. In performing their respective duties hereunder, all such personnel of a Provider shall be under the direction, control and supervision of such Provider and, subject to Section 2.09 and Section 2.16(a), such Provider shall have the sole right to exercise all authority with respect to the employment (including termination of employment), assignment and compensation of such personnel.

(c) The Parties hereby agree that the employees of the Acquired Entities listed in Schedule 2.16(c) hereto (the “Seconded Employees”) have been seconded to American International Group K.K. (“AIG KK”) in accordance with the terms of the respective secondment agreements between the Acquired Entities and AIG KK listed on Schedule 2.16(c) hereto (the “Secondment Agreements”) and for the purpose of performing job functions related to the Services and access to the Facilities provided hereunder. The Seconded Employees will remain at all times employees of the Acquired Entities, to the extent applicable, but they shall, at all times during the Secondment Term (as defined below), work under the direction, supervision and control of AIG KK or one of its Affiliates. All contractual salary and benefits due and payable to the Seconded Employees during the Secondment Term shall be in accordance with the Secondment Agreements. For each Seconded Employee, the “Secondment Term” shall be that period of time from such employee’s initial secondment pursuant to the Secondment Agreements until the earlier of: (i) completion of the period provided in Schedule 2.01 for the provision of the Services in which such Seconded Employee is engaged or (ii) the termination of this Agreement for whatever cause. Upon completion of a Seconded Employee’s Secondment Term such Seconded Employee shall immediately cease working under the direction, supervision and control of AIG KK or any of its Affiliates, as applicable, and such Seconded Employee shall be transferred to the applicable Acquiror Entity.

Section 2.17 Cooperation. Each Party agrees to perform all obligations under this Agreement in good faith and to use commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with the other in all matters relating to the provision and receipt of the Services and access to the Facilities. In furtherance of the foregoing: (a) each Party shall timely notify the other in writing as soon as practicable in advance of any circumstances that could have a material adverse effect on the Services or the access to the Facilities or security and work with the other Party to minimize the effect of such circumstances; (b) each Party shall timely provide information and documentation reasonably requested by the other Party to be used in the provision or receipt of Services and access to Facilities hereunder; and (c) each Recipient and its Affiliates shall use commercially reasonable efforts to (i) cooperate with the applicable Provider and its Affiliates with respect to the provision of any Service and access to any Facility and (ii) enable the applicable Provider and its Affiliates to provide the Services and access to the Facilities in accordance with this Agreement. Except as required by applicable Law, no Recipient or its Affiliates shall take any action that would interfere with or materially increase the cost of a Provider’s providing any of the Services or access to any of the Facilities.

Section 2.18 Security; Electronic and Other Access.

(a) The Parties shall work together (i) to ensure that each Provider is able to maintain or exceed its current level of security during the term of this Agreement and (ii) to address any New Security Threat, (including compliance with applicable Law (including Privacy Laws) related to such New Security Threat) or the security and protection of Personally Identifiable Information, provided, however, that the Provider shall not be required to take action in connection with the foregoing (ii) except under a Required Change The Acquiror shall be entitled to perform, with reasonable advance written notice, audits of the data and physical, electronic and systems security procedures in effect at the locations where the Provider is providing Services or access to any Facilities, which audits shall be of the type and conducted in a manner that is reasonable under the circumstances of the provision of services, access to facilities, equipment, software and other assistance on a transitional basis. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such right to perform audits shall include the ability to perform Statement of Auditing Standards 70 Type II audits if such audits are required by a Governmental Authority. At the Acquiror's request, the Provider shall, in accordance with Section 2.17, provide such cooperation as is required to conduct and complete such audits.

(b) As of the Closing, except as otherwise expressly provided in the Purchase Agreement or in this Agreement or as expressly agreed to in writing by the Parties, (i) the Acquiror Entities shall cease to use and shall have no further access to, and the Parent shall have no obligation to otherwise provide or make available, any business or other services, including any Parent Entity's intranet and other owned, licensed, leased or used computer software, networks, hardware or technology of a Parent Entity, provided or made available to the Acquiror Entities by any Parent Entity prior to the Closing and (ii) the Acquiror Entities shall have no access to, and the Parent Entities shall have no obligation to otherwise provide, any Parent Entity's computer-based resources (including third-Person services, e-mail and access to its computer networks, databases and equipment), whether or not such resources require a password or are available on a secured access basis or on a non-secured access basis.

(c) To the extent that the performance or receipt of Services or access to Facilities hereunder requires any Party or Provider to have access to the other Party's or its Affiliates' Systems (including third-Person services, e-mail and access to computer networks, database and equipment) owned, licensed, leased or used by such other Party or its Affiliates ("Required Technology"), such other Party or its Affiliates shall provide limited access to such Required Technology in accordance with applicable Law (including Privacy Laws) and subject to the security, use, Virus protection, disaster recovery and confidentiality policies and procedures (including physical security, network access, Internet security, confidentiality and Processing of Personally Identifiable Information and security guidelines and procedures) of such Provider, as they may be amended from time to time, provided that such policies were in effect at the time of such access and are made known to the other Party's personnel who are seeking such access prior to such access (the "Security Regulations"). The Parent and the Acquiror, as the case may be, shall, and shall cause the Parent Entities and the Acquiror Entities, as the case may be, and all of their respective personnel having access to the Required Technology to (i) comply with all of such Party's or its Affiliates' Security Regulations that are applicable to the provision of any Service or access to any Facility; (ii) not tamper with, compromise or circumvent any security or audit measures employed by such Party or its Affiliate whose Required Technology is being accessed; (iii) execute a separate system access agreement, upon commercially reasonable terms, with such Party or its Affiliate; (iv) ensure that only those users who are specifically authorized by such Party or its Affiliates, as the case may be, gain access to the Required Technology; and (v) use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent unauthorized destruction, alteration or loss of information contained therein by such users. The rights of access to the Required Technology granted hereunder shall be restricted to user access only, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the Parties, and shall not include privileged or higher level access rights or rights to functionality. Other than as specifically permitted under this Agreement or the other Transaction Agreements, no Person shall have any rights of access to the other Party's Required Technology or Systems.

(d) While Services are being provided hereunder, each Party shall take commercially reasonable measures to ensure that, in connection with the provision or receipt of any Services or access to any Facilities, no Virus or similar items are coded or introduced into either its own (including its Affiliates') or the other Party's (including its Affiliates') Systems. If, in connection with the provision of any Services or access to any Facilities, a Virus is found to have been introduced into such Systems, each Party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate and to diligently work together with the other Party, each at its own cost, to eliminate the effects of such Virus.

(e) The Parties shall, and shall cause their respective Providers and Recipients to, exercise commercially reasonable care or such higher standard that may be required by applicable Privacy Laws to prevent unauthorized Persons from accessing the Services, Facilities, Personally Identifiable Information, Required Technology or other Systems of the other Party and its Affiliates, including (i) promptly terminating the rights of any user under its control that has sought to circumvent or has circumvented the applicable Security Regulations, (ii) immediately notifying (verbally and then in writing) the other Party if it learns that an unauthorized Person has accessed or may access any Required Technology or other Systems of such other Party or that a Person has engaged in activities that may lead to the unauthorized access, destruction or alteration or loss of Personally Identifiable Information, or other data, information or software whether on such other Party's Required Technology or other Systems, and (iii) immediately implementing the notification procedures and actions required by Section 7.02.

(f) Each Party shall cooperate, and shall cause its Affiliates and other Providers to cooperate, fully and in a timely way with any investigation, audit or review relating to the security of Personally Identifiable Information, the Facilities, the Required Technology or other Systems that arises in connection with this Agreement, including providing any relevant information or material in its possession or under its control that is reasonably requested by the other Party (but excluding internal audit reports and external audit opinions other than a reasonably detailed summary of the portions thereof that describe or address any exceptions from compliance policies or practices that are pertinent to the Services or the Facilities).

(g) Subject to Section 7.02, the Contract Managers shall be advised promptly (both orally, if practicable, and in any event in writing) of any material breach of the provisions of this Section 2.18 or any breach of the Security Regulations or unauthorized access to Personally Identifiable Information, the Required Technology, Facilities or other Systems used hereunder. If such breach has not been rectified or such unauthorized access has not been terminated within three (3) days from the notice to the Contract Managers, the matter shall be immediately escalated to the Contract Managers and resolved in accordance with Section 7.09(a)(i) on an expedited basis. On reasonable advance written notice to the applicable Contract Manager, and to the extent permitted by applicable Law, each Party may audit the other Party's use of the Required Technology or other Systems used in providing or receiving the Services or access to Facilities solely with respect to security and compliance with the applicable Security Regulations no more than once every calendar year, unless in connection with a Security Incident.

(h) Each Provider shall use the same level of effort and services as used or caused to be used, to recover or recreate Provider's own lost data prior to the Closing Date but in no event less than a commercially reasonable effort, to recover or recreate any data lost or destroyed in performing any Services or providing access to any Facility due to Provider's negligence, at Provider's cost. In addition, each Provider shall, at the reasonable request of Recipient, use commercially reasonable efforts (or as otherwise required by applicable Law) to restore or procure the restoration of such Personally Identifiable Information to its state immediately prior to any corruption or loss.

Section 2.19 No Agency. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed in any way or for any purpose to constitute any Party acting as an agent of another unaffiliated Party in the conduct of such other Party's business. A Provider of any Service or access to any Facility hereunder shall act as an independent contractor and not as the agent of any Recipient or its Affiliates in performing such Service or providing access to such Facility.

Section 2.20 Ownership of Intellectual Property; Ownership of Data.

(a) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement or in the Purchase Agreement, each of the Parent and the Acquiror and their respective Affiliates shall retain all right, title and interest in and to their respective Intellectual Property (including Work Product, as provided for herein) and any and all improvements, modifications and derivative works thereof. No license or right, express or implied, is granted under this Agreement by the Parent, the Acquiror or their respective Affiliates in or to their respective Intellectual Property, except that, solely to the extent required for the provision or receipt of the Services or access to the Facilities in accordance with this Agreement, each of the Parent and the Acquiror, for itself and on behalf of their respective Affiliates, hereby grants to the other (and their respective Affiliates) ("Licensee") a non-exclusive, fully paid up, royalty-free, worldwide, revocable (only as expressly set forth herein), non-transferable (except as provided in Section 7.06) license during the term of this Agreement to such Intellectual Property, but only to the extent and for the duration necessary for the Licensee to provide or receive the applicable Service or access to the applicable Facility as permitted by this Agreement. Upon the expiration of such time, or the earlier termination of such Service or access to such Facility in accordance with Section 6.01(d), the license to the relevant Intellectual Property will terminate; provided, however, that, subject to Section 6.03(a), all licenses granted hereunder shall terminate immediately upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement in accordance with the terms hereof. The foregoing license is subject to any licenses granted by others with respect to Intellectual Property not owned by the Parent, the Acquiror or their respective Affiliates.

(b) All right, title and interest (including Intellectual Property rights) in the results and proceeds of the Services performed hereunder and the access to Facilities, including all materials, products, reports, computer programs (source or object code), documentation, deliverables and inventions developed or prepared by Provider in performance of such services (the "Work Product") that is created exclusively on behalf of the Acquiror and its Affiliates or the Business (subject to Section 2.20(a)) (the "Acquiror Work Product") shall be owned exclusively by the Acquiror (as between the Acquiror and its Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Parent and its Affiliates on the other), in whatever stage of completion such Acquiror Work Product may exist from time to time. All such Acquiror Work Product shall be considered "works made for hire" (within the meaning of the United States Copyright Law) of the Acquiror. In the event such Acquiror Work Product is for any reason or in any jurisdiction determined not to be "works made for hire" or that title to any such Acquiror Work Product may not vest in the Acquiror or its Affiliates by operation of applicable Law or otherwise, then the Parent hereby assigns and shall cause its Affiliates or applicable Providers to assign all right, title and interest (including Copyrights) in such Acquiror Work Product to the Acquiror, and Acquiror shall reimburse the Parent for its and its Affiliates' or the applicable Agreed Price related to such actions. All such Acquiror Work Product, where practicable, shall bear Acquiror's Copyright and trade secret notices, as specified by the Acquiror, and Acquiror shall reimburse the Parent for its and its Affiliates' or the applicable Agreed Price related to such actions. No rights to Acquiror Work Product shall remain with the Parent or its Affiliates following the end of the term of this Agreement.

(c) All right, title and interest (including Intellectual Property rights) in Work Product that is created hereunder and that is not Acquiror Work Product shall belong to the Provider that created such Work Product (the "Provider Work Product") (as between Provider and its Affiliates, on the one hand, and Recipient and its Affiliates on the other), in whatever stage of completion such Provider Work Product may exist from time to time, unless otherwise agreed to by the Parties in writing. In the event that in any jurisdiction ownership of the Provider Work Product does not vest in such Provider or its Affiliates by operation of applicable Law or otherwise, then the Acquiror, as Recipient, hereby assigns and shall cause its Affiliates to assign all right, title and interest (including Intellectual Property rights) in such Provider Work Product to the applicable Provider, and such Provider shall reimburse the Acquiror for the Agreed Price related to such actions. Each Provider grants each Recipient a non-exclusive, fully paid-up, royalty-free, worldwide, perpetual and irrevocable and only to the extent necessary for Recipient to receive the Services license for Recipient to copy, prepare derivative works of, distribute, display, perform and otherwise use such Work Product (including, in the case of Work Product that is software, any source code or executable or object code) in such Recipient's business and that of such Recipient's Affiliates.

(d) If a Provider hereunder that is not an Affiliate of the Parent entered into agreements with the Parent or its Affiliates prior to the Closing, which agreements allocate title in work product to such Provider or another third party, then the Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain for the applicable Recipient at the Recipient's expense, (i) in the case of Work Product to be owned by such Recipient, a non-exclusive, fully paid-up, royalty-free, transferable, worldwide, perpetual and irrevocable license for Recipient to copy, prepare derivative works of, distribute, display, perform and otherwise use such work product in such Recipient's business and that of such Recipient's Affiliates and (ii) in the case of Work Product to be owned by Provider, a non-exclusive, fully paid-up, royalty-free, non-transferable, worldwide license to use the work product in accordance with Section 2.20(a). In the event that such licenses cannot be obtained, the Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain an alternative at the Recipient's expense.

(e) The Parent, as Provider, and its Affiliates will (i) promptly provide each Recipient with written notice to the applicable service manager and the Contract Manager of any restrictions, terms and conditions on Recipient's rights in Work Product otherwise owned by such Recipient (arising solely from third-party rights, and not rights of Provider or its Affiliates) and (ii) use commercially reasonable efforts, in consultation with Recipient, to remove or minimize such restrictions, terms and conditions.

(f) During the term of this Agreement, each Provider will make reasonable efforts to provide Recipient, upon Recipient's request, with access to and delivery of the Work Product owned by such Recipient.

(g) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement or in any other Transaction Agreement, no Party (or its Affiliates) shall have any rights or licenses with respect to any Intellectual Property (including software), hardware or facility of the other Party. All rights and licenses not expressly granted in this Agreement or in any other Transaction Agreement are expressly reserved by the relevant Party. Each Party shall from time to time, and shall cause its Affiliates to, execute any documents and take any other actions reasonably requested by the other Party to effectuate the intent of this Section 2.20.

(h) All Recipient Data is, will be and will remain the property of the Recipient or any of its designees and will be deemed Confidential Information of such Persons. The Recipient or such designees shall have all right, title and interest in and to, including worldwide ownership of all Intellectual Property rights in the Recipient Data and all copies thereof. “Recipient Data” means all books, records, files, tapes, software data, documents, storage devices, media and other information (i) submitted to a Provider by or on behalf of any Recipient, and any of its Affiliates, successors or agents, or (ii) obtained, developed or produced by the Provider in connection with providing the Services or access to any Facilities to the extent such data or information is based on, summarizes or includes data and information of any Recipient, or any of its Affiliates, successors or agents, submitted to or obtained by the Provider in connection with such Services or access to such Facilities.

Section 2.21 Divestitures.

(a) If the Parent sells or divests any Affiliate that provides Services or access to Facilities hereunder or assets that are used to provide Services or access to Facilities hereunder, the Parent shall provide, or cause the divested Affiliate or another Person to provide, for the continuity of Services and access to Facilities on the same price, terms and conditions as are in effect immediately prior to such sale or divestiture, and in a manner which does not cause a degradation in any material respect in the service standards set forth herein and without requiring a material change to the Recipient’s business processes or operations.

(b) If the Acquiror sells or divests any Affiliate that receives Services or access to Facilities hereunder, the Parent shall provide and shall cause its Affiliates to provide for continuity of Services and access to Facilities on the same price, terms and conditions as are in effect immediately prior to such sale or divestiture, and in a manner which does not cause a degradation in the service standards set forth herein; provided, that the Parent shall not be required to incur any material additional costs or to make any material change to the manner in which the Parent provides Services or access to Facilities; provided, further, that the Acquiror shall remain responsible for all payment and other obligations hereunder with respect to such Services and access to Facilities.

Section 2.22 Reorganization. In the event that the Acquiror internally restructures, reorganizes or transfers the Business to an Affiliate (including, without limitation any merger or other integration of any Company or Transferred Subsidiary with or into any other Company or Transferred Subsidiary or any Affiliate of the Acquiror), the Parent shall be obligated to continue to provide, or cause to be provided, the Services and the access to Facilities to such Affiliate on the same price, terms and conditions as are in effect immediately prior to such reorganization, and in a manner which does not cause a degradation in any material respect in the service standards set forth herein; provided, that the Parent shall not be required to incur any material additional costs or to make any material change to the manner in which the Parent provides such Services or access to Facilities.

Section 2.23 [Reserved].

Section 2.24 Migration.

(a) The Parties agree to use, and to cause their respective Affiliates that are Providers or Recipients to use, their reasonable good faith efforts to cooperate with and assist each other in connection with the migration of the Business or the Acquiror Entities from the Parent and the Seller to the Acquiror, in each case and to the extent reasonably agreed by the Parties, taking into account the need to minimize both the cost of such migration and the disruption to the ongoing business activities of the Parties and their respective Affiliates. In furtherance thereof, to the extent that the Parties have not already done so prior to the Closing Date, the Parties shall (i) identify the respective tasks to be accomplished by each Party in connection with the orderly migration from the performance of any Service or provision of access to any Facility by a Provider to the performance of such Service and provision of access to such Facility by a Recipient, its Affiliates or a third Person (the “Migration Services”), (ii) agree upon the terms by which Provider will provide such Migration Services and (iii) agree to the period during which the Migration Services are to be provided. Any disputes between the Parties as to the identification of, terms of or Schedule for Migration Services shall be rapidly and timely escalated and resolved in accordance with Section 7.09(a)(i) on an expedited basis.

(b) The Parties acknowledge that Migration Services may include the provision of services requested by a Recipient in connection with its migration to non-Provider Systems, including the transfer of records, segregation and migration of historical data, migration-specific enhancements and cooperation with and assistance to third-Person consultants engaged by such Recipient in connection with the foregoing. Migration Services shall be charged to the Party or Affiliate of such Party that is receiving Migration Services (the "Migration Services Recipient") at the Agreed Price plus related Pass-Through Charges (less any VAT or Sales Tax recoverable by the Migration Services Provider or any of its Affiliates) incurred by the Party that is providing such Migration Services (the "Migration Services Provider") in the provision of Migration Services; provided, however, that to the extent that the Migration Services for a particular Service are provided by human resources, or utilize equipment or third-party services, that are otherwise being used to provide such particular Service (and, therefore, are included in the calculation of the Service Charge for such Service), there shall be no additional charges for such Migration Services beyond the Services Charge; provided further, however, that for any human resources, equipment or third-party services that Provider retains in order to provide Migration Services beyond those otherwise used to provide such particular Service, then, if and to the extent that an authorized representative of Recipient specifically authorizes in writing the use thereof, such Recipient may be charged the incremental costs incurred by Provider for such additional resources, equipment or services.

Section 2.25 Primary Points of Contact for this Agreement.

(a) Each Party shall appoint an individual to act as the primary point of operational contact for the administration and operation of this Agreement, as follows:

(i) The individual appointed by the Acquiror as the primary point of operational contact pursuant to this Section 2.25(a) (the "Acquiror Contract Manager" identified on Schedule 2.25) shall have overall operational responsibility for coordinating, on behalf of the Acquiror, all activities undertaken by the Acquiror and the Acquiror Entities and their Affiliates and Representatives hereunder, including the performance of the Acquiror's obligations hereunder, the coordination of the provision of the Services and access to the Facilities with the Parent, acting as a day-to-day contact with the Parent Contract Manager and making available to the Parent the data, facilities, resources and other support services from the Acquiror required for the Parent Providers to be able to provide the Services and access to the Facilities in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement. The Acquiror may replace the Acquiror Contract Manager with an employee or officer with comparable knowledge, expertise and decision-making authority from time to time upon written notice to the Parent pursuant to Section 7.03(b). The Acquiror shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice of any such change.

(ii) The individual appointed by the Parent as the primary point of operational contact pursuant to this Section 2.25(a) (the "Parent Contract Manager" identified on Schedule 2.25) shall have overall operational responsibility for coordinating, on behalf of the Parent, all activities undertaken by the Parent Providers and their Affiliates and Representatives hereunder, including the performance of the Parent's obligations hereunder, the coordination of the provision of the Services and access to the Facilities with the Acquiror, acting as a day-to-day contact with the Acquiror Contract Manager and making available to the Acquiror the data, facilities, resources and other support services from the Parent required for the Acquiror Entities to be able to receive the Services and access to the Facilities in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement. The Parent may replace the Parent Contract Manager with an employee or officer with comparable knowledge, expertise and decision-making authority from time to time upon written notice to the Acquiror pursuant to Section 7.03(b). The Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice of any such change.

(iii) In addition to the responsibilities set forth in Section 2.25(a)(i) and Section 2.25(a)(ii) and Section 7.09(a), the Contract Managers shall have the authority to approve in writing modifications to the Services, access to Facilities, the terms on which the foregoing are provided and the Schedules hereto.

(b) The Parties shall ensure that the Parent Contract Manager and the Acquiror Contract Manager shall meet in person or telephonically as frequently as necessary or advisable for the performance of the Parties' obligations hereunder, but in no event less than weekly for the first six (6) months of the term and no less than every other week during the remainder of the term. In addition, at least once per quarter during the term of this Agreement, the Contract Managers and the senior executives identified in Section 7.09(a) shall meet to discuss this Agreement and any issues arising hereunder.

Section 2.26 TSA Records.

(a) During the Scheduled Term of any Service or access to any Facility and for an additional period thereafter as required by applicable Law and/or the Parent's record retention policies that are provided to Recipient (but in no event shall such additional period be fewer than twelve (12) months after the end of such Scheduled Term), the Parent shall each maintain, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause Providers to maintain, true and correct records of all receipts, invoices, reports and other documents relating to the services rendered and activities performed hereunder in accordance with applicable Law and its standard accounting and record management practices and procedures, consistently applied, which practices and procedures are employed by the Parent or such Providers (as applicable) in their provision or receipt of services for themselves and their Affiliates.

(b) As and when so reasonably requested by Recipient for purposes of verifying invoices submitted to Recipient pursuant to Article III and/or any Provider's performance of the Services, or by a Governmental Authority acting pursuant to applicable Law, the Parent shall cause each Provider to permit at reasonable times and from time to time, but in no event more than one inspection per year, by the Acquiror and/or its external auditors (an "Inspection") wherein such Provider shall (i) make books and records concerning the Business (but excluding Provider's internal audit reports and external audit opinions, other than a reasonably detailed summary of the portions thereof that describe or address any exceptions from compliance policies or practices that are pertinent to the Services or the Facilities), the calculation of any fees or Taxes, the performance of Services or access to Facilities provided pursuant to this Agreement (including IT infrastructure and general IT controls) and/or the invoices submitted to the Acquiror pursuant to Article III, available for inspection and copying by such Person(s) as the Acquiror designates as its authorized representative(s), who shall, subject to the terms of Section 7.01, have the right to take copies of or extracts from any such books and records, and (ii) give the Acquiror's representatives reasonable access during regular business hours to facilities, officers, employees and other representatives of such Provider, including attorneys, accountants and others, in connection with such Inspection without disruption of the business operations of such Provider.

(c) If it is determined pursuant to the dispute resolution process in Section 7.09 or any legal proceeding between the Parties, or the Parties otherwise agree, that an Inspection has revealed that the Parent has overcharged the Acquiror for Services or access to Facilities for any billing period, the Parent promptly shall credit (or, if the applicable Provider has ceased providing Services or access to Facilities, promptly shall refund) the Acquiror for the amount of the overcharge plus interest thereon calculated from the date of the Acquiror's payment of the overcharge using the applicable Interest Rate. The costs and expenses incurred by the Recipient and the Parent and its Affiliates in connection with an Inspection shall be borne by Recipient unless the overcharge exceeds ten percent (10%) of the actual amount owed for the applicable billing period, in which event the costs and expenses incurred by the Recipient and the Parent and its Affiliates in connection with such Inspection shall be borne by the Parent.

ARTICLE III

COSTS AND DISBURSEMENTS

Section 3.01 Costs and Disbursements.

As consideration for providing the Services and access to the Facilities:

(a) Except as otherwise set forth on the applicable Schedule, the Acquiror shall cause the Recipient of any Service set forth in Schedule 2.01 or access to any Facility set forth in Schedule 2.02 to pay to the applicable Provider the amount specified next to such Service or Facility in the applicable Schedule, as it may be amended prior to Closing (with respect to a Service or Facility, the "Service Charge" for such Service or Facility), subject to any reduction thereof made pursuant to the last sentence of Section 2.15. For the avoidance of doubt and not including Pass-Through Charges, Set-Up Costs, termination charges pursuant to Section 6.02(b) and Third Party Consents, the Service Charge shall be the amount set forth on the applicable Schedule and such amount shall not be subject to any additional increase except as contemplated by Section 6.01. In addition, except as otherwise set forth on the applicable Schedule or as otherwise agreed in writing by the Parties, each Recipient shall pay the Agreed Price for Knowledge Transfer Services, Third-Party Vendor Services, Additional Services, Migration Services received by such Recipient and for any actual incremental costs of resuming any Resumed Services (it being understood that, in the absence of any such incremental costs, Resumed Services shall be charged at the same amounts as were specified in the applicable Schedule for the Scheduled Service or access to a Facility). Each month's Service Charges and charges for Knowledge Transfer Services, Third-Party Vendor Services, Additional Services, Resumed Services and Migration Services (pro-rated if applicable to less than a full calendar month) for such Recipient shall be (X) set forth in an invoice (which invoice or related documentation shall provide reasonable detail regarding the calculation of the amount set forth in the invoice unless such amount is a fixed amount set forth in a Schedule hereto) from the Provider and submitted to the applicable Recipient, sent in electronic format to the applicable Person at such Recipient designated to receive such invoices, with copies of all such invoices sent simultaneously in electronic format to the applicable Contract Manager, and with all amounts due calculated and payable in the currency of the Recipient, unless otherwise required by applicable Law, otherwise designated in the applicable Schedule, or otherwise agreed to by the Parties in writing; provided, that regardless of the currency of the Recipient, in the event that the business unit AIG KK is the Provider such charges shall be in Japanese yen and in the event that the business unit AIG Global Services is the Provider such charges will be in U.S. dollars, and (Y) payable in arrears, unless otherwise specified for each Service in Schedule 2.01 or Schedule 2.02. The Acquiror shall cause the applicable Recipient to pay all such amounts set forth in such invoice and not disputed pursuant to Section 3.02 via electronic funds transfer (instructions to be separately provided), within thirty (30) days of the applicable Recipient's and Contract Manager's receipt of the invoice.

"Agreed Price" shall (I) apply only to Knowledge Transfer Services, Third-Party Vendor Services, Additional Services, Migration Services and to any actual incremental costs of resuming any Resumed Services, (II) exclude any Pass-Through Charges and (III) be determined as follows, with no additional charges for Provider Costs, Overhead Costs or any other costs (except as expressly set forth below and in Section 2.05 hereof):

(i) Where the Parties can agree upon a fee or method of fee calculation regardless of past practice, such fee or method of fee calculation shall be used ("Agreed Service Fee") and the Agreed Price shall be the product of (A) the Agreed Service Fee and (B) 1.2.

(ii) If there is no Agreed Service Fee, where an internal rate exists (the "Applicable Rate Card") that would apply to the Service or access to the Facility that is charged on a unit basis, the Agreed Price shall be the product of (A) the unit charge set forth on the then-current Applicable Rate Card, (B) the number of units used and (C) 1.2.

(iii) If there is no Agreed Service Fee or Applicable Rate Card and an hourly rate can be applied with respect to the Service, access to the Facility, a portion of such Service or a portion of access to such Facility, the Agreed Price for such Service, access to such Facility, portion of such Service or portion of access to such Facility shall be $175 per hour (unless the Provider of such Service, access to Facility, portion of such Service or portion of access to such Facility is located in Japan, in which case the Agreed Price for such Service, access to such Facility, portion of such Service or portion of access to such Facility shall be ¥15,640 per hour) (an "Hourly Rate").

(iv) If there is no Agreed Service Fee or Applicable Rate Card and an Hourly Rate cannot be applied to the Service, access to the Facility, a portion of such Service or a portion of access to such Facility and the Provider has historically charged for such Service or Facility by allocating its total Provider Cost among all of the recipients of its services or access to its facilities in proportion to the percentage each such recipient represents of such Provider's total Provider Cost, the Agreed Price for such Service, Facility, portion of such Service or portion of access to such Facility shall be the product of (A) the total Provider Cost of such Provider for all services and access to all facilities provided by such Provider to Recipients pursuant to this Agreement and to recipients other than pursuant to this Agreement, (B) the proportion of such Provider's total Provider Cost that is attributable to such Recipient and (C) 1.2.

(v) If there is no Agreed Service Fee or Applicable Rate Card, an Hourly Rate cannot be applied to the Service, access to the Facility, a portion of such Service or a portion of access to such Facility, and the Provider has not historically charged for such Service or Facility by allocating its total Provider Cost among all of the recipients of its services or access to its facilities in proportion to the percentage each such recipient represents of such Provider's total Provider Cost, the Agreed Price for such Service, Facility, portion of such Service or portion of access to such Facility shall be the Fully-Burdened Cost.

(b) Except as otherwise set forth on the applicable Schedule, in addition to any Service Charges, the Acquiror shall cause the Recipient to pay to the Provider any actual out-of-pocket costs and expenses paid to any unaffiliated third Person (less any VAT or Sales Tax recoverable by the Provider or any of its Affiliates) of the type set forth in Schedule 3.01(b), incurred by a Provider in the provision of any Services or access to any Facilities (collectively, the "Pass-Through Charges") including any Pass-Through Charges specified on Schedule 2.01 or Schedule 2.02 or otherwise agreed to in writing by the Parties; provided, that all travel expenses that are included as a Pass-Through Charge shall only be reimbursed in accordance with Recipient's travel policies previously provided in writing to the Parent and the Provider. Pass-Through Charges in excess of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for a single expense will not be incurred without the prior written approval of the applicable Recipient; provided, that if such applicable Recipient does not approve the incurrence of such expense, the Parent and the Acquiror shall discuss in good faith commercially reasonable alternatives to the incurrence of such expense; and provided, further that if the Parent and the Acquiror do not agree to a commercially reasonable alternative to the incurrence of such expense and the applicable Recipient still does not approve the incurrence of such expense, then the applicable Provider may terminate the Service related to such Pass-Through Charge within fifteen (15) Business Days of delivering a written notice to such effect to the Acquiror in accordance with Section 7.03(b) and to the applicable Contract Manager, unless, during such fifteen (15) Business Day period, the Recipient approves the incurrence of such expense. Pass-Through Charges shall be set forth in an invoice in reasonable detail and with reasonable back-up from the Provider and without any mark-up or additional fee and shall be submitted to the applicable Recipient in electronic format sent to the applicable Person at Recipient designated to receive such invoices, with copies of all such invoices sent simultaneously in electronic format to the Acquiror Contract Manager, and with all amounts due calculated and payable in the currency of the Recipient, unless otherwise required by applicable Law, otherwise designated in the applicable Schedule, or otherwise agreed to by the Parties in writing. The Acquiror shall cause the applicable Recipient to pay all amounts for such Pass-Through Charges set forth in such invoice and not disputed pursuant to Section 3.02 via electronic funds transfer (instructions to be separately provided), within thirty (30) days of the Recipient's and Acquiror Contract Manager's receipt of the invoice.

(c) [Reserved].

(d) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, all consideration paid under this Agreement is exclusive of any sales, transfer, goods or services tax, VAT or similar gross-receipts-based tax (including any such taxes that are required to be withheld, but excluding all other taxes, including taxes based upon or calculated by reference to income, gain or capital) imposed against or on services provided ("Sales Taxes") by a Provider hereunder and such Sales Taxes will be added to the consideration to be paid to a Provider (or the Parent on behalf of the Provider) where applicable. Such Sales Taxes shall be separately stated on the relevant invoice submitted to the Recipient (or the Acquiror on behalf of the Recipient) and in circumstances where VAT is chargeable in respect of any supply made under this Agreement, the Provider shall promptly deliver a valid VAT invoice in respect of such supply to the Recipient (or the Acquiror on behalf of the Recipient). All taxable goods and services for which the Recipient is compensating, or reimbursing, the Provider shall be set out separately from non-taxable goods and services, if practicable. The Recipient (and the Acquiror on behalf of the Recipient) shall be responsible for any such Sales Taxes and to the extent such taxes are payable by a Provider (or the Parent, as the case may be, on behalf of the Provider) to the relevant taxing authority, the Recipient (or the Acquiror on behalf of the Recipient) shall either (i) remit an amount equal to such Sales Taxes to the Provider (or the Parent on behalf of the Provider), and the Provider (or the Parent on behalf of the Provider) shall account for such amounts to the applicable taxing authority, or (ii) provide the Provider (or the Parent on behalf of the Provider) with a certificate or other acceptable proof evidencing an exemption from liability for such Sales Taxes of the relevant Service provided hereunder. In the event the Provider (or the Parent on behalf of the Provider) fails to invoice Sales Taxes on taxable goods or services covered by this Agreement in a timely manner, the Provider (or the Parent on behalf of the Provider) shall notify the Recipient (or the Acquiror on behalf of the Recipient) in a timely manner and the Recipient (or the Acquiror on behalf of the Recipient) shall remit an amount equal to such Sales Taxes (where relevant following the provision of a valid VAT invoice) to the Provider (or the Parent on behalf of the Provider); provided, however, that the Recipient shall not be responsible for the payment of any additions to such Sales Taxes, including penalties and interest imposed due to a failure by the Provider (or the Parent on behalf of the Provider) to account for such Sales Taxes or cause them to be accounted for in a timely manner to the appropriate taxing authority except where such failure was due to the Recipient's breach of any obligation herein. For the avoidance of doubt, except where determined or as required by applicable Law, the Person responsible for remitting the Sales Tax to the Tax Authority shall be determined in accordance with past practice as between such Recipient and Provider. Notwithstanding any other proviso, the Recipient shall not be required in any case to indemnify the Provider for any (x) penalties, interest or additions to tax imposed with respect to a Sales Tax to the extent such amounts are imposed due to a failure by the Provider (or the Parent on behalf of the Provider) to collect, remit or account for any such taxes to a taxing authority timely or timely file any tax return relating to such taxes except where such failure was directly due to the Recipient's breach of any obligation herein or (y) taxes other than Sales Taxes and, to the extent that any tax other than a Sales Tax is required to be withheld or deducted by the Recipient, the Recipient (or the Acquiror on behalf of the Recipient) has the right to withhold or deduct the amount of such tax from any consideration under this Agreement and such amount shall be treated as paid for purposes of this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, the amount required to be remitted by or with respect to Sales Tax shall be reduced by the amount of any such Sales Tax that is recoverable, refundable or creditable to the Provider (or the Parent on behalf of the Provider) or for which the Provider (or the Parent on behalf of the Provider) is reimbursed or held harmless against by another party (other than an indemnity set forth under this Agreement). For the avoidance of doubt, the amount required to be remitted by the Recipient (or the Acquiror on behalf of the Recipient) with respect to VAT for purposes of this Agreement shall not be reduced by reference to any amounts accounted for by or on behalf of the Provider or an Affiliate of the Provider and which are recoverable, refundable or creditable to the Provider or an Affiliate of the Provider as input VAT.

Section 3.02 No Right to Set-Off; Disputed Invoice Amounts. The Acquiror shall pay or cause the applicable Recipient that is its Affiliate to pay to the Parent or the applicable Provider the full amount of undisputed Service Charges, charges for Knowledge Transfer Services, Third-Party Vendor Services, Resumed Services and Migration Services, Pass-Through Charges, other amounts required to be paid on behalf of each Recipient under this Agreement and except as permitted by this Section 3.02 or as otherwise agreed to by the Parties, shall not set-off, counterclaim or otherwise withhold any amount owed or claimed to be owed under this Agreement on account of any obligation owed by or on behalf of a Provider, whether or not such obligation has been finally adjudicated, settled or otherwise agreed upon in writing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the Acquiror or its applicable Recipient disputes any specific amount on an invoice, or the Acquiror reasonably and in good faith determines an amount to compensate a Recipient for a Service Shortfall pursuant to Section 2.11, the Acquiror shall notify the Parent and the applicable Provider in writing and describe in detail the reason for disputing such specific amount or the amount to so compensate Recipient, respectively, and the Acquiror shall have no obligation to pay such amount during the pendency of the dispute with respect to such amount and may withhold any such amount to compensate Recipient. The Parties shall use, and shall cause the respective Recipient and Provider to use, their commercially reasonable efforts to reach an agreement with respect to such amounts. If the respective Recipient and Provider or the employees or their designees at the Parent and the Acquiror responsible for preparing and reviewing the invoices are unable to reach an agreement about any such amounts within ten (10) Business Days after such written notification has been received, the matter shall be rapidly and timely escalated and resolved in accordance with Section 7.09(a)(i) hereof on an expedited basis. Upon resolution of the dispute, including an amount to compensate a Recipient for a Service Shortfall, if any, the Acquiror shall promptly pay, or cause its Affiliate that is the applicable Recipient to promptly pay, the applicable amount, if any, as determined by the process used in Section 7.09(a)(i).

ARTICLE IV

WARRANTIES AND COMPLIANCE

Section 4.01 Disclaimer of Warranties. Except as expressly set forth herein, each Party (on behalf of itself and its Affiliates) acknowledges and agrees that the Services and access to Facilities are provided as-is, that each Party (on behalf of itself and its Affiliates) assumes all risks and liabilities arising from or relating to its use of and reliance upon the Services and access to the Facilities and that each Party (on behalf of itself and its Affiliates) makes no additional representation or warranty with respect thereto. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH HEREIN, EACH PARTY (ON BEHALF OF ITSELF AND ITS AFFILIATES) HEREBY EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ALL REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND CONDITIONS REGARDING THE SERVICES AND THE FACILITIES, WHETHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING ANY REPRESENTATION OR

WARRANTY IN REGARD TO QUALITY, PERFORMANCE, NONINFRINGEMENT, COMMERCIAL UTILITY, MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS OF THE SERVICES AND THE FACILITIES FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

Section 4.02 Compliance with Laws and Regulations. Each Party shall be responsible for its own compliance with any and all Laws applicable to its performance under this Agreement.

Section 4.03 Foreign Corrupt Practices Act. In connection with the provision of any Service or access to any Facility pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the Parent shall, and shall cause any Provider directly or indirectly to, comply with the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (the "FCPA"), including maintaining adequate internal controls as required by the FCPA and complying with the record-keeping provisions of the FCPA.

ARTICLE V

LIMITED LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

Section 5.01 Indemnification.

(a) The Parent, on behalf of itself, its Affiliates and any other Person that provides Services or access to Facilities on their behalf to a Recipient under this Agreement, shall indemnify the Acquiror, its Affiliates and their Representatives against, and defend and hold the Acquiror, its Affiliates and their Representatives (the "Acquiror Indemnified Parties") harmless from, any and all Losses arising from third-party claims imposed on, sustained, incurred or suffered by, or asserted against any Acquiror Indemnified Party arising from or resulting out of any of the following: (i) any breach or non-fulfillment by the Parent, its Affiliates or other Person that provides Services or access to Facilities on their behalf to a Recipient under this Agreement of any covenants, terms or conditions of, or duties or obligations set forth in, this Agreement; (ii) infringement, misappropriation or other violation of or conflict with any Intellectual Property right of any third party claimed or threatened against the Acquiror, its Affiliates or their Representatives resulting from the Parent's, its Affiliates' or such other Person's provision or the Acquiror's or its Affiliates' receipt of Services or access to Facilities hereunder; and (iii) the Parent's or its Affiliates' or such other Person's fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct; provided, in the case of each of clauses (i)-(iii) of this Section 5.01(a) that the Parent shall have no obligation to indemnify any Acquiror Indemnified Party to the extent that such Loss results from any claim for which any Parent Indemnified Party (defined below) is entitled to indemnification under Section 5.01(b).

(b) The Acquiror, on behalf of itself, its Affiliates shall indemnify the Parent, its Affiliates and their Representatives against, and defend and hold the Parent, its Affiliates and their Representatives (the "Parent Indemnified Parties") harmless from, any and all Losses arising from third-party claims imposed on, sustained, incurred or suffered by, or asserted against any Parent Indemnified Party arising from or resulting out of any of the following: (i) any breach or nonfulfillment by the Acquiror or its Affiliates of any covenants, terms or conditions of, or duties or obligations set forth in, this Agreement; and (ii) the Acquiror's or its Affiliates' fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct; provided, in the case of each of clauses (i)-(ii) of this Section 5.01(b) that Acquiror shall have no obligation to indemnify any Parent Indemnified Party to the extent that such Loss results from any claim for which any Acquiror Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification under Section 5.01(a).

Section 5.02 Additional Limitations on Liability.

(a) NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY CONTAINED HEREIN, NO PARTY, NOR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES OR ITS OR THEIR REPRESENTATIVES (NOR ANY SUCCESSORS OR ASSIGNS OF SUCH PERSONS) SHALL BE LIABLE FOR ANY INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, INDIRECT, EXEMPLARY, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING LOSS OF PROFIT OR LOSS OF REVENUE) OF THE OTHER PARTY, ITS SUCCESSORS, ASSIGNS OR THEIR RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES AND REPRESENTATIVES, IN ANY WAY DUE TO, RESULTING FROM OR ARISING IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER SUCH LIABILITY ARISES IN TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), CONTRACT, BREACH OF WARRANTY, STRICT LIABILITY, OR OTHERWISE AND REGARDLESS OF WHETHER ANY SUCH DAMAGES ARE FORESEEABLE OR WHETHER AN INDEMNIFIED PERSON HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH LOSSES, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT SUCH DAMAGES (I) ARE AWARDED TO AN UNAFFILIATED THIRD PARTY AND ARE SUBJECT TO A CLAIM FOR INDEMNITY HEREUNDER PURSUANT TO SECTION 5.01 OR (II) ARISE OUT OF SUCH PARTY'S, OR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATE'S, GROSS NEGLIGENCE, WILLFUL MISCONDUCT OR BREACH OF SECTION 7.01.

(b) The liability of a Party with respect to a Service or access to a Facility provided pursuant to this Agreement or anything done in connection therewith, whether in contract, tort or otherwise, shall not exceed $35,000,000 except with respect to (A) third-party claims that are the subject of an indemnity hereunder with respect to a Party's negligence resulting in death or personal injury; or (B) a Party's fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(c) Each Party indemnified hereunder agrees that it shall use commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate and otherwise minimize its respective Losses, whether direct or indirect, due to, resulting from or arising in connection with any failure by the other Party, its Affiliates or another Person that provides Services or access to Facilities on behalf of such other Party, as applicable, to perform fully any obligations under, and comply with, this Agreement.

(d) Any claim for indemnification by a Person entitled to indemnification hereunder must be made in writing to the Parent or the Acquiror, as applicable, before the day that is the twenty-one (21) month anniversary of the date the Service or the access to the Facility giving rise to such claim was terminated.

Section 5.03 Procedures. The provisions of Sections 10.04 and 10.05 of the Purchase Agreement shall govern indemnification procedures and payment under this Article V.

Section 5.04 Exclusive Remedy. Each Party acknowledges and agrees that, following the Closing, other than (a) in the case of actual fraud by the Acquiror or the Parent or any of their respective Affiliates or Representatives, (b) as expressly set forth in this Agreement and (c) with respect to equitable relief available hereunder including Section 7.09(b), the indemnification provisions of this Article V shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Parent and the Acquiror, respectively, for any third-party claims arising from or related to this Agreement. Any first-party claims arising from or related to this Agreement, whether in contract, tort or otherwise, shall be subject to Section 5.02.

ARTICLE VI

TERM AND TERMINATION

Section 6.01 Term and Termination.

(a) Each Scheduled Service and access to each Facility shall be provided for a term (the "Initial Scheduled Term", and together with any extended term as provided in this Section 6.01(a), the "Scheduled Term") commencing on the Closing Date and ending, in each case, unless extended pursuant to this Section 6.01, on the date set forth with respect to such Scheduled Service or such scheduled access to a Facility in Schedule 2.01 (in the case of Services) or Schedule 2.02 (in the case of access to Facilities), respectively, or such shorter term if earlier terminated pursuant to the terms of this Agreement; provided, that, notwithstanding any date on such Schedule, the Initial Scheduled Term of any Service provided by American International Group K.K. shall be twelve (12) months. Upon the provision of written notice to the applicable service manager and the Contract Manager, Recipient may (i) with at least ninety (90) days' (and forty-five (45) for any Service for which the Initial Scheduled Term is three (3) months) written notice prior to the end of the Initial Scheduled Term, extend any Initial Scheduled Term for an extended term commencing from the last day of the Initial Scheduled Term for a number of months up to and including the end of the eighteenth (18th) month after the Closing Date (the "First Extended Term"), with no increase in the Service Charge for such Scheduled Service or access to Facility during such First Extended Term, (ii) with at least forty-five (45) days' written notice prior to the end of the First Extended Term, extend such First Extended Term for an additional three (3) month term (the "Second Extended Term") with the Service Charge for such Scheduled Service or scheduled access to a Facility increasing by ten percent (10%) from and after the date that is the last day of the eighteenth (18th) month after the Closing Date, and (iii) with at least forty-five (45) days' written notice prior to the end of the Second Extended Term, extend the Second Extended Term for an additional three (3) month term (“Third Extended Term”), with the Service Charge for such Scheduled Service or scheduled access to a Facility during the Third Extended Term increasing by another ten percent (10%) over the Service Charge charged during the Second Extended Term (for a cumulative increase of twenty percent (20%)) from and after the date that is last day of the twenty-first (21st) month after the Closing Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for any Service for which the Initial Scheduled Term is either three (3) or six (6) months, the First Extended Term may not extend beyond the end of the twelfth (12th) month after the Closing Date and no further extensions are permitted thereafter. Any Additional Service or access to an Additional Facility shall terminate upon the date (the “Initial Additional Service Term”) that is the earlier of (i) the twelve (12) month anniversary of the Closing Date or (ii) such date as shall be mutually agreed to in writing by the Parties on the Schedule reflecting such Additional Service or access to an Additional Facility; provided, that, except as otherwise agreed on such Schedule, the Initial Additional Service Term may be extended in the same manner and subject to the same conditions, including increases in Service Charges, as set forth in this Section 6.01(a) with respect to Scheduled Services; provided, further, that the sum of the Initial Additional Service Term and such Extended Additional Service term shall not exceed twenty-four (24) months total. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision herein to the contrary, to the extent either Party’s (X) failure to complete Migration or Knowledge Transfer Services in accordance with the time frames agreed to by the Parties and the standards set forth herein or (Y) failure to provide a Scheduled Service or scheduled access to a Facility in accordance with the standards set forth herein prohibit or materially diminishes the ability of a Recipient to terminate a Service or access to a Facility during the Initial Scheduled Term, Initial Additional Service Term, or any extension of such initial terms (the “Agreed Terms”), as applicable, such Agreed Term, as well as the term for any related Migration Services, Knowledge Transfer Services and Third Party Vendor Services shall be extended, without penalty to the Recipient, for a reasonable amount of time, to be agreed to by the Parties, to enable the Recipient to terminate such Service or access to a Facility. If the Parties are unable to agree upon the length of such extension, the dispute shall be rapidly and timely escalated and resolved in accordance with Section 7.09(a)(i) on an expedited basis.

(b) Notwithstanding the term for providing any Service or access to any Facility as set forth in Schedule 2.01 or Schedule 2.02, respectively, (i) a Service or access to a Facility may be terminated earlier by the Parent if the Acquiror has failed to pay Service Charges due and owing to the Parent or its Affiliate that is a Provider (unless the Acquiror or Recipient is disputing an invoice pursuant to Section 3.02) related to such Service or access to such Facility and the Acquiror fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) days of the Parent delivering a written notice of such breach to the Acquiror in accordance with Section 7.03(b); (ii) a Service or access to a Facility may be terminated earlier by the Acquiror if the Parent is in material breach of the terms of this Agreement related to such Service or access to such Facility and the Parent fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) days of the Acquiror delivering a written notice of such breach to the Parent in accordance with Section 7.03(b); (iii) the Acquiror may terminate this Agreement if the Parent commences a voluntary case or other proceeding seeking liquidation, reorganization or other relief with respect to itself or its debts under any bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law now or hereafter in effect or seeking the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator, custodian or other similar official of it or any substantial part of its property, or shall consent to any such relief or to the appointment of or taking possession by any such official in an involuntary case or other proceeding commenced against it, or shall make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or shall take any corporate action to authorize any of the foregoing; and (iv) the Parent may terminate this Agreement if the Acquiror or all of the Acquiror Entities commence a voluntary case or other proceeding seeking liquidation, reorganization or other relief with respect to itself or its debts under any bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law now or hereafter in effect or seeking the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator, custodian or other similar official of it or any substantial part of its property, or shall consent to any such relief or to the appointment of or taking possession by any such official in an involuntary case or other proceeding commenced against it, or shall make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or shall take any corporate action to authorize any of the foregoing.

(c) With respect to any Service or access to any Facility:

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Schedule, a Recipient may terminate such Service or access to such Facility (A) upon mutual agreement of the parties or (B) for any reason or no reason upon providing at least ninety (90) days’ prior written notice to the applicable service manager and the Contract Manager of the Provider of such Service or access to such Facility and with no obligation to pay any applicable termination charges pursuant to Section 6.02 or otherwise, provided, however, that as to any termination pursuant to this clause (B), (1) Services that are collectively priced may only be terminated as a whole and may not be terminated individually; and (2) a Recipient may not, during the Initial Scheduled Term, terminate on ninety (90) days' prior notice such Service or access to such Facility, if, in accordance with the applicable Schedule, it is provided by American International Group, K.K.. Nothing in this Section 6.01(c)(i) affects Recipient's right and ability to reduce, at any time and for any reason, usage of any Service for which the Service Charges are usage-based (e.g., email boxes) and that any such reduction shall result in an immediate proportionate usage-based reduction in the Service Charges for such Service;

(ii) a Provider may terminate such Service or access to such Facility, in whole but not in part with respect to such Service or access to such Facility: within ten (10) days after receipt by the Recipient of such Service or access to such Facility of written notice to the applicable service manager and the Contract Manager, if the continued performance of such Service or the provision of access to such Facility would be a violation of any Law; provided, that during the ten (10) days following such notification, the Contract Managers shall discuss in good faith how to provide such Service or access to such Facility or an equivalent service or equivalent access to a facility, equipment or software without a violation of Law pursuant to Section 2.12(c).

If a Service or access to a Facility is terminated, the relevant Schedule, if applicable, shall be updated to reflect such termination. In the event that the effective date of the termination of any Service or access to any Facility is a day other than at the end of a month, the Service Charge, charges for Knowledge Transfer Services, Third-Party Vendor Services, Additional Services, Resumed Services and Migration Services, the Pass-Through Charges and other amounts due to a Provider associated with such Service or access to such Facility shall be pro-rated appropriately. Within ten (10) Business Days following receipt of a notice of termination in accordance with Section 6.01(c)(i), Provider shall send to the applicable service manager and the Contract Manager for Recipient a written notice that either (X) states that the Service or access to Facilities for which termination is requested has no dependencies and can be terminated on the requested date or (Y) to the extent that a Provider's ability to provide a Service or access to a Facility, as the case may be, is dependent on the continuation of another Service or access to another Facility that the Recipient seeks to terminate, describes any such dependency to such Recipient, in which case the Service or access to a Facility sought to be terminated shall not terminate and the Parties shall work in good faith to determine how and when such Service or access to such Facility can be terminated.

(d) Each Recipient may from time to time request a reduction in part of the scope or amount of any Service or access to any Facility or the partial termination thereof by providing at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the applicable service manager and Contract Manager for the Provider of such Service in access to such Facility, in which case the Parties shall cause the applicable Provider and Recipient to discuss the feasibility of such a reduction or partial termination in good faith and the appropriate reductions in scope or amount to the relevant Service Charges or other applicable charges in light of all relevant factors, including the costs and benefits to the Provider of any such reductions. If the Recipient and the applicable Provider agree on the terms of such reduction or partial termination, which terms shall be in writing and approved by the Contract Managers, then the relevant Schedule, if applicable, shall be updated to reflect any such reduced Service or access to such Facility and the Provider shall provide the reduced or partially terminated Service or access to Facility in accordance with the agreed-to terms.

Section 6.02 Termination Charges. Upon the early termination of any Additional Service or Additional Facility pursuant to Section 6.01(c)(i), the Recipient shall reimburse the Provider the amount of fifty percent (50%) of all "kill" fees and other similar fees actually paid by the Provider or any of its Affiliates to unaffiliated third parties that were engaged solely in order to provide such Additional Service or Additional Facility, which fees were incurred in connection with the early termination of the Additional Service or Additional Facility and to the extent such "kill" fees and similar fees would not have been incurred had Recipient continued to receive the applicable Additional Service or Additional Facility for the originally contemplated Additional Service Term thereof, as the case may be. Each Provider shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the existence and amount of such early termination charges, "kill" fees and similar fees. All termination charges, "kill" fees and similar fees due and payable under this Section 6.02 shall be due and payable to the Provider in accordance with Article III.

Section 6.03 Effect of Termination.

(a) Upon termination of any Service or access to any Facility in accordance with this Agreement and subject to Section 6.02, the Provider of such terminated Services or such terminated access to the applicable Facility will have no further obligation to provide such terminated Service or such terminated access to the applicable Facility, and the Recipient of such terminated Services or such terminated access to the applicable Facility shall have no obligation to pay any Service Charges, charges for Knowledge Transfer Services, Third-Party Vendor Services, Additional Services, Resumed Services and Migration Services, Pass-Through Charges and other amounts relating to any such terminated Service or such terminated access to the applicable Facility; provided, that the Recipient of such terminated Services or such terminated access to the applicable Facility shall remain obligated to the Provider for any Service Charges, charges for Knowledge Transfer Services, Third-Party Vendor Services, Additional Services, Resumed Services and Migration Services, Pass-Through Charges and other amounts owed and payable in respect of such terminated Service or such terminated access to the applicable Facility that was provided prior to the effective date of termination. Any and all rights to Intellectual Property granted to a Recipient and/or Provider hereunder in connection with the provision of a terminated Service or terminated access to the applicable Facility shall immediately cease upon such termination, except to the extent such Intellectual Property is needed for such Recipient to fulfill its obligations under, or obtain the benefits under, this Agreement or the other Transaction Agreements. In connection with the termination of any Service or access to any Facility, the provisions of this Agreement not relating solely to such terminated Service or such terminated access to the applicable Facility shall survive any such termination.

(b) As promptly as practicable upon termination of this Agreement, or, if applicable, upon earlier termination of any particular Service or access to a Facility (i) each Party will deliver, or will cause to be delivered to the other Party, all materials and property in its possession or control (or the possession or control of an Affiliate) which is owned by or licensed to such other Party or its Affiliates (including any Work Product owned by such Party or its Affiliates in whatever state of completion as well as any data and Confidential Information owned, licensed or leased by such Party), and (ii) the Parties shall make a good faith effort to delete from their Systems (and use commercially reasonable efforts to cause Providers that are not Affiliates to delete from their Systems) all Work Product, data and Confidential Information owned, licensed or leased by the other Party or its Affiliates that are no longer needed for the Party to fulfill its obligations under, or obtain the benefits under, this Agreement or the other Transaction Agreements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall require either Party to delete any Confidential Information data or Work Product from any back-up or disaster recovery media; provided, that such Work Product data and Confidential Information is not accessed or used for any purpose other than restoration of information and data of such Party commingled with such Work Product and Confidential Information; provided, further, that such back-up or disaster recovery media is securely disposed of or recycled in accordance with the Party's policies and practices, which in all cases shall be commercially reasonable and meet industry standards.

(c) In the event that Provider or its Affiliates have purchased any resources in the name of or on behalf of Recipient or its Affiliates and has fully charged such purchase as a Pass-Through Charge or if Provider has licensed any resources solely in connection with the provision of Services or access to Facilities for Recipient or its Affiliates and fully charged such license as a Pass-Through Charge (each, an "Acquired Resource"), then upon payment of such Pass-Through Charge, Provider shall: (i) transfer to Recipient all right, title and interest that Provider holds in such Acquired Resource and (ii) deliver such Acquired Resource to such Recipient at no additional charge, except for any charges incurred by Provider in transferring the Acquired Resource, which shall be paid by the Recipient, upon the termination of the last Service or termination of access to the last Facility hereunder for which such Acquired Resource is necessary; provided, however, that for any Acquired Resource that is a license for Intellectual Property, the Provider shall be obligated to transfer and deliver such Acquired Resource to the Recipient only if it has licensed such Acquired Resource in the name of or on behalf of Recipient or its Affiliates. Provider agrees to exercise its commercially reasonable efforts to license any such Acquired Resource in the name of or on behalf of Recipient or its Affiliates and, in the event it is unable to do so or reasonably believes it will not be able to do so, it shall so notify the Recipient in writing prior to acquiring or attempting to acquire such license and the Provider and the Recipient shall discuss in good faith commercially reasonable alternatives that could be licensed in the name of or on behalf of the Recipient; provided, however, that if the Provider and the Recipient do not agree to a commercially reasonable alternative within fifteen (15) days of commencement of such good faith discussions, the Recipient shall provide written notice to the Provider that either (X) states that Provider may license such Acquired Resource in the name of Provider or (Y) provides notice, under Section 6.01(c)(i), of termination of the Service for which the Intellectual Property is required. The Provider shall not be liable for any delay in the provision of a Service or access to Facility that occurs during the fifteen (15)-day discussion period between the Parties solely to the extent that such delay is caused by the inability to obtain the Acquired Resource in the name of Recipient. Each Party shall from time to time, and shall cause its Affiliates to, execute any documents and take any other actions reasonably requested by the other Party to effectuate the intent of this Section 6.03(c), and the Recipient shall reimburse such Provider or its Affiliates their Agreed Price related to such actions.

(d) In connection with the termination of this Agreement, Article I, Article V, Article VII, Section 2.20, Section 6.02, this Section 6.03 and Section 6.04, and liability for all due and unpaid Service Charges, charges for Knowledge Transfer Services, Third-Party Vendor Services, Additional Services, Resumed Services and Migration Services, Pass-Through Charges and other amounts required by this Agreement shall continue to survive indefinitely.

Section 6.04 Force Majeure.

(a) No Party (or any Person acting on its behalf) shall have any liability or responsibility for any interruption, delay or other failure to fulfill any obligation (other than a payment obligation) under this Agreement so long as and to the extent to which the fulfillment of such obligation is prevented, frustrated, hindered or delayed as a consequence of circumstances of a Force Majeure, provided, that such Party (or such Person) shall have exercised commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the effect of a Force Majeure on its obligations, including, if applicable, implementing its disaster recovery and/or business continuity plans. In the event of an occurrence of a Force Majeure, the Party whose performance is affected thereby shall give notice (orally or in writing) to the applicable service manager and Contract Manager of suspension as soon as reasonably practicable to the other stating the date and extent of such suspension and the cause thereof, and such non-performing Party shall resume the performance of such obligations as soon as reasonably practicable upon the cessation of such Force Majeure and its effects.

(b) During the period of a Force Majeure affecting the Provider, the Recipient shall be entitled to seek an alternative service provider with respect to the Services affected or access to the Facilities affected and the Provider and the Recipient will split equally the incremental cost increase for any such alternative service provider. If a Force Majeure shall continue to exist for more than fifteen (15) consecutive days, the Recipient shall be entitled to permanently terminate the Services affected or access to the Facilities affected with no termination charges due pursuant to Section 6.02 or otherwise in connection with such termination. The Recipient shall be relieved of the obligation to pay any Service Charges, charges for Knowledge Transfer Services, Third-Party Vendor Services, Additional Services and Resumed Services, Migration Services Charges, Pass-Through Charges and other amounts for the provision of the affected Services or access to the affected Facilities throughout the duration of such Force Majeure.

ARTICLE VII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 7.01 Treatment of Confidential Information.

(a) Each Party shall, and shall cause other Persons under its Control (including Affiliates and Representatives) that are providing or receiving Services or access to Facilities or that otherwise have access to information of the other Party that is confidential or proprietary, including Personally Identifiable Information and Work Product ("Confidential Information") to, maintain in confidence and not use, exploit or disclose to any other Person, except for purposes of this Agreement, any Confidential Information of the other Party that after the Closing is provided or that becomes known or available pursuant to or as a result of the carrying out of the provisions of this Agreement; provided, however, that each Party may disclose (subject to applicable Law) Confidential Information of the other Party to Providers and Recipients and their respective Representatives, in each case who (x) require such information in order to perform their duties in connection with this Agreement and (y) have agreed to maintain the confidentiality of such information consistent with the terms hereof; and provided, further, that each Party may disclose (subject to applicable Law) Confidential Information of the other Party (other than Personally Identifiable Information) if (i) any such Confidential Information is or becomes generally available to the public other than (A) in the case of the Acquiror, as a result of disclosure by the Parent or its Affiliates or any of their respective Representatives and (B) in the case of the Parent, as a result of disclosure by the Acquiror, any Acquiror Entity (after the Closing Date) or any of their respective Affiliates or any of their respective Representatives, (ii) any such Confidential Information (including any report, statement, testimony or other submission to a Governmental Authority) is required by professional standard, applicable Law, Governmental Order, regulation, legal process (including, without limitation, by deposition, interrogatory, request for documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar process) or such Governmental Authority to be disclosed, after prior notice in accordance with Section 7.03(b) has been given to the other Party to the extent such notice is permitted by applicable Law, provided, that no such notice is required if prohibited by applicable Law, (iii) any such Confidential Information was or becomes available to such Party on a non-confidential basis and from a source (other than a Party to this Agreement or any Affiliate or Representative of such Party) that is not known to be subject to a contractual, legal, fiduciary or other obligation of confidentiality with respect to such information or (iv) any such Confidential Information is independently developed after the Closing without reference information that is to be kept confidential under this Article VII.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Parties acknowledge and agree that the Parent and its Affiliates and their respective Representatives may, without notifying Acquiror or any other person, share any information relating to or obtained from the Acquiror and its Affiliates (including the Acquiror Entities) with (i) the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and its Representatives, subject to the terms and conditions of the Nondisclosure Agreement dated September 25, 2008 between the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and the Parent (the "FRBNY NDA"), (ii) the U.S. Department of the Treasury and its Representatives and (iii) the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and its Representatives ((i), (ii) and (iii) collectively, the "Government Recipients"), in each case as the Parent deems may be reasonably necessary or advisable in its good faith judgment; provided, that the Parent shall, to the extent permitted under applicable law, request confidential treatment of any of information (the "Acquiror Confidential Information") relating to or obtained from the Acquiror and its Affiliates (including the Acquiror Entities) which is Confidential Information and the Parent shall exercise its reasonable best efforts to enforce the FRBNY NDA with respect to any Acquiror Confidential Information that the Parent may disclose to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York; provided, further, that this provision shall not apply to any information regarding Taxes or any matter relating to Taxes, other than with respect to the tax treatment or tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The Parent shall promptly notify Acquiror in the event the Parent learns that any Government Recipient has been requested or required to disclose any Acquiror Confidential Information or has taken any action that, if taken by the Parent, would be deemed a breach of this Section 7.01.

(i) Each Party shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, (A) comply with any applicable Laws (including Privacy Laws), its respective internal policies and any commitments in writing in its respective privacy policies, agreements with or notices to its applicable past, present or prospective customers, claimants, beneficiaries, employees or agents, or with respect to privacy or data security relative to Personally Identifiable Information (including with respect to its applicable past, present or prospective customers, claimants, beneficiaries, employees or agents), including its use and transfer; (B) when acting as a Data Processor, only process Personally Identifiable Information in accordance with the instructions of the other Party and the applicable Recipient acting as Controller; (C) take appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect Personally Identifiable Information against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alteration or Processing; and (D) implement and maintain adequate administrative, technical and physical safeguards and measures in conformity with commercial standards, including a written information security program to protect the security and confidentiality of such Personally Identifiable Information in compliance with all applicable Privacy Laws and other applicable Laws. At Acquiror's request, the Parent shall, or shall cause the Provider to, certify in writing to Acquiror its compliance with the terms of this Section 7.01(b) (i).

(ii) The Parties shall cooperate to obtain all such consents, registrations and notifications as may be required to enable the applicable Providers to Process the Personally Identifiable Information to the extent necessary to provide the Services or access to Facilities hereunder.

(iii) Upon or at any time after the termination of a Service or access to a Facility or upon the written request of a Recipient that has provided Personally Identifiable Information to a Provider, such Provider shall return to such Recipient any Personally Identifiable Information in the Provider's possession in connection with the provision of the terminated Service or access to a Facility as requested by Recipient, except to the extent that the Provider is required to retain such Personally Identifiable Information in accordance with applicable Laws (including Privacy Laws) or Provider's own data retention policies.

Section 7.02 Security Incidents.

(a) In the event that either Party discovers (i) any material breach of its security safeguards or measures or the Systems used to provide the Services or access to Facilities including any incidents that are the subject of Section 2.18(g) or (ii) any breach or threatened breach of its security safeguards or measures that involves or may reasonably be expected to involve unauthorized access, disclosure or use of the other Party's Confidential Information, including Personally Identifiable Information (each of (i) and (ii), a "Security Incident"), such Party shall, at its cost, (X) promptly (both orally, if practicable, and in any event in writing), but in no event later than two (2) Business Days, notify the other Party of said Security Incident and (Y) fully cooperate with the other Party (I) to take commercially reasonable measures necessary to control and contain the security of such Personally Identifiable Information, (II) to remedy any such Security Incident, including using commercially reasonable best efforts to identify and address any root causes for such Security Incident, (III) to furnish full details of the Security Incident to and keep such other Party advised of all material measures taken and other developments with respect to such Security Incident and (IV) in any litigation or formal action with third parties or in connection with any regulatory, investigatory or other action of any Governmental Authority.

(b) Each Provider shall take all reasonable and appropriate steps, in consultation with the applicable Recipient, to protect Systems and Confidential Information and to remediate unauthorized access to, disclosure of or use of any Systems or Confidential Information arising from a Security Incident or otherwise. Recipient shall pay all costs associated with any modifications made to protect such Systems and Confidential Information that have been requested by Recipient, other than those implemented to remediate a Security Incident, which shall be at the sole cost of the Provider that experienced the Security Incident.

(c) Subject to requirements of applicable Law (including Privacy Laws), the Party whose Personally Identifiable Information is subject to a Security Incident shall have the exclusive right, to provide notice of any Security Incident as applicable and as determined by such Party to its past, present or prospective customers, claimants, beneficiaries, employees or agents or any other individuals whose Personally Identifiable Information was subject to the Security Incident, and any law enforcement authority, Governmental Authority, consumer reporting agencies or others, as required by applicable Law, at the sole cost of the Provider that experienced the Security Incident; provided, that if requirements of applicable Law (including Privacy Laws) prohibit the Party whose core information is subject to the Security Incident from having the exclusive right to provide such notice, the Parties shall cooperate to the fullest extent permitted by requirements of applicable Law (including Privacy Laws) to provide a mutually acceptable notice; provided, further, Acquiror reserves the right to provide notice and make such disclosures (including of any computer file or electronic mail messages) without prior notice to any individuals who may have written, sent or received such file or message.

(d) Any disputes arising under this Section 7.02 shall be rapidly and timely escalated and resolved in accordance with Section 7.09(a)(i) hereof on an expedited basis.

Section 7.03 Notices. Section 7.04 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced under any Law or as a matter of public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement is not affected in any manner materially adverse to either Party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

Section 7.05 Entire Agreement. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, this Agreement and the other Transaction Agreements constitute the entire agreement of the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, between or on behalf of the Parent and/or its Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Acquiror and/or its Affiliates, on the other hand, with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

Section 7.06 Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assigned, in whole or in part, by operation of law or otherwise without the prior written consent of the Parties; provided, however, that either Party may assign any or all of its rights and obligations under this Agreement to any of its Affiliates so long as such assignment does not release such Party from any liability under this Agreement incurred prior to such assignment. Any attempted assignment in violation of this Section 7.06 shall be void. This Agreement shall be binding upon, shall inure to the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by the Parties and their successors and permitted assigns.

Section 7.07 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Except as set forth in Article V with respect to Indemnified Persons, this Agreement is for the sole benefit of the Parties and their successors and permitted assigns, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person (including any Client Company or any policyholder of the Company or any of the Insurance Subsidiaries) any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement. Any Provider who is an Affiliate or, immediately prior to the Closing, was an Affiliate of either Party, shall be an express third-party beneficiary under this Agreement solely with respect to such Provider's rights and, as such, such Provider may instruct the Parent, and the Parent shall, enforce this Agreement on Provider's behalf as if such Provider were a party hereto.

Section 7.08 Amendment; Waiver. No provision of this Agreement may be amended, supplemented or modified except by a written instrument signed by all the Parties. No provision of this Agreement may be waived except by a written instrument signed by the Party against whom the waiver is to be effective. No failure or delay by any Party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

Section 7.09 Dispute Resolution.

(a) Any dispute, controversy, or claim arising from, relating to, or in connection with this Agreement, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and all claims and defenses arising out of or relating to any such transaction or this Agreement or the formation, breach, termination, or validity thereof (a “Dispute”) shall be resolved as follows: the service managers of the Parties most immediately responsible for the issue giving rise to the Dispute shall seek to resolve such Dispute through informal good faith negotiation. If the Dispute is not resolved at that level of management, then the Dispute shall be escalated to the Parent Contract Manager and the Acquiror Contract Manager for resolution in good faith. In the event such Contract Managers fail to meet or, if they meet, fail to resolve the Dispute within an additional ten (10) Business Days (or such longer time as the Contract Managers may agree), then the claiming Party will provide the other Party with a written “Notice of Dispute”, describing the nature of the Dispute, and the Dispute shall be escalated to the members of senior management at the Acquiror and the Parent set forth in Schedule 7.09(a) for resolution in good faith. In the event such senior executives fail to meet, or if they meet, fail to resolve the Dispute within five (5) Business Days after such Dispute has been escalated to them by the Contract Managers, then the Dispute shall be escalated to the senior administrative executives at the Acquiror and the Parent set forth in Schedule 7.09(a), or their respective designees who shall meet within five (5) Business Days and confer in a good faith effort to resolve the Dispute. If the senior administrative executives, or their respective designees fail to resolve the Dispute within five (5) Business Days, the Parties shall retain all rights under applicable Law and this Agreement with respect to such Dispute. Except as otherwise set forth in Section 7.09(b), the procedures set forth in this Section 7.09(a) must be satisfied as a condition precedent to a Party commencing any legal proceeding, and a Party’s failure to comply with such procedures shall constitute cause for the dismissal without prejudice of any such legal proceeding.

(i) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a Dispute arising under Section 2.03(b), Section 2.11(a), Section 2.12(c), Section 2.18(g), Section 2.24, Section 3.02, Section 6.01(a) or Section 7.02(d), or as otherwise agreed to by the Parties in writing, the Dispute shall be immediately referred to the Contract Managers, who shall have five (5) Business Days to resolve the Dispute (or such shorter time if the Contract Managers agree that they cannot resolve the Dispute) before escalation to the senior executives along with the applicable Notice of Dispute. Thereafter, the procedures and time frames set out beginning in the fourth sentence of Section 7.09(a) shall apply.

(ii) Each Party may replace the designated member of senior management or executive level administrative officer with an employee or officer with comparable knowledge, expertise and decision-making authority from time to time upon written notice to the other Party pursuant to Section 7.03(b). The applicable Party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide at least thirty (30) days’ prior written notice of any such change.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions herein to the contrary, each Party hereby acknowledges that money damages may be an inadequate remedy for a breach or anticipated breach of this Agreement because of the difficulty of ascertaining the amount of damage that will be suffered in the event that this Agreement is breached. Therefore, in the event of a breach or anticipated breach of this Agreement by the other Party or its Affiliates, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, each Party may, in addition to any other remedies available to it, seek an injunction, on written notice to the other Party in accordance with this Section 7.09(b) in a court described in Section 7.10(b) to prohibit such breach or anticipated breach. Each Party acknowledges and agrees that an injunction is a proper, but not exclusive, remedy available to each Party and that the harm from any breach or anticipated breach of the covenants set forth in this Agreement would be irreparable and immediate.

Section 7.10 Governing Law; Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) This Agreement, all transactions contemplated by this Agreement and all claims and defenses arising out of or relating to any such transaction or this Agreement or the formation, breach, termination or validity of this Agreement, shall in all respects be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Laws of the State of New York without giving effect to any conflicts of Law principles of such state that would apply the Laws of another jurisdiction.

(b) Each of the Parent and the Acquiror irrevocably and unconditionally:

(i) submits for itself and its property to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Chancery of the State of Delaware or, if under applicable Law, exclusive jurisdiction is vested in the United States federal courts, the federal courts of the United States located in the State of Delaware in any Action directly or indirectly arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or the formation, breach, termination or validity of this Agreement and agrees that all claims in respect of any such Action shall be heard and determined solely in such courts;

(ii) consents that any such Action may and shall be brought in such courts and waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue or jurisdiction of any such Action in such court or that such court is an inconvenient forum for the Action and agrees not to assert, plead or claim the same;

(iii) agrees that the final judgment of such court shall be enforceable in any court having jurisdiction over the relevant party or any of its assets;

(iv) agrees that service of process in any such Action may be effected by mailing a copy of such process by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to such party at its address as provided in Section 7.03(b); and

(v) agrees that nothing in this Agreement shall affect the right to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by the applicable rules of procedure.

(c) EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY CLAIM OR DEFENSE ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO ANY SUCH TRANSACTION OR THIS AGREEMENT OR THE FORMATION, BREACH, TERMINATION OR VALIDITY OF THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (A) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (B) EACH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (C) EACH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY AND (D) EACH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVER AND CERTIFICATIONS OF THIS SECTION 7.10. EITHER PARTY MAY FILE AN ORIGINAL COUNTERPART OR A COPY OF THIS AGREEMENT WITH ANY COURT AS WRITTEN EVIDENCE OF THE CONSENT OF THE PARTIES TO THE WAIVER OF THEIR RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY.

Section 7.11 Rules of Construction. Interpretation of this Agreement shall be governed by the following rules of construction: (a) words in the singular shall be held to include the plural and vice versa, and words of one gender shall be held to include the other gender as the context requires; (b) references to the terms Preamble, Recital, Article, Section, paragraph and Schedule are references to the Preamble, Recitals, Articles, Sections, paragraphs and Schedules to this Agreement unless otherwise specified; (c) references to "$" shall mean U.S. dollars and references to "¥" shall mean Japanese yen; (d) the word "including" and words of similar import when used in this Agreement shall mean "including without limitation," unless otherwise specified; (e) the word "or" shall not be exclusive; (f) the words "herein," "hereof," "hereunder" or "hereby" and similar terms are to be deemed to refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any specific section; (g) the headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement; (h) this Agreement shall be construed without regard to any presumption or rule requiring construction or interpretation against the Party drafting or causing any instrument to be drafted; (i) if a word or phrase is defined, the other grammatical forms of such word or phrase have a corresponding meaning; (j) references to any statute, listing rule, rule, standard, regulation or other law include a reference to (1) the corresponding rules and regulations and (2) each of them as amended, modified, supplemented, consolidated, replaced or rewritten from time to time; and (k) references to any section of any statute, listing rule, rule, standard, regulation or other law include any successor to such section.

Section 7.12 Obligations of Parties. Each obligation of a Provider under this Agreement to take (or refrain from taking) any action hereunder shall be deemed to include an undertaking, if the Provider is not the Parent or any of its Affiliates, by the Parent to, and to cause such Provider to, take (or refrain from taking) such action. Each obligation of a Recipient or any of its Affiliates under this Agreement to take (or refrain from taking) any action hereunder shall be deemed to include an undertaking, if the Recipient is not the Acquiror or any of its Affiliates, by the Acquiror to, and to cause such Recipient or such Affiliate to, take (or refrain from taking) such action.

Section 7.13 Additional Transition Services Agreements. In the event that a Governmental Authority requires the Parties or the Acquiror Entities to enter into a transition services agreement regarding only the Services or Facilities provided to a Party or an Acquiror Entity or provided by a Party, the Parties shall enter into a separate transition services agreement, substantially in the form of this Agreement, with Schedules describing only those Services and Facilities as the Parties agree in good faith are required by this Agreement to be provided to or by such Party or Acquiror Entity. In such an event, and to the extent possible, the Services or Facilities provided under such an additional transition services agreement shall be removed from the relevant Schedules to this Agreement.

Section 7.14 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and by each Party in separate counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by facsimile or other means of electronic transmission shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.

ARTICLE II. LICENSE.

SECTION 2.1 Grant of License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Parent hereby grants to each Licensee a non-exclusive, royalty-free, non-sublicensable, non-transferable license to use the Licensed Marks within the Territory, during the Term, in connection with all current and future policies, goods and services within the respective business of each Licensee as conducted as of the Effective Date solely: (a) to the extent and in the exact form that the Licensed Marks exist as of the Effective Date and were used by such Licensee prior to the Effective Date in its business, provided, that inadvertent and immaterial departures therefrom shall not be regarded as a material breach of the foregoing license; and (b) for such Licensee's corporate name, if applicable, solely in the exact form used by such Licensee within the eighteen (18) months immediately prior to the Effective Date. For clarity, a Licensee will not be deemed to use a Licensed Mark outside the Territory if such use is on a website owned or controlled by Licensee that is directed towards residents in the Territory, even if such website may be accessed from outside the Territory.

SECTION 2.2 Domain Names. For clarity, any domain names containing the Licensed Marks that are registered in any Licensee's name as of the Effective Date are not included within the definition of "Licensed Marks" in this Agreement, and each Licensee agrees (i) promptly to transfer any of same (including all related records) to Parent for no consideration and (ii) to maintain and renew all such registrations until the time of such transfer. Further, any domain names containing the Licensed Marks that are registered in Parent's name and used by any Licensee as of the Effective Date (as set forth on Exhibit E hereto) (the "Redirected Domains") are not included within the definition of "Licensed Marks" in this Agreement, but Parent agrees that for the six (6)-month period from the Closing Date, it will use the Redirected Domains solely to direct or redirect Internet traffic (a) at Licensee's request, to one or more Internet websites designated and controlled by Acquiror and its Affiliates or (b) if Licensee does not request such redirection, to an inactive web page. Throughout the Term, Parent shall (a) maintain the registrations for each of the domain names "stardirect.jp", "starlife.jp", "starlifedirect.com" and "starlifedirect.jp"; (b) ensure that any Internet traffic to such domain names is directed or redirected to an inactive web page; and (c) use such domain names solely for the purpose of such direction or redirection. To the extent requested by Parent, each Licensee shall reimburse Parent or its designee for all amounts paid by Parent to renew and maintain the foregoing domain names, to the extent that such renewal covers the Term, including any and all portions of renewal fees to the extent covering the Term. Each Licensee shall pay or cause its Subsidiaries to pay such fees in immediately available funds within thirty (30) days of such Licensee's receipt of an invoice therefor from Parent. Parent agrees that after the Term, if Parent continues (in its sole discretion) to maintain or renew any of the above domain names, Parent will use such domain names solely to direct or redirect Internet traffic to an inactive page.

SECTION 2.3 No Modifications. Each Licensee hereby acknowledges and agrees that:

- (a) Licensee shall not use the Licensed Marks other than as specified herein;
- (b) Licensee shall not change, modify, or create any variation of the Licensed Marks; and
- (c) Licensee shall not join any trade, corporate or business names, trademarks, tag-lines, identifying logos, monograms, slogans, service marks, domain names, brand names, trade dress or any other names or source identifiers ("Source Indicators") with the Licensed Marks so as to form a composite or combined Source Indicator.

SECTION 2.4 Limited License. Each Licensee hereby acknowledges and agrees that it has no right, title or interest, express or implied, in and to the Licensed Marks, except as specifically provided herein and subject to the terms and conditions stated in this Agreement. No license, either express or implied, is granted by Parent to Licensees hereunder with respect to any Source Indicator or otherwise, except as specifically stated herein.

ARTICLE III. ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS.

SECTION 3.1 Transition. The Parties acknowledge and agree that it is essential for Licensees to transition from use of the Licensed Marks to use of their own Source Indicators in a timely and expeditious manner after the Effective Date. Thus, the Parties agree as follows:

(a) Each Licensee shall cease use of the Licensed Marks (the "Termination Date") (i) except as provided in (ii), on the earliest of (x) 365 days after the Effective Date, (y) the termination date specified in Section 10.2 or Section 10.3, or (z) the date such Licensee otherwise ceases all use of the Licensed Marks and (ii) in the case of a Licensee that is an Insurance Company, the earlier of (A) the date that is ninety (90) days after such Licensee receives a name change approval from a Governmental Authority or (B) the termination date specified in Section 10.2 or Section 10.3. In furtherance of the foregoing, each Licensee agrees to take all actions set forth on Schedule B within the timeframes set forth therein, which timeframes shall not be deemed to extend the Termination Date. Notwithstanding Section 3.1(a)(i) and (ii), if a Licensee, promptly after the Effective Date, makes all filings and takes all actions required by any applicable governmental authorities to change its name to names not including the Licensed Marks and so long as Licensee diligently prosecutes such filings thereafter, if necessary, Parent shall agree to any request by such Licensee to extend the Termination Date solely until such name change has occurred. Each Licensee shall take all necessary actions, as promptly as practicable after the Effective Date, to cease use of the Licensed Marks and print and use new materials not bearing the Licensed Marks.

(b) Each category of materials that require approval by a Governmental Authority shall be expeditiously assembled, submitted and diligently prosecuted by the Licensees for approval in a timely fashion to allow for such approval as soon as possible after the Effective Date, and in any event within 365 days of the Effective Date. The Licensees shall inform Parent promptly of any Materials that require such approval and any problems encountered or expected to be encountered in receiving required approvals from a Governmental Authority prior to the end of the relevant time frames.

(c) Within fifteen (15) Business Days after the Effective Date, each Licensee shall prepare and distribute a memorandum explaining the trademark requirements under this Agreement (including Schedule C) to all of its employees and shall post such memorandum on all Intranet sites directed at its employees within fifteen Business Days after such Intranet sites commence operation.

(d) As soon as reasonably practicable, but in no event more than thirty Business Days after the Effective Date, each Licensee shall prepare and distribute a notice to its agents and subcontractors involved in the production and distribution of each category of materials explaining the trademark requirements under this Agreement (including Schedule C).

(e) Each Party hereby designates the individual identified below as its initial representative who possesses the necessary knowledge and expertise in the matters referred to in this Section 3.1 and Section 3.2 to oversee the implementation of this Agreement. For Parent the initial representative is [—] (“Parent Representative”) and for each Licensee the initial representative is [—]. Each Party may replace such designated person by providing notice of such replacement in accordance with Section 11.2 so long as such replacement possesses the necessary knowledge and expertise.

SECTION 3.2 Destruction of Materials. Without limiting Section 3.1(a), as and when Licensee no longer uses a Licensed Mark, but no later than promptly after the Termination Date as may be extended pursuant to Section 3.1(a), each Licensee shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to destroy or exhaust all materials (including signage, advertising, promotional materials, software, packaging, inventory, electronic materials, website content, collateral goods, business cards, invoices, receipts, forms, product, training and service literature and materials and other materials) in its possession or control bearing the Licensed Marks (“Materials”), except to the extent any such Materials must be retained to comply with applicable Laws or a Licensee’s reasonable document retention policies.

SECTION 3.3 Certification of Destruction. As soon as is reasonably practicable after the Termination Date, each Licensee shall send a written statement to Parent verifying that it has complied with its obligations in Section 3.2.

SECTION 3.4 Obligation to Cease Use of the Mark. Each Licensee acknowledges that any prior rights it had to use any of the Licensed Marks pursuant to any written or oral contract, agreement, license, sublicense or other instrument executed or in effect prior to the Effective Date were terminated, effective as of the Effective Date, pursuant to Section 5.07 of the Purchase Agreement, and that it has no right to use any of the Licensed Marks after the Effective Date, except expressly subject to this Agreement. Each Licensee shall take all necessary actions to ensure that it ceases use of the Licensed Marks by the Termination Date.

SECTION 3.5 Representation in the Marketplace. Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, each Licensee agrees that after the Effective Date it will not expressly, or by implication, do business as or represent itself as Parent or one of its Affiliates, and shall use all reasonable efforts to ensure that there is no confusion that it is no longer affiliated with Parent or its Affiliates and/or, if any such confusion occurs, to promptly remediate same.

ARTICLE IV. QUALITY STANDARDS.

SECTION 4.1 Quality Control and Standards. Parent shall have the right to exercise quality control over the use of the Licensed Marks by each Licensee to the degree reasonably necessary or desirable, in the sole opinion of Parent, to maintain the validity and enforceability of the Licensed Marks, to protect the goodwill associated therewith. In furtherance of the foregoing, during the Term Parent may establish and amend (a) quality standards and specifications for the goods and services offered or provided by Licensees and (b) the “Graphics Standards” for the use of the Licensed Marks, which are attached hereto as Schedule C, and in each case, communicate them to the Licensees (subsections (a) and (b), together, the “Quality Standards”). Each Licensee acknowledges and agrees that it must comply with the Quality Standards, which will be, at a minimum, set at a level of quality equal to the standards of quality associated with the Licensed Marks as conducted prior to the Effective Date. Each Licensee agrees to (x) comply with all applicable Laws in using the Licensed Marks, and (y) identify to Parent the actual legal entities providing the products or services in question whenever Materials bearing the Licensed Marks are distributed to the public, published or otherwise disseminated.

SECTION 4.2 Samples. Beginning on the Effective Date, each Licensee shall submit to Parent Representative samples of all publicly-distributed Materials using the Licensed Marks 15 Business Days prior to their initial distribution if (i) such Materials materially differ in their visual presentation of the Licensed Marks from Materials previously distributed by such Licensee prior to the Effective Date or approved by Parent before or after the Effective Date or (ii) such Licensee has any question whether its use of the Licensed Marks on such Materials complies with its obligations hereunder. In the event that Parent reasonably finds that such Materials deviate from the Quality Standards or do not comply with any other terms and conditions of this Agreement, or that, in the reasonable opinion of Parent, such publicly-distributed Materials misuse the Licensed Marks or misrepresent the relationship between Parent and Licensee, Licensee shall, upon notice from Parent, at Parent’s option either (a) promptly (or immediately in the case of (1) any misrepresentation of the relationship between Parent and Licensee, or (2) material deviation from the Quality Standards) take all necessary actions to correct the deviations or misrepresentations in, or misuse of, the respective items prior to any dissemination to the public, and provide Parent with representative samples of the correction, or (b) as soon as practicable (or immediately in the case of (1) any misrepresentation of the relationship between Parent and Licensee, or (2) material deviation from the Quality Standards) cease dissemination of such Materials. If Licensee fails to take such steps and nevertheless distributes such Materials, and such distribution is likely to result in material harm to Parent, Parent shall have the right to terminate this Agreement with respect to such Licensee pursuant to the terms of Section 10.2 hereof.

SECTION 4.3 Record of Use. Each Licensee shall maintain such reasonable records of its use of the Licensed Marks as it maintained prior to the Effective Date to assist Parent in protecting and enforcing them.

SECTION 4.4 Quality Assurance. Each Licensee shall comply with such other reasonable requests as are made by Parent to enable Parent to assure the quality of the relevant business conducted by Licensee and the goods and services offered or provided by Licensee in connection with the Licensed Marks.

ARTICLE V. USE AND OWNERSHIP.

SECTION 5.1 Use of Licensed Marks. Each Licensee shall use the Licensed Marks in accordance with all applicable Laws. Each Licensee shall not use the Licensed Marks in any manner that might dilute, tarnish, disparage, or reflect adversely on Parent or the Licensed Marks.

SECTION 5.2 Ownership of Licensed Marks. Parent or its Affiliate owns and has registered and maintained, in each case, in Japan, all of the Licensed Marks and has not granted an exclusive license for any Licensed Mark in Japan, pursuant to any other agreement. Each Licensee acknowledges that the Licensed Marks and all rights therein and thereto and the goodwill pertaining thereto belong exclusively to Parent. Each Licensee's use of the Licensed Marks and any and all goodwill generated thereby or associated therewith shall inure solely to the benefit of Parent. After the Effective Date, if either Party discovers that any Licensee owns or holds any registrations, applications, reservations or other rights in any Licensed Mark or any other Source Indicator containing the words or terms "AIG" or "American International," it shall promptly notify the other Party, and such Licensee shall promptly transfer same to Parent for no consideration.

SECTION 5.3 No Confusion or Registration. Without limiting the generality of Section 5.2, each Licensee agrees and covenants that it shall not (a) seek to register any Source Indicator that contains a Licensed Mark or is a derivation, translation, adaptation, combination or variation of any Licensed Mark that uses "AIG or American International" or that is otherwise confusingly similar to any of the foregoing (a "Similar Mark"), (b) use a Similar Mark after the Term (or during the Term, except as expressly permitted herein), (c) directly or indirectly contest the ownership, validity or enforceability of, or any rights of Parent or any of its Affiliates in or to, any of the Licensed Marks, or (d) contest the fact that each Licensee's rights under this Agreement are solely those of a non-exclusive licensee and subject to all terms and conditions herein.

SECTION 5.4 Statement. Each Licensee's Materials shall bear all notices and legends required by applicable Law, and that were used by Parent or its Affiliate in the ordinary course of business prior to the Effective Date, and shall indicate in a form reasonably satisfactory to Parent Representative that use of the Licensed Marks is under license from Parent. The legal entity statement set forth in Schedule D shall be satisfactory for purposes of this Section 5.4 for all publicly distributed Materials with reasonable available space to display it or is otherwise reasonably feasible. Any other such statement proposed to be used by each Licensee shall be submitted to Parent Representative for prior written approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Each Licensee shall not use such license and legal entity statement prior to such written approval.

SECTION 5.5 Stuffer Letter. Upon Parent's request, each Licensee shall include a "stuffer letter" with form and content to be reasonably agreed upon between the Parties and in compliance with Section 4.1, with all Materials bearing any of the Licensed Marks disseminated during the Term.

ARTICLE VI. PROTECTION OF LICENSED MARKS; LITIGATION.

SECTION 6.1 Enforcement. During the Term, Parent will have the sole right, but not the obligation, to initiate any opposition, cancellation or Infringement proceedings necessary to enforce the Licensed Marks. Parent shall have the right but not the obligation to include Licensee as a party in any such enforcement proceedings, and Licensee agrees to join in such proceedings, at Parent's expense, as a voluntary plaintiff or claimant, and each Licensee shall cooperate fully with Parent in such proceedings, at Parent's expense. Parent shall have the sole right to control and settle any such proceedings.

SECTION 6.2 Recovery. Any recovery obtained as a result of any action pursuant to Section 6.1 shall be retained by Parent.

ARTICLE VII. ASSIGNMENT.

SECTION 7.1 Assignment. Except as provided herein, neither this Agreement nor any right or obligation hereunder may be directly or indirectly assigned, sublicensed, assumed in bankruptcy, pledged, mortgaged or transferred by any Licensee in whole or in part, to any person or entity (including a bankruptcy trustee), by operation of law or otherwise, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, without Parent's prior written consent in its sole discretion, and any attempt to do so by any Licensee shall be null and void at the outset and shall be a material breach of this Agreement, provided that one or more Licensees may merge with each other without consent and the surviving entity shall continue as a "Licensee" hereunder. For clarity, any change of control, merger or reorganization shall be deemed an "assignment" for purposes of this Section 7.1, regardless of whether a Licensee is the surviving entity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Licensee may assign any of its rights or delegate any of its duties, in whole or in part, to an Affiliate as of the Effective Date, provided that such Licensee shall notify Parent thirty (30) days prior to such assignment.

SECTION 7.2 Binding on Successors and Assigns. In the event of a permitted assignment, this Agreement shall be binding upon, shall inure to the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by the Parties, and their successors and permitted assigns.

ARTICLE VIII. REPRESENTATIONS; WARRANTY DISCLAIMER.

SECTION 8.1 Duly Authorized. Each Party represents and warrants to the other that it has duly authorized, executed and delivered this Agreement, which, subject to the due execution and delivery hereof by the other Parties, constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of such person enforceable against such person in accordance with its terms. Each Party represents and warrants that it has the right and ability to perform the obligations and covenants provided for herein in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

SECTION 8.2 DISCLAIMER. THE LICENSED MARKS ARE LICENSED HEREUNDER "AS IS," AND PARENT EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING THE WARRANTIES OF DESIGN, QUALITY, VALUE, MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, OWNERSHIP, TITLE AND NONINFRINGEMENT OF THE INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES.

ARTICLE IX. INDEMNIFICATION.

SECTION 9.1 Indemnification by Licensees. Each Licensee hereby agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Parent and its Subsidiaries harmless from and against any Losses arising out of any third-Person claim as a result of or in connection with (i) the use of the Licensed Marks other than in accordance with the terms of this Agreement; (ii) the marketing, offering, use, issuance, sale or performance of any materials, policies, goods or services bearing the Licensed Marks or offered in connection with or under the Licensed Marks, except for claims identified in Section 9.2 below; (iii) any breach by such Licensee of this Agreement or any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement herein; or (iv) such Licensee's use of the mark "Star" alone in connection with its business.

SECTION 9.2 Indemnification by Parent.

(a) Parent hereby agrees to indemnify, defend and hold the Licensees harmless from and against any Losses as a result of or in connection with any third-Person claim (i) that Licensees' use of the Licensed Marks in accordance with the terms of this Agreement infringes such third-Person's trademark rights; or (ii) is a result of or in connection with any breach by Parent of this Agreement or any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement herein.

(b) Parent hereby agrees to indemnify, defend and hold the Edison Licensees harmless from and against any Losses as a result of or in connection with any claim against them by General Electric Company to the extent that such claim alleges that the Edison Sublicensees' use of the "Licensed Edison Names and Marks" (as defined in the Edison License) at any time prior to the earlier of (i) the merger of the Edison Sublicensees into an Affiliate of Acquiror or (ii) two (2) years from the Effective Date breaches the Edison License, except to the extent that such use by the Edison Sublicensees is not in compliance with the Edison License. The Edison Sublicensees hereby agree to indemnify, defend and hold Parent and Sellers harmless from and against any Losses as a result of or in connection with any claim by General Electric Company to the extent such claim alleges that the Edison Sublicensees' use of the "Licensed Edison Names and Marks" (as defined in the Edison License) otherwise breaches the Edison License (e.g., by use of the "Licensed Edison Names and Marks" outside the scope of the grant in Section 2.1 therein).

SECTION 9.3 Procedures. An indemnified party under Section 9.1 or Section 9.2 shall promptly notify the indemnifying party in writing in reasonable detail of any potential indemnifiable claim, provided, however, that any failure to provide such notice shall not release the indemnifying party from its obligations except to the extent it is prejudiced thereby. Upon receiving such notice, the indemnifying party may, by notice to the indemnified party within a reasonable time, assume the defense and control of such claim, with its own counsel and at its own expense, but shall allow the indemnified party a reasonable opportunity to participate with its own counsel and at its own expense. The indemnified party may take any actions reasonably necessary to defend such claim prior to receiving such notice. The indemnified party shall cooperate fully with the indemnifying party in its defense. Neither party shall, without the prior written consent of the other party (which shall not be unreasonably withheld), admit liability in, consent to a settlement, compromise or discharge of, or the entry of any judgment arising from any indemnifiable claim that adversely affects the other party in any manner, and the other party will have no liability for any Losses arising out of the first party's violation of the foregoing.

ARTICLE X. TERM AND TERMINATION.

SECTION 10.1 Term. The term of this Agreement (the "Term") shall commence on the Effective Date and shall last until the Termination Date (as defined in Section 3.1(a)).

SECTION 10.2 Termination Upon Breach. This Agreement may be terminated by Parent, with respect to a particular Licensee, effective upon notice, if there shall occur a material breach of this Agreement by such Licensee, and such breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after notice.

SECTION 10.3 Termination Upon Certain Insolvency Events. This Agreement will immediately terminate if: (a) Licensee shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debt generally, or shall make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or any proceeding shall be instituted by or against any Licensee seeking to adjudicate it bankrupt or insolvent, or seeking liquidation, winding up, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, protection, relief, or composition of it or its debts under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization or relief of debtors, or seeking the entry of an order for relief or the appointment of a receiver, trustee, or other similar official for it or for any substantial part of its property, and in the case of any proceeding instituted against any Licensee, such proceeding shall not be stayed or dismissed within 60 days from the date of institution thereof, or (b) any Licensee shall take any corporate action to authorize any of the actions set forth in clause (a) above.

SECTION 10.4 Rights and Remedies. The rights and remedies of Parent set forth in this Article X are in addition to all other rights and remedies available at law or equity.

ARTICLE XI. MISCELLANEOUS.

SECTION 11.1 Survival. Article IX of this Agreement, as well as the provisions of Sections 3.4 (first sentence), 5.2, 5.3, 8.2, 10.4, 11.2, 11.7, 11.8, 11.10 and this Section 11.1, shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason.

SECTION 11.2 Notices. Except for matters that are to be referred to Parent Representative, all notices, requests, claims, demands and other communications under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be given or made (and shall be deemed to have been duly given or made upon receipt) by delivery in person, by overnight courier service, by facsimile with receipt confirmed (followed by delivery of an original via overnight courier service), by e-mail (with confirmation by any of the other methods herein) or by registered or certified mail (postage prepaid, return receipt requested) to the respective parties at the following addresses (or at such other address for a party as shall be specified in a notice given in accordance with this Section 11.2):

SECTION 11.3 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced under any Law or as a matter of public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement is not affected in any manner materially adverse to either Party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

SECTION 11.4 Entire Agreement. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, this Agreement and the Purchase Agreement constitute the entire agreement of the Parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, between or on behalf of Parent, on the one hand, and the Licensees, on the other hand, with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the terms of the Purchase Agreement with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall govern.

SECTION 11.5 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the Parties and their successors and permitted assigns, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement, except that Sellers shall have the right to enforce the provisions of Section 9.1(b) directly against the indemnifying parties therein.

SECTION 11.6 Amendment; Waiver. No provision of this Agreement may be amended, supplemented or modified except by a written instrument signed by all the Parties. No provision of this Agreement may be waived except by a written instrument signed by the Party against whom the waiver is to be effective. No failure or delay by any Party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. The rights and remedies herein provided shall be cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

SECTION 11.7 Governing Law; Submission to Jurisdiction; Waiver of Jury Trial; Injunctive Relief.

(a) This Agreement shall in all respects be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Laws of the State of New York without giving effect to any conflicts of law principles of such state that might refer the governance, construction or interpretation of such agreements to the Laws of another jurisdiction.

(b) Each of the Parent and the Companies irrevocably and unconditionally:

(i) agrees that the other Parties may bring an Action arising out of the interpretation and enforcement of the provisions of this Agreement in (A) the Courts of Chancery of the State of Delaware or, if under applicable Law, jurisdiction is vested in the United States federal courts, any court of the United States located in the State of Delaware, and (B) the courts in Japan;

(ii) acknowledges that money damages are an inadequate remedy for a breach or anticipated breach of this Agreement and the difficulty of quantifying such damages, and that, therefore, in such event, each of the other Party may, in addition to any other remedies available to it, bring an Action in the courts set forth in Section 11.7(b)(i) to obtain a restraining order and/or injunction or other relief to prohibit or remedy such violation, without needing to secure or post bond or other security;

(iii) agrees that service of process in any such Action may be effected by mailing a copy of such process by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to the applicable Parties at the addresses provided in Section 11.2; and

(iv) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT SUCH PERSON MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY ACTION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT.

(c) Notwithstanding the thirty (30)-day remedial period set forth in Section 10.2, if there is a dispute (“Dispute”) as to whether a breach of this Agreement has occurred, such Dispute shall be resolved pursuant to this Section 11.7(c). The non-breaching Party may request discussion and negotiations between senior executives of each Party with the possibility of mediation. In the event that the Parties have not been able to resolve the Dispute to their mutual satisfaction within a period of thirty (30) days, either Party may request in writing (an “Escalation Notice”) that the Dispute be escalated to the chief executive officers of the respective Parties or to such other senior executives of the Parties as their respective chief executive officers may delegate. The Parties and their chief executive officers and other senior executives agree to use good faith efforts to resolve any Dispute pertaining to whether a breach of this Agreement has occurred. If the Dispute is not resolved by the chief executive officers or other senior executives of the respective parties within thirty (30) days following receipt of the Escalation Notice by the non-requesting Party, the Parties may pursue remedies through litigation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Party may immediately seek preliminary or temporary equitable or injunctive relief during the pendency of the foregoing procedures pursuant to Section 11.7(b).

SECTION 11.8 Obligations of Parties. Each obligation of each Licensee under this Agreement to take (or refrain from taking) any action hereunder shall be deemed to include, with respect to any Transferred Subsidiary, an undertaking by its owning Company, to cause such Transferred Subsidiary to take (or refrain from taking) such action.

SECTION 11.9 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by facsimile or other means of electronic transmission shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.

SECTION 11.10 Further Assurances. The Parties agree to take all further actions, execute all further documents and otherwise cooperate in good faith to further the intents and purposes of this Agreement. If either Party discovers an error in a Schedule hereto, it shall notify the other Party, and such Schedule shall be promptly corrected.

SECTION 11.11 Effectiveness. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, this Agreement shall only become effective as of the Closing and shall not become effective if the Closing does not occur.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the Parties has caused this Agreement to be executed by its duly authorized officer, in each case as of the date first written above.

ARTICLE II. LICENSES/COVENANTS.

SECTION 2.1 Licensed Parent IP Grant. Subject to the terms hereof, Parent, on behalf of itself and each of its Subsidiaries as of the Effective Date (which, for clarity, shall exclude the Company Parties and any former Affiliates of Parent) (the “Parent Parties”), hereby grants to the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries (together, the “Company Parties”) a perpetual, irrevocable, royalty-free, fully paid-up, non-exclusive, non-transferable (except as set forth in Section 6.1) right and license under any Intellectual Property that (i)(a) is owned by any Parent Party as of the Effective Date or (b) is owned by any current or former Affiliate of a Parent Party as of the Effective Date, and a Parent Party has the right to license hereunder as of the Effective Date; and (ii) is used in the operation of the Company Parties’ respective businesses as of the Effective Date, but excluding any such Intellectual Property that the Parent Parties are prevented from licensing hereunder by applicable Law, including the Act on the Protection of Personal Information in Japan (collectively, “Licensed Parent IP”), to exercise all rights under the Licensed Parent IP in Japan in connection with all current and future policies, goods and services within the respective businesses of the Company Parties conducted as of the Effective Date.

SECTION 2.2 Licensed Company IP Grant. Subject to the terms hereof, the Companies, on behalf of the Company Parties, hereby grant to the Parent Parties a perpetual, irrevocable, royalty-free, fully paid-up, non-exclusive, non-transferable (except as set forth in Section 6.1) right and license under any Intellectual Property that (i)(a) is owned by any Company Party as of the Effective Date or (b) is owned by any current or former Affiliate of a Company Party as of the Effective Date, and a Company Party has the right to license hereunder as of the Effective Date; and (ii) is used in the operation of the Parent Parties’ respective businesses as of the Effective Date, including without limitation the patents listed on Schedule B, but excluding any such Intellectual Property that the Company Parties are prevented from licensing hereunder by applicable Law, including the Act on the Protection of Personal Information in Japan (collectively, “Licensed Company IP”), to exercise all rights under the Licensed Company IP in Japan in connection with all current and future policies, goods and services within the respective businesses of the Parent Parties conducted as of the Effective Date.

SECTION 2.3 Licensed Parent Software Grant. Subject to the terms hereof, Parent, on behalf of itself and the parties listed on Schedule C, hereby grants to the Company Parties a perpetual, irrevocable, fully paid-up, non-exclusive, non-transferable (except as set forth in Section 6.1) right and license under any Intellectual Property that (i) is owned by Parent or such listed parties and (ii) subsists in the Software listed on Schedule C (the “Licensed Parent Software”), solely to support the internal needs of their respective businesses in Japan, as conducted as of the Effective Date, and not for the direct or indirect use or benefit of, or the distribution to any other persons or businesses. For clarity, absent a later agreement by the Parties, this license does not include any other Software owned or used by any Parent Parties, including the items listed on Schedule D. The Parties acknowledge that, to the best of their knowledge, the Companies have received a copy of the source code of the Licensed Parent Software (the “Source Code”) on or prior to the Effective Date, and the Parent Parties are not required to provide or deliver any other materials to the Company Parties with respect to the Licensed Parent Software other than Source Code in existence prior to the Effective Date that was not delivered to the Companies prior to the Effective Date.

SECTION 2.4 Limitations. All rights not licensed under Sections 2.1, 2.2 or 2.3 are specifically reserved by the licensor Parties. For clarity, the above licenses do not include (i) any Intellectual Property or Software owned by a third party (i.e., not a Party or any of its current or former Affiliates); (ii) any Intellectual Property or Software created, invented or acquired by a licensor Party after the Effective Date, provided that any patents that issue after the Effective Date that arise from patent applications or inventions within the Licensed IP as of the Effective Date shall also be included in the “Licensed IP” of the owning party; or (iii) any obligations by the Parent Parties to provide maintenance, support, training, assistance, bug fixes, virus prevention or removal, corrections or improvements to the Licensed Parent Software.

SECTION 2.5 Sublicensing. The Parent Parties and Company Parties may sublicense their licenses in Sections 2.1 and 2.2 (but not 2.3) solely to parties in their supply chain (e.g., vendors, distributors, resellers, customers and end-users) to the extent a sublicense to such parties is implied or necessary to allow the Parent Parties and Company Parties to conduct their respective businesses, but not for the independent or unrelated use or benefit of any such sublicensees.

SECTION 2.6 Joint IP. The Parent Parties and Company Parties agree that, except for the items listed on Schedule D, to the best of their knowledge, there is no Intellectual Property or Software owned jointly between them as of the Effective Date. If, after the Effective Date, any Party discovers any jointly-owned Intellectual Property or Software that is not listed in Schedule D (“Additional Joint IP”), it shall notify the other Parties. Absent an agreement by the Parties to the contrary, any Additional Joint IP may be used and licensed by each Party without an accounting to the other Party, and the Parties shall cooperate in good faith to enforce any Additional Joint IP against third parties.

ARTICLE III. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

SECTION 3.1 Ownership. Parent represents that it or its Affiliate owns and, as applicable, has registered and maintained registrations for Licensed Parent IP licensed pursuant to Section 2.1(i)(a). The Parent Parties hereby acknowledge and agree that, as between the Parties, the Company Parties are the sole and exclusive owners of all right, title and interest in and to the Licensed Company IP. The Company Parties hereby acknowledge and agree that, as between the Parties, the Parent Parties are the sole and exclusive owners of all right, title and interest in and to the Licensed Parent IP and the Licensed Parent Software.

SECTION 3.2 No Ownership Claim. The Parent Parties hereby acknowledge and agree that none of them shall at any time, anywhere in the world: (i) file any application to register, or otherwise claim ownership of, the Licensed Company IP anywhere in the world or (ii) challenge or contest the validity, enforceability of or the Company Parties' rights in the Licensed Company IP. The Company Parties hereby acknowledge and agree that none of them shall at any time, anywhere in the world: (i) file any application to register, or otherwise claim ownership of, the Licensed Parent IP or Licensed Parent Software or (ii) challenge or contest the validity, enforceability of or the Parent Parties' rights in the Licensed Parent IP or Licensed Parent Software.

SECTION 3.3 Ownership of Derivative Works. If a Parent Party or Company Party creates or invents any new Intellectual Property after the Effective Date that is a modification, improvement or derivative work (a "Derivative Work") of any Intellectual Property owned by the Other Parties, Additional Joint IP or, with respect to the Company Parties, the Licensed Parent Software, the Party creating or inventing such Derivative Work shall exclusively own all rights in the new subject matter and shall have no obligation to license it to the Other Parties.

ARTICLE IV. ENFORCEMENT.

The owner of any Licensed IP (and the applicable Parent Parties, with respect to the Licensed Parent Software) shall have the sole right, but not the obligation, to challenge, attempt to eliminate and or bring an Action against its infringement, misappropriation or other violation by a third party. In the event that such owner decides to bring such an Action, the licensee Parties hereunder shall reasonably cooperate, at the owner's expense. All proceeds recovered in such Action shall be retained solely by the owner.

ARTICLE V. CONFIDENTIALITY.

SECTION 5.1 Source Code. The Company Parties acknowledge that the Source Code is a trade secret, and agree to maintain the Source Code in the strictest confidence. The Company Parties shall carefully restrict access to the Source Code to a minimal number of employees (and contractors, subject to a written agreement with legal duties at least as strict as those under this Agreement to keep the Source Code in the strictest confidence) on a "need-to-know" basis and shall otherwise protect its confidentiality with the same degree of care as they would use for their own most valuable confidential information. The Company Parties are liable hereunder for any unauthorized disclosure of or access to any Source Code.

SECTION 5.2 Confidential Information.

(a) Without limiting Section 5.1, each of the Parent Parties and the Company Parties shall, and shall cause their respective Representatives to, maintain in confidence and not use or exploit for any purpose other than in connection with fulfilling their respective obligations under this Agreement, any written, oral or other information relating to or obtained from the other Parties, respectively, except with respect to (i) any such information that is or becomes generally available to the public other than (A) as a result of disclosure by the applicable receiving Party, its Affiliates, or any of its or any of their Representatives, (ii) any such information that is required by applicable Law, Governmental Order or a Governmental Authority to be disclosed after notice has been given to the other Party as soon as practicable (including any report, statement, testimony or other submission to such Governmental Authority), (iii) any such information that is reasonably necessary to be disclosed in connection with any Action or in any dispute with respect to this Agreement (including in response to any summons, subpoena or other legal process or formal or informal investigative demand issued to the disclosing party), or (iv) any such information was or becomes available to such Party on a non-confidential basis and from a source (other than a Party or any of its Affiliates or Representatives) that is not bound by a confidentiality agreement with respect to such information. Each Party shall instruct its Affiliates and Representatives having access to such information of such obligation of confidentiality.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Parties acknowledge and agree that any Parent Party may share any information relating to or obtained from the other Parties with (i) the Federal Reserve Bank of New York or the U.S. Department of the Treasury and their respective Representatives, (ii) any insurance regulatory authority or (iii) any tax authority, in each case as the applicable Parent Party deems necessary or advisable in its good faith judgment.

(c) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, including the Act on the Protection of Personal Information in Japan, Section 5.2(a) shall not restrict or limit the use of or disclosure by the Parent Parties of any customer, policy or beneficiary information relating to the Company Parties if such information was in the possession or control of the Parent Parties prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing shall apply regardless of whether such information (i) was also possessed or controlled by the Company Parties on or prior to the Effective Date and/or (ii) was originated by any Company Parties.

SECTION 5.3 Unauthorized Actions. If, at any time, a Party becomes aware of a breach or potential breach of Section 5.1 or 5.2, such Party shall immediately notify the other Party and cooperate with any reasonable actions to prevent or remedy any such breach.

ARTICLE VI. ASSIGNMENT.

SECTION 6.1 Assignment.

(a) Except as permitted in Section 2.5 or Section 6.1(b), (c) or (d), neither this Agreement nor any right or obligation hereunder may be directly or indirectly assigned, sublicensed, assumed in bankruptcy, pledged, mortgaged or transferred by any Party, in whole or in part, to any person or entity (including a bankruptcy trustee), by operation of law or otherwise, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, without the Other Parties' prior written consent in their sole discretion, and any attempt to do so shall be null and void at the outset and shall be a material breach of this Agreement, provided that one or more Company Parties may merge with each other without consent and the surviving entity shall continue as a "Company" hereunder. For clarity, any change of control, merger or reorganization shall be deemed an "assignment" for purposes of this Section 6.1, regardless of whether a Company Party is the surviving entity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Company Party may assign any of its rights or delegate any of its duties, in whole or in part, to an Affiliate as of the Effective Date, provided that such Company Party shall notify Parent thirty (30) days prior to such assignment.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 6.1(a), if a Party (the "Divesting Party") sells or divests (whether by asset sale or otherwise) a business unit or any other portion of its business that is covered by one or more of the licenses in Section 2.1, 2.2 or 2.3 (as either a licensee or benefiting Party or a licensor or granting Party thereunder) (a "Divested Business"), the Divesting Party may sublicense or assign its applicable rights and obligations hereunder to the acquiror or successor of such Divested Business, without limiting the rights or obligations of the Divesting Party hereunder with respect to its retained businesses, provided that (i) the acquiror or successor must assume in writing all of the Divesting Party's applicable obligations hereunder and (ii) the benefits and burdens of the licenses and covenants applying to the Divested Business shall continue to apply only to such Divested Business and shall not extend to any separate or unrelated Affiliates or businesses of its acquiror or successor. Any purported transaction in violation of the foregoing shall be deemed null and void at the outset. The Divesting Party is not liable to an Other Party hereunder for any act or omission committed by the acquiror or successor of a Divested Business with respect to such Divested Business.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 6.1(a), if a Divesting Party sells or divests (whether by stock sale, merger, or otherwise) a Subsidiary that is covered by one or more of the licenses in Section 2.1, 2.2 or 2.3 (as either a licensee or benefiting Party or a licensor or granting Party thereunder) (a "Divested Subsidiary"), such Divested Subsidiary may retain its applicable rights and obligations hereunder, without limiting the rights or obligations of the Divesting Party hereunder with respect to its retained businesses, provided that the Divested Subsidiary must assume in writing all of the Divesting Party's applicable obligations hereunder, and the benefits and burdens of the licenses and covenants applying to the Divested Subsidiary shall continue to apply only to such Divested Subsidiary and shall not extend to any separate or unrelated Affiliates or businesses of its acquiror or successor. Any purported transaction in violation of the foregoing shall be deemed null and void at the outset. The Divesting Party is not liable to an Other Party hereunder for any act or omission committed by a Divested Subsidiary after the divestiture date.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 6.1(a), if a Party (the "Assigning Party") undergoes a merger, reorganization or sale of all or substantially all of its equity or assets, such Assigning Party may assign this Agreement to its acquiror or successor, provided that (i) the acquiror or successor assumes in writing all of the Assigning Party's obligations hereunder and (ii) the rights and obligations under this Agreement shall cover only the Assigning Party's business and shall not extend to any separate or unrelated Affiliates or businesses of its acquiror or successor. Any purported transaction in violation of the foregoing shall be deemed null and void at the outset.

SECTION 6.2 Binding on Successors and Assigns. In the event of a permitted assignment, this Agreement shall be binding upon, shall inure to the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by the Parties and their permitted successors and assigns.

ARTICLE VII. REPRESENTATIONS; DISCLAIMER; LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

SECTION 7.1 Duly Authorized. Each Party represents and warrants to the other that it has duly authorized, executed and delivered this Agreement, which, subject to the due execution and delivery hereof by the other Parties, constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of such person enforceable against such person in accordance with its terms. Each Party represents and warrants that it has the right and ability to perform the obligations and covenants provided for herein in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

SECTION 7.2 DISCLAIMER. ALL LICENSED IP AND THE PARENT LICENSED SOFTWARE ARE LICENSED HEREUNDER "AS IS," AND EACH PARTY EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS HEREUNDER ANY AND ALL WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING THE WARRANTIES OF DESIGN, QUALITY, VALUE, FREEDOM FROM BUGS, ERRORS OR VIRUSES, OPERABILITY, MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR USE OR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, SUITABILITY, ANY RESULTS DERIVED THEREFROM, OWNERSHIP, TITLE AND NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THE INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OF THIRD PARTIES.

SECTION 7.3 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. EXCEPT FOR A MATERIAL BREACH OF ARTICLE V, NO PARTY SHALL BE LIABLE, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, IN TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE AND STRICT LIABILITY), OR OTHERWISE, FOR ANY SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, EXEMPLARY OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING LOSS OF PROFITS, LOST DATA, BUSINESS INTERRUPTIONS AND CLAIMS OF CUSTOMERS, EVEN IF IT HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF THE SAME.

ARTICLE VIII. INDEMNIFICATION.

SECTION 8.1 Indemnification. Each party (the "Indemnifying Party") agrees to indemnify, defend and hold the other party and its affiliates and its and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, advisers and representatives (the "Indemnified Parties") harmless from and against any Losses resulting from or arising out of any claims or actions of third parties based on or arising out of any breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or obligation under this Agreement.

SECTION 8.2 Procedures. An indemnified party under Section 8.1 shall promptly notify the indemnifying party in writing in reasonable detail of any potential indemnifiable claim, provided, however, that any failure to provide such notice shall not release the indemnifying party from its obligations except to the extent it is prejudiced thereby. Upon receiving such notice, the indemnifying party may, by notice to the indemnified party within a reasonable time, assume the defense and control of such claim, with its own counsel and at its own expense, but shall allow the indemnified party a reasonable opportunity to participate with its own counsel and at its own expense. The indemnified party may take any actions reasonably necessary to defend such claim prior to receiving such notice. The indemnified party shall cooperate fully with the indemnifying party in its defense. Neither party shall, without the prior written consent of the other party (which shall not be unreasonably withheld), admit liability in, consent to a settlement, compromise or discharge of, or the entry of any judgment arising from any indemnifiable claim that adversely affects the other party in any manner, and the other party will have no liability for any Losses arising out of the first party's violation of the foregoing.

ARTICLE IX. TERM AND TERMINATION.

SECTION 9.1 Term. The term of this Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and lasts until Parent and each Company agree that the last item of Licensed IP or the Licensed Parent Software is no longer protected by the applicable intellectual property law. The Parties intend and agree that, in the event of a breach of this Agreement, the aggrieved Party may seek all available rights and remedies, except that this Agreement cannot be terminated as a remedy.

SECTION 9.2 Survival. Articles III, V and X and Sections 7.2, 7.3 and 9.2, of this Agreement shall survive the expiration of this Agreement.

ARTICLE X. MISCELLANEOUS.

SECTION 10.1 Notices. All notices, requests, claims, demands and other communications under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be given or made (and shall be deemed to have been duly given or made upon receipt) by delivery in person, by overnight courier service, by facsimile with receipt confirmed (followed by delivery of an original via overnight courier service), by e-mail (with confirmation by any of the other methods herein) or by registered or certified mail (postage prepaid, return receipt requested) to the respective parties at the following addresses (or at such other address for a party as shall be specified in a notice given in accordance with this Section 10.1):

SECTION 10.2 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced under any Law or as a matter of public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any Party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

SECTION 10.3 Entire Agreement. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, this Agreement and the Purchase Agreement constitute the entire agreement of the Parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, between or on behalf of the Parent, on the one hand, and the Companies, on the other hand with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the terms of the Purchase Agreement with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall govern.

SECTION 10.4 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the Parties and their successors and permitted assigns, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement, except that any non-signatory Parent Party or Company Party shall have the right to enforce its rights under this Agreement directly against the applicable Parties.

SECTION 10.5 Amendment; Waiver. No provision of this Agreement may be amended, supplemented or modified except by a written instrument signed by all the Parties. No provision of this Agreement may be waived except by a written instrument signed by the Party against whom the waiver is to be effective. No failure or delay by any Party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. The rights and remedies herein provided shall be cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

SECTION 10.6 Governing Law; Submission to Jurisdiction; Waiver of Jury Trial; Injunctive Relief

(a) This Agreement shall in all respects be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Laws of the State of New York without giving effect to any conflicts of law principles of such state that might refer the governance, construction or interpretation of such agreements to the Laws of another jurisdiction.

(b) Each of the Parent and the Companies, on behalf of itself and the Parent Parties and Company Parties, respectively, irrevocably and unconditionally:

(i) agrees that the Other Parties may bring an Action arising out of the interpretation and enforcement of the provisions of this Agreement in (i) the Courts of Chancery of the State of Delaware or, if under applicable Law, jurisdiction is vested in the United States federal courts, any court of the United States located in the State of Delaware, (ii) the courts in Japan, and (iii) for breaches of Article V, in any other court of competent jurisdiction;

(ii) acknowledges that money damages are an inadequate remedy for a breach or anticipated breach of this Agreement (including Article V) and the difficulty of quantifying such damages, and that, therefore, in such event, each of the Other Parties may, in addition to any other remedies available to it, bring an Action in the courts set forth in Section 9.6(b)(i) to obtain a restraining order and/or injunction or other relief to prohibit or remedy such violation, without needing to secure or post bond or other security;

(iii) agrees that service of process in any such Action may be effected by mailing a copy of such process by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to the applicable Parties at the addresses provided in Section 10.1; and

(iv) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT SUCH PERSON MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY ACTION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT.

(c) If there is a dispute (“Dispute”) as to whether a breach of this Agreement has occurred, such Dispute shall be resolved pursuant to this Section 10.6(c). The non-breaching Party may request discussion and negotiations between senior executives of each Party with the possibility of mediation. In the event that the Parties have not been able to resolve the Dispute to their mutual satisfaction within a period of thirty (30) days, either Party may request in writing (an “Escalation Notice”) that the Dispute be escalated to the chief executive officers of the respective Parties or to such other senior executives of the Parties as their respective chief executive officers may delegate. The Parties and their chief executive officers and other senior executives agree to use good faith efforts to resolve any Dispute pertaining to whether a breach of this Agreement has occurred. If the Dispute is not resolved by the chief executive officers or other senior executives of the respective parties within thirty (30) days following receipt of the Escalation Notice by the non-requesting Party, the Parties may pursue remedies through litigation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Party may immediately seek preliminary or temporary equitable or injunctive relief during the pendency of the foregoing procedures pursuant to Section 10.6(b).

SECTION 10.7 Obligations of Parties. Each obligation of Parent or each Company under this Agreement to take (or refrain from taking) any action hereunder shall be deemed to include an undertaking by the Party to cause the other Parent Parties or the applicable Transferred Subsidiaries, respectively, to take (or refrain from taking) such action. Subject to the provisions in Sections 6.1(b) and (c) with respect to Divested Businesses and Divested Subsidiaries, Parent and each Company is liable for any act or omission by the other Parent Parties or its Transferred Subsidiaries, respectively, that would breach this Agreement if committed by a Party hereto.

SECTION 10.8 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by facsimile or other means of electronic transmission shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.

SECTION 10.9 Bankruptcy. The Parties intend and agree that the licenses in Section 2.1, 2.2 or 2.3 shall be considered to be licenses to “intellectual property” as defined in the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 101(35A), and that if a licensor Party hereunder enters into bankruptcy, the licensee parties hereunder may fully exercise all of their rights and remedies under 11 U.S.C. § 365(n) with respect thereto.

SECTION 10.10 Further Assurances. The Parties agree to take all further actions, execute all further documents and otherwise cooperate in good faith to further the intents and purposes of this Agreement. If either Party discovers an error in a Schedule hereto, it shall promptly notify the other Party, and such Schedule shall be promptly corrected.

SECTION 10.11 Effectiveness. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, this Agreement shall only become effective as of the Closing and shall not become effective if the Closing does not occur.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the Parties has caused this Agreement to be executed by its duly authorized officer, in each case as of the date first written above.

WHEREAS, the Assignor is the present legal and equitable owner and holder of the Second Amended and Restated Promissory Note, issued by AIG FINANCIAL ASSURANCE JAPAN K.K., a Japanese corporation (the "Issuer"), dated March 31, 2009 and payable to the Assignor in the principal amount of ¥31,937,996,556 as of September 30, 2010 (the "Purchased Note"); and

WHEREAS, pursuant to a stock purchase agreement entered into between American International Group, Inc. and Prudential Financial, Inc.² dated as of September 30, 2010, (the "Stock Purchase Agreement") the Issuer will undergo a change of control of its voting stock (the "Change of Control"); and

WHEREAS, the Assignor now desires to assign to the Assignee all of its rights title and interest in and to the Purchased Note, effective as of [•]³; and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto would like to memorialize their intent and mutual understanding by entering into this Assignment.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Assignment. The Assignor does hereby transfer, assign, grant and convey to the Assignee, and the Assignee hereby irrevocably acquires and assumes, the Purchased Note and all of the Assignor's rights and interests thereunder, including, without limitation, its rights to receive any accrued but unpaid interest (including capitalized interest) under the Purchased Note. Pursuant to the terms of the Purchased Note, the Assignee shall deliver a new note to the Issuer, and the Issuer will issue a replacement note, dated [—]⁴ and payable to the Assignee in the principal amount of ¥[—]⁵ of like tenor and terms as the Purchased Note, and the Purchased Note shall be cancelled.

2. Representation of the Assignor. The Assignor represents that the Purchased Note, and its rights and interests thereunder are free from any pledge, hypothecation, security interest, encumbrance, claim, lien or charge of any kind.

3. Consent to Change of Control. To the extent the Assignor's right under the Purchased Note to consent to a change of control of the Issuer applies to the Change of Control to be effected pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, for the avoidance of doubt, the Assignor hereby irrevocably consents to the Change of Control.

4. Governing Law: Jurisdiction. This Assignment and all claims and defenses arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the formation, breach, termination or validity of this Assignment, shall in all respects be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York without giving effect any conflicts of law principles of such state that would apply the laws of another jurisdiction. Each of the Assignor and Assignee irrevocably and unconditionally:

- a. submits itself and its property to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Chancery of the State of Delaware or, if under applicable law, exclusive jurisdiction is vested in the United States federal courts, the federal courts of the United States located in the State of Delaware in any action directly or indirectly arising out of or relating to this Assignment, the transactions contemplated by this Assignment, or the formation, breach, termination or validity of this Assignment and agrees that all claims in respect of any such action shall be heard and determined solely in such courts;
- b. consents that any such action may and shall be brought in such courts and waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue or jurisdiction of any such action in such court or that such court is an inconvenient forum for the action and agrees not to assert, plead or claim the same;

Re: Hold Harmless and Indemnification Under General Guarantee Agreement

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Reference is hereby made to that certain Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of September 30, 2010 (the "Purchase Agreement"), between American International Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Parent"), and Prudential Financial, Inc., a New Jersey corporation (the "Acquiror"). Capitalized terms used in this agreement (the "Letter Agreement") and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Purchase Agreement.

Reference also is hereby made to (i) that certain general guarantee agreement, dated as of August 29, 2003 (the "AHA Guarantee Agreement"), made by American Home Assurance Company ("AHA") on behalf of GE Edison Life Insurance Company (as predecessor to AIG Edison Life Insurance Company, "Edison"), and (ii) that certain general guarantee agreement, dated as of August 20, 2003 (the "Lexington Guarantee Agreement", and together with the AHA Guarantee Agreement, the "Guarantee Agreements"), made by Lexington Insurance Company ("Lexington," and together with AHA, the "Guarantors") on behalf of Edison, each of which Guarantee Agreements was entered into for the benefit of certain parties insured under policies issued by Edison. [Acquiror or Affiliate of Acquiror with Parent's Consent] hereby acknowledges that, in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement on the Closing Date thereof, the Acquiror is required to cause to be delivered this Letter Agreement to the Parent and the Guarantors.

In consideration of the execution and delivery of the Purchase Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, (i) [Acquiror or Affiliate of Acquiror with Parent's Consent] (the "Indemnifying Party") agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Guarantors, against any Liability (as such term is defined below) incurred by the Guarantors after the Closing Date arising under their respective Guarantee Agreements (the "Guaranteed Obligations"), (ii) the Indemnifying Party agrees, upon notice from any of the Companies, the Transferred Subsidiaries, the Parent or any Guarantor, to promptly pay, in immediately available funds, any and all Guaranteed Obligations, on behalf of the relevant Guarantor and (iii) solely in the case of the AHA Guarantee, AHA agrees to publish notice of termination of the AHA Guarantee Agreement as soon as reasonably practicable after the Closing Date, in accordance with the terms of the AHA Guarantee Agreement.

For the purposes hereof, "Liability" shall mean any and all losses, costs, claims, obligations, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), damages, penalties, fines, or other liabilities (whether known or unknown, whether asserted or unasserted, whether absolute or contingent, accrued or unaccrued, whether liquidated or unliquidated, and whether due or to become due) arising under the Guarantee Agreements.

The liability of the Indemnifying Party under this Letter Agreement is absolute, direct and immediate, not subject to set-off or counterclaim, and not conditional or contingent upon the pursuit of any remedies against the Indemnifying Party or any other person. All the terms and provisions of this Letter Agreement are recourse obligations of the Indemnifying Party.

Upon payment of any obligations owing to any Guarantor, the Indemnifying Party shall be subrogated to the rights of such Guarantor under the Guarantee Agreement; and such Guarantor agrees to take, at the Indemnifying Party's expense, such steps as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably request to implement such subrogation.

In the event that the Indemnifying Party transfers, pledges or otherwise disposes of all or substantially all its properties and assets (including portfolio investments and capital stock of its Subsidiaries), whether in one transaction or a series of related transactions, to one or more Persons, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made prior to the consummation of any such transaction so that each such Person shall assume the obligations of the Indemnifying Party set forth in this Letter Agreement.

This Letter Agreement shall be binding on, and the term "Indemnifying Party," as used herein, shall include, the successors, assigns and other permitted transferees of the Indemnifying Party. This Letter Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the Guarantors and each of their respective successors, assigns and other permitted transferees. The obligations of the Indemnifying Party under this Letter Agreement shall be deemed to be continuing in nature and shall remain in full force and effect and shall survive until there are no longer any Guaranteed Obligations outstanding or contracted or committed for under any Guarantee Agreement.

To the extent permitted by law, the Indemnifying Party hereby waives and agrees not to assert or take advantage of any defense that may arise by reason of any principle or provision of law, statutory or otherwise, which is or might be in conflict with the terms and provisions of this Letter Agreement. The Guarantors shall not be required to resort first to any other Persons, their properties or estates, or to any collateral, property, liens or other rights or remedies available to them, for indemnification as herein contemplated.

This Letter Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties respecting the matters herein set forth and supersedes all prior agreements, whether written or oral, between the parties respecting such matters. Any amendments or modifications hereto, to be effective, shall be in writing and executed by the parties hereto. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, this Letter Agreement shall not limit, reduce or otherwise affect the validity or enforceability of the terms of any Guarantee Agreement.

This Letter Agreement shall in all respects be governed by, and construed and interpreted in accordance with, the Laws of the State of New York without giving effect to any conflicts of law principles of such state that might refer the governance, construction or interpretation of this Letter Agreement to the Laws of another jurisdiction. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably and unconditionally (i) submits itself and its property in any Action arising out of or relating to the interpretation and enforcement of the provisions of this Letter Agreement and of the documents referred to herein and in respect of the transactions contemplated hereby, to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Chancery of the State of Delaware or, if under applicable Law, jurisdiction is vested in the United States federal courts, the federal courts of the United States located in the State of Delaware; (ii) consents that any such Action may and shall be brought in such courts and waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue or jurisdiction of any such Action in any such court or that such Action was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to assert, plead or claim the same; (iii) agrees that service of process in any such Action may be effected by mailing a copy of such process by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to such Party at its address as provided hereinafter; and (iv) agrees that nothing in this Agreement shall affect the right to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by the Laws of the State of New York.

All notices, requests, claims, demands and other communications under this Letter Agreement shall be in writing and shall be given or made (and shall be deemed to have been duly given or made upon receipt) by delivery in person, by overnight courier service, by facsimile with receipt confirmed (followed by delivery of an original via overnight courier service) or by registered or certified mail (postage prepaid, return receipt requested) to the respective parties at the following addresses (or at such other address for a party as shall be specified in a notice given in accordance with this paragraph):

The failure of any party hereto to enforce any right or remedy hereunder, or to promptly enforce any such right or remedy, shall not constitute a waiver thereof nor give rise to any estoppel against such party nor excuse any of the parties hereto from their respective obligations hereunder.

A separate right of action hereunder shall arise each time any Guarantor acquires knowledge of any matter to be indemnified by the Indemnifying Party under this Letter Agreement. Separate and successive actions may be brought hereunder to enforce any of the provisions hereof at any time and from time to time.

EACH PARTY TO THIS LETTER AGREEMENT ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS LETTER AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS LETTER AGREEMENT.

The parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the terms or provisions of this Letter Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that, without posting a bond or other undertaking, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Letter Agreement, each of the parties hereto shall be entitled to injunctive or other equitable relief to prevent breaches of this Letter Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof in any court having jurisdiction, such remedy being in addition to any other remedy to which any party may be entitled at law or in equity. In the event that any Action is brought in equity to enforce the provisions of this Letter Agreement, no party will allege, and each party hereby waives the defense or counterclaim, that there is an adequate remedy at law.

This Letter Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one agreement, binding on all the parties hereto. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Letter Agreement by facsimile or electronic mail shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Letter Agreement.

This Letter Agreement is entered into for the benefit of the Guarantors, the Companies and the Transferred Subsidiaries, and executed and delivered, as of the date first set forth above.

EXHIBIT H

DIRECTOR AND OFFICER INDEMNIFICATION POLICY

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS.

For purposes of this Policy:

- (1) "Person" means any person who is or was a director, officer or statutory auditor of [•] (hereafter the "Company").
- (2) "Official Capacity" means:
 - (a) when used with respect to a director, the office of director in the Company; and
 - (b) when used with respect to a person other than a director, the elective or appointive office in the Company held by the officer or the employment or agency relationship undertaken by the employee or agent on behalf of the Company, but
 - (c) in both paragraphs (a) and (b) does not include service for any other foreign or domestic company or any partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise except to the extent such service was at the request of the Company.
- (3) "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitral, investigative, or any appeal in such an action, suit, or proceeding.
- (4) "Good Faith" means the Person acted in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, the Person had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

SECTION 2. STANDARD FOR INDEMNIFICATION.

The Company will indemnify a Person who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a Proceeding, by reason of the fact that such Person was acting as a director or officer of the Company, against expenses (including reasonable costs, disbursements and attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the Person in connection with the defense or settlement of such Proceeding only if it is determined in accordance with Section 6 that the Person conducted himself or herself in Good Faith.

SECTION 3. PROHIBITED INDEMNIFICATION.

A Person may not be indemnified under Section 2 in respect of any Proceeding in which final adjudication adverse to such Person establishes that his or her acts or omissions:

- (1) resulted in receipt of an improper personal benefit, regardless of whether the benefit resulted from an action taken in the Person's Official Capacity;
- or

(2) were in breach of his or her duty of loyalty to the Company. As used in this subsection, breach of a Person's duty of loyalty means an act or omission which that person knows or believes to be contrary to the best interests of the Company or its shareholders in connection with a matter in which he or she has a material conflict of interest; or

(3) were not in Good Faith or involved a knowing violation of law.

In addition, a Person may not be indemnified under Section 2 in respect of any Proceeding if indemnifying such Person would result in a violation of law.

SECTION 4. EFFECT OF TERMINATION OF PROCEEDING.

The termination of a Proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction, or on a plea of no contest or its equivalent is not of itself determinative that the Person did not meet the requirements set forth in Section 2.

SECTION 5. INDEMNIFICATION FOR A PROCEEDING BY OR ON BEHALF OF COMPANY.

Upon satisfying the standard for indemnification under Section 2, if the Proceeding was brought by or on behalf of the Company, the indemnification will be limited to expenses (including reasonable costs, disbursements and attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the Person in connection with the defense or settlement of such Proceeding. In addition, indemnification under this section is subject to any additional restrictions or limitations as required by law or court order with respect to a Proceeding by or on behalf of the Company.

SECTION 6. DETERMINATION OF INDEMNIFICATION.

A determination that indemnification of a Person is proper, and the Person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 2, or advancement of expenses is appropriate pursuant to Section 7, must be made by the Chief Legal Officer of the Company. In making any determination as to whether an indemnification of a Person is proper, the Chief Legal Officer must first consult with either the General Counsel of Prudential Financial, Inc. or the Law Department of The Prudential Insurance Company of America, dependant upon the following circumstances

(1) With respect to Persons that hold the title of either Chairman or President of the Company or acts as the country president (i.e., the head of the business in a given country) or its equivalent, or of higher rank, or if the amount to be paid in indemnification to any Person exceeds the Japanese yen equivalent of five hundred thousand dollars US ($ 500,000.00), prior consultation with the General Counsel of Prudential Financial, Inc.; or

(2) With respect to all other determinations not required to be made pursuant to (1) above, prior consultation with the Chief Legal Officer of the International Law Department of The Prudential Insurance Company of America.

However, to the extent that a Person has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of a Proceeding, as described in Section 2 above, the Company will indemnify such Person against expenses (including reasonable costs, disbursements and attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such Proceeding without the necessity of a determination as described in this Section 6.

SECTION 7. ADVANCEMENT OF EXPENSES.

Reasonable expenses incurred by a Person defending or investigating a Proceeding will be paid or reimbursed by the Company in advance of the final disposition of the Proceeding (1) if it is more likely than not that the Person will meet the standard for indemnification as set forth in Section 2, and (2) only after the Company receives a written undertaking by or on behalf of the Person to repay the amount paid or reimbursed if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified under this Policy; provided, however, the Person may be required to cooperate with an investigation to be conducted at the Company's expense, by a law firm selected by the law department, and that such law firm render an opinion that, based on its investigation, the firm has concluded that it is more likely than not that the Person will meet the standard for indemnification as set forth in Section 2 in connection with the Proceeding for which advancements are sought.

SECTION 8. CONTINUATION OF INDEMNIFICATION.

The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by this Policy will, unless otherwise provided when determined, continue as to a Person who has ceased to hold his or her position as a director, officer or statutory auditor, and, in the event of the death of such director, officer or statutory auditor, will inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators.
