AIG ANNOUNCES THREE NEW NOMINEES TO ITS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Nominees represent continued refreshment of the AIG Board and bring additional insurance and investment expertise

NEW YORK, April 1, 2019 -- American International Group, Inc. (NYSE: AIG) today announced that its Board of Directors has nominated three new director candidates for election at AIG's 2019 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The nominees, who will join ten current directors standing for re-election, are:

- Peter R. Porrino, former Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of XL Group Ltd
- Amy L. Schioldager, former Senior Managing Director and Global Head of Beta Strategies at BlackRock, Inc.
- Therese M. Vaughan, former CEO of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and the Robb B. Kelley Visiting Distinguished Professor and former Dean of the College of Business and Public Administration at Drake University

These nominations follow the January 2019 election of Thomas F. Motamed as a director. Mr. Motamed previously served as Chairman and CEO of CNA Financial Corporation and before that spent 31 years with The Chubb Corporation.

Douglas M. Steenland, Independent Chairman of the Board, said: "We are pleased to recommend these new director candidates for election at AIG's 2019 Annual Meeting, as they each bring additional perspectives while also enhancing the Board's insurance and investment expertise. Their nominations, along with the addition of Tom Motamed, are indicative of our continued focus on best positioning AIG to deliver long-term sustainable value for our shareholders."

Current directors Theresa M. Stone and Ronald A. Rittenmeyer will not be standing for re-election at the 2019 Annual Meeting. Ms. Stone is retiring as she will have reached the general retirement age under AIG's corporate governance guidelines, and Mr. Rittenmeyer has advised he will not stand for re-election given his other professional commitments.

Mr. Steenland added: "I want to thank our departing directors Terry and Ron for their service on the AIG Board. We are grateful for their many contributions."
