Events of Default and Acceleration:

In case an Event of Default with respect to the notes has occurred and is continuing, the aggregate amount payable to holders of notes, upon any acceleration permitted by the notes, will be equal to the Accreting Notional as of the most recent Accrual End Date listed above, plus an amount equal to interest on such amount calculated at the rate of 7.45% per annum for the period from such most recent Accrual Start Date, calculated on the basis of a 360 day year comprising 12 30-day months.

In case of default in payment of the notes, whether on the Maturity Date or upon acceleration, from and after that date, the notes will bear interest, payable upon demand of their holders, at the rate equal to 7.45% per annum, to the extent that payment of interest is legally enforceable on the unpaid amount due and payable on that date in accordance with the terms of the notes, to the date payment of that amount has been made or duly provided for.

Other Provisions:

“Business Day”

Means any day other than a day that (i) is a Saturday or Sunday, (ii) is a day on which banking institutions generally in the City of New York or London, England are authorized or obligated by law, regulation or executive order to close or (iii) is a day on which transactions in dollars are not conducted in the City of New York or London, England

Calculation Agent:

AIG Financial Products Corp.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We intend to lend the net proceeds from the sale of the notes to our subsidiary AIG Financial Products Corp. or certain of its subsidiaries for use for general corporate purposes.

CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

These notes have been issued with Original Issue Discount (“OID”), as defined by Section 1273 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The amount of OID on each $100,000 of notes is $88,857.22. The issue date of the notes is October 15, 2007. The yield to maturity on the notes is 7.45%.

Prospective investors should refer to the discussion under “United States Taxation” in the accompanying prospectus supplement for more information on OID and a discussion of the other material consequences of owning the notes.

ERISA CONSIDERATIONS

The notes may not be purchased or held by any employee benefit plan or other plan or account that is subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”) or Section 4975 of the Code (each, a “plan”), or by any entity whose underlying assets include “plan assets” by reason of any plan’s investment in the entity (a “plan asset entity”), unless in each case the purchaser or holder is eligible for exemptive relief from the prohibited transaction rules of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code under a prohibited transaction class exemption issued by the Department of Labor or another applicable statutory or administrative exemption. Each purchaser or holder of the notes will be deemed to represent that either (1) it is not a plan or plan asset entity and is not purchasing the notes on behalf of or with plan assets or (2) with respect to the purchase and holding, it is eligible for relief under a prohibited transaction class exemption or other applicable statutory or administrative exemption from the prohibited transaction rules of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code. The foregoing supplements the discussion under ERISA Considerations in the base prospectus dated July 13, 2007.
