

AIG Issues Statement on Financial Stability Oversight Council (FSOC) Decision to Remove SIFI Designation

September 29, 2017 6:26 PM ET

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sep. 29, 2017-- American International Group, Inc. (NYSE: AIG) today issued the following statement from AIG President and Chief Executive Officer Brian Duperreault regarding the Financial Stability Oversight Council's decision to remove AIG's designation as a Systemically Important Financial Institution (SIFI):

"I welcome the decision by the Financial Stability Oversight Council to rescind AIG's SIFI designation. The Council's decision reflects the substantial and successful de-risking that AIG's employees have achieved since 2008. The company is committed to continued vigilant risk management and to working closely with our numerous regulators to enable a strong AIG to continue to serve our clients."

Certain statements in this press release constitute forward-looking statements. These statements are not historical facts but instead represent only AIG's belief regarding future events, many of which, by their nature, are inherently uncertain and outside AIG's control. It is possible that actual results will differ, possibly materially, from the anticipated results contemplated by these statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ, possibly materially, from those in the forward-looking statements are discussed throughout AIG's periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
